NEWS OF THE DAY.

—The Eastern war cloud is not so black as it was.

—The papers are beginning to talk of better times.

—Centennial spectators are said to be mostly women.

—Clara Morris is trying to recover her health at Danbury, Conn.

—Mrs. Lewis will clear eighty thousand dollars by Daniel Deronda.

—The tea business for the season has opened in China with unusual activity.

—Antoinette Polk, a daughter of the soldier bishop, is the Belle of Roman society.

—The yachting season which commences in New York to-day promises to be a very brilliant one.

—Berdan, the well known American armorer, has just sold to the Servian Government 60,000 rifles.

—Dartmouth college, finding it impossible to raise funds to pay expenses, has settled not to send a crew to Saratoga.

—The Emperor and Empress of Brazil on Saturday visited the tomb of Washington, and afterward started for Niagara Falls.

—James Gordon Bennett has engaged two houses at Newport, Rhode Island, at a cost of $5,000 each. It is said that he proposes to sub-let one.

—At the wedding of the daughter of Hon. W. S. Grosbeck, of Cincinnati, with Mr. Fowler, of New York, the gentlemen wore English morning coats with blue neckties.

—Only a few weeks ago the revival meetings were converting young men to the true cause, and no sooner do the young men get fixed than the churches spring strawberry festivals on them.

—A. T. Stewart would have been wise to pension off his hungry poor relations in time. They are now swarming round his last will and testament like locusts. But possession is nine-tenths of the law.

—New York Commercial: An up-town gentleman, with a wife and five blooming daughters, proposes to take the entire family to the Centennial, for a two-days' visit, this week, and has mortaged his brown-stone front for $20,000 accordingly.

—Centennial correspondents now write that the rapacity of the restaurant keepers on the grounds has received a wholesome check, and the general emptiness of the highest priced boarding houses is having its legitimate effect in discouraging fancy figures, and they are now coming down to hard pan prices.

—A lady in Kentucky was awakened the other night by something passing over her. She found nothing, but some minutes later hearing a hissing sound, sprang up, struck a light, and descovered a rattlesnake coiled upon her pillow. Her baby and two little children were in bed with her. She maintained sufficient courage and presence of mind to dispatch the unwelcome intruder.

—Men who have traveled the road to California often, and know it thoroughly, declare that $1,000 would be no inducement at all for them to take a passage in the fast train which sped on its way over the mountains. Parts of the road are very rough, and it abounds in sharp curves and dangerous grades. There can be doubt that the trip, under the circumstances mentioned, would not be the safest in the world.

—England has accomplished so much in the way of reform with the last quarter of a century that its delay in correcting the last great abuses of its parliamentary system may be borne with patience. The extension of the borough franchise, the abolition of the property qualification for members, the adoption of voting by ballot, are among the results of quiet, persister effort on the floor of the House of Commons.

—Sir Alexander Galt is dissatisfied with the state of Canada. He says the tonnage of the Dominion has decreased since 1867; that during the last four years the imports have exceeded the exports by $140,000,000, and that under the Confederation the public debt has increased $53,000,000. He does not favor protection, but he would place specific duties on articles from this country in return for our illiberal policy. This impracticable scheme is not likely to be tried. The Canadians are not yet willing to tax themselves to annoy us.

—The total gold coinage for the month of May, as appears from reports by Dr. Linderman, the Director of the Mint, was $3,176,160; trade dollar coinage, $318,100; subsidiary silver coinage, $2,190,165; minor coinage, $12,475; total number of pieces struck, 10,215,634; total value of the coinage, $5,696,840. This is regarded as a very large coinage. The mints will close for the annual settlement about the 15th inst., which it is expected will occupy about two weeks. After the resumption of operations subsidiary coinage, it is probable, will be at the rate of three millions per month.

—The Rev. Matthew Hale Smith writes to the Boston Journal; "Some time ago I called on Commodore Vanderbilt to see if he would be interested in a railroad that was under mismanagement. He said he would undertake nothing in addition to his present business. His affairs, he said, were all arranged for his departure; his property all divided; his fortune disposed of; and those who came after him would have very little trouble in settling his estate. He holds very little real estate. Just before his marriage he put everything but his house and stables into the name of his son William."

—This is the sort of Judge's Democracy put upon the Supreme Bench in Indiana. The scene of the incident is laid in Lafayette, and it occured on Saturday evening. "While a rambling street-preacher was haranguing a mixed audience on a street corner, Judge Pettit, of the Supreme Bench, and a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket, passing by, stopped and commenced cursing the preacher and his theme, religion, and everything pertaining to it, in a most violent manner. The preacher did not notice the Judge's volley of small-talk, which exasperated the latter exceedingly, and he attempted to cane the preacher, but was prevented by the bystanders. Some person informed the preacher that his assiallant was a Judge on the Supreme Bench. The preacher immediately fell upon his knees and offered a fervent prayer for the abusive and misguided man. The Judge all the time kept up his tirade of abuse and curses. Epithets the vilest of the vile were heaped on the head of the inoffensive preacher while he was asking blessings from the Almighty on the Judge. Considering the man and his position, a more disgraceful scene was never witnessed. 'His Honor'' was evidently under the influence of liquor."

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THROSTLETHWAITE, by Susan Morley. Published by J. B. Lippencott & Co., Philadelphia, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This is a pretty English love story—a story of English middle life. The story turns on the fortunes of a young man who was made heir to a large estate, conditioned upon proving himself worthy of the prize, after a three years probation. It is never exciting, but is a quiet, simple story that will entertain, if it does not thrill.

HARPER'S SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY; richly illustrated. Published by Harper & Bros., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This handsome geography is both a physical and a political geography. Its information is put in the most concise form; its maps and illustrations are very fine, and its general arrangement is new and yet systematic. It is worthy of especial consideration by Boards of Education.

THE SUMMERFIELD IMBROGLIO. By Mortimer Collins. Published by Loring, of Boston. For sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

A rather trashy book, which tells the story of a how a wife ran away from her husband, but afterwards was brought back, a reconciliation effected and matters satisfactorily arranged. There is little of merit in the book.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN; a picture of the struggles of our infant nation one hundred years ago. By John S. C. Abbott. Published by Dodd, Mead & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co.

This belongs to the Pioneer and Patriot series. It is a good juvenile history of Franklin, and is a generally fair estimate of his character and life work.

LEFT HANDED ELSA. Published by Loring, of Boston. For sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This is a reprint from Blackwood's magazine. It is a bright, lively story.

Parental Resignation.

The other evening, says M Quad, a carriage being driven up Maple street had to come to a dead halt to prevent running over a child three or four years old who was seated in the centre of the street.

"Is that your child?" asked the driver of a man who lounged forward and beckoned to the dust-covered off-spring.

"Guess he is," was the slowly spoken answer.

"Aren't you afraid he'll be run over some day."

"He may be. His brother was run over last year about this time, and the folks made up a purse of $100 for me!"

Perhaps the memory of that purse had nothing to do with the other child being in the road.

FIRST EDITION.

BLAINE'S INVESTIGATION.

The Question of Compelling Him to Produce Private Letters Not Decided.

Fisher, Atkins and Mulligan Recalled.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The House Judiciary Committee met at ten o'clock this morning to consider the matter submitted to them by the Hunton sub-committee concerning Blaine's refusal to produce the letters obtained from Mulligan. The committee adjourned at one o'clock. A long discussion took place upon the question of compelling Blaine to produce the letters before the sub-committee, but without coming to any conclusion the whole matter was postponed till Tuesday.

The Sub-Judiciary Committee met at two o'clock to-day. Elisha Atkins was recalled, and said he does not know anything about any sales of any railroad bonds of any railroad which received subsidies from the Government, nor of any sales of Northern Pacific bonds. He was acquainted with the Aquila Adams transaction to which allusion had been made. Fisher proposed to witness at one time to take some Northern Pacific bonds, and witness agreed to do so. The firm of Atkins & Co. agreed to take $15,000 worth of them. Witness did not recollect what the firm was to receive for this amount. He was to receive them through Fisher from Blaine. He never got them, and the money was paid back by Fisher. He never had any other transaction in Northern Pacific, nor any transaction in Central Pacific, Kansas Pacific, Central branch, Western branch, Southern branch, Sioux City & Pacific or Texas & Pacific roads.

By Mr. Blaine—Did I ever have any money interest in the transaction you allude to in Northern Pacific? A.—No, sir.

Q.—You got your money back with interest? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Then it was impossible for me to have derived any benefit from it? A.—Yes, sir.

Mr. Blaine asked that the letter written by Atkins on May 29, 1876, heretofore published, in regard to this case, be put in evidence which was done.

Fisher Recalled.

Warren Fisher, Jr., was recalled. He testified that he purchased from Blaine on December 1, 1870, an interest in the Northern Pacific road, and paid $25,000 for it. He did not now recollect what that interest was, but knew at that time the attention of witness was called to a letter published in the New York Sun on May 28, 1876, purporting to have been written by Blaine to witness, asking him to purchase one-eighth or one-twenty-fourth part of an interest in the Northern Pacific road, and he was asked if that was a correct copy of the letter received by him from Blaine. Witness said it was. The original was destroyed on September 21, 1872, when witness and Blaine had a settlement. He gave a copy of this letter to Mr. Allen. The original was not among the letters brought here by Mulligan. Witness never received his certificate of stock for his interest, and the money was afterwards returned by Blaine. He did not know why he did not receive his certificate. He never asked about it, but presumed it was because it was not a profitable enterprise. He did not know why the transaction was not consummated, nor how Blaine was able to control such interest. Witness always understood this was purely a friendly act on the part of Blaine, and that he was not to have any interest in it in any way whatever. On the contrary, Blaine always said he could not take an interest in it at all. It had frequently been spoken of when Blaine visited his counting room, and when an opportunity offered Blaine notified witness about it. He never supposed that this stock belonged to Blaine. If it had been his, and been in his possession, he could have delivered it, of course. He never doubted that he should get his money back, and on September 21, 1872, it was returned, every cent of it, with interest. (By Mr. Hunton.) He did not recollect that any of the letters brought here by Mulligan related to this transaction. He read only four or five of them recently. The letters he read did not refer in any manner to any of the different Pacific Railroads which had been mentioned in the afternoon.

Mulligan Recalled.

James Mulligan was recalled, and said among the other papers obtained by Blaine from him was one containing a copy of the law relating to grants to the Northern Pacific Railroad. There were also some figures in it showing that it related to the one-eighth or one-twenty-fourth part which had been spoken of. He did not know whose handwriting it was in, but it was not in Blaine's.

Fisher was asked at this point what the paper was and where he received it, and he replied he had no recollection of any such paper.

Mulligan said he had found it in a desk among other papers, not particularly among the correspondence of Blaine with Fisher, but among all the papers.

Witness was requested to read the receipt given by Blaine to Fisher at the time Fisher paid over $25,000. This receipt was published in the Aquila Adams correspondence on May 27. After reading it witness said this was all the contract there was between Fisher and Blaine. He did not know why the stock was not delivered by Blaine, and after waiting about a year Fisher refused to take the stock because so long a time had elapsed.

Q.—And this is all you know about this transaction? A.—Yes, sir. I only know that Mr. Fisher paid money to Blaine, and Blaine paid it back on September 21, 1872.

Q.—Did you ever hear anything more than you have testified about the matters alluded to from any one? A.—No, sir.

By Mr. Blaine—Were you asked to bring any papers with you when you were summoned? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Why did you bring these letters of mine? A.—I did not know what I was to be examined about. I supposed it would be about the matter referred to in the Aquila Adams letters, and so I brought these letters to refresh my memory. I brought them because they were written by you, and there might be something in them I should be asked to explain.

Q.—Had you any reason to think I wrote a memorandum of the law you spoke about? A.—None at all, sir; only I found it among papers in the desk, and it related to the Northern Pacific.

Q.—You say you are not unfriendly to me? Do you know of any occasion for holding a grudge against me? A.—I never had any occasion to feel unfriendly, but thought I was not treated fairly on the occasion alluded to by Mr. Atkins yesterday.

Mr. Blaine was proceeding to make further inquiry on this point, when witness said: "Do you want me to go over all that? I will let you examine me if you will let me examine you afterwards."

The Chairman remarked that that was fair, but hardly pertinent to this inquiry under the present resolution.

Mulligan, Atkins and Fisher were allowed to return to their homes, but were notified that they were not discharged, and when wanted would be notified by telegraph. The committee then adjourned till Monday.

THE GOLD HUNTERS.

The Cincinnati Party Alive and Well.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The following dispatches received at Lieutenant General Sheridan's headquarters indicate that the report of the assassination by Indians of the Cincinnati party was a canard:

"FORT LARAMIE, June 2.—There is no information of the murder of the Cincinnati party. I believe it is false. General Merrett arrived this afternoon. TOWNSEND, Commanding."

"OMAHA, June 2.—The commanding officer at Fort Laramie telegraphs that he has received no information of the murder of the Cincinnati party, and believes the rumor false."

"OMAHA, NEB., June 2.—The commanding officer at Fort Laramie reports that Captain Eagan saw the Cincinnati party on May 21, twenty-eight miles from Custer. They were all right. They had one man slightly wounded accidentally. They were thirty-nine in number."

CINCINNATI, June 3.—Letters have been received from members of the two expeditions from here to the Black Hills, which show that the reports of the killing of eleven members of Col. Stone's party are false. Both expeditions arrived safely at Custer City without being molested by Indians.

Three Men Killed by Cheyennes.

CHEYENNE, WY., June 4.—Three men were killed by Indians this morning on Cedar Creek, forty miles south of Sidney and twelve miles west of Riverside, thought to have been by Cheynnes on their way north from the Republican Valley. A courier in at Fort Laramie to-day from Red Cloud Agency reports additional departures of young warriors for the north. Eight companies of the Fifth Cavalry have been ordered from the Department of Missouri to Fort Laramie. One hundred and twenty Snake Indians have been enrolled at Camp Brown, all well armed, and have started out to meet General Crook, to co-operate with him in the campaign.

Cavalry for the Black Hills.

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—Detachments of the Fifth Cavalry at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and Fort Hays, Kansas, are under orders to proceed to the Black Hills country, and will start as soon as relieved by infantry now en route to these posts from Fort Leavenworth. It is the intention of the Government to mass all the cavalry in the Black Hills region and garrison the frontier posts with infantry.

SPORTS IN THE OPEN AIR.

Pigeon Shooting in England.

LONDON, June 3.—The pigeon shooting match between Ira A. Paine, of New York, and Captain Patton, of London, winner of the grand Prix-du-Casino at Monaco, last January, took place to-day on the grounds of the Gun Club, the conditions being two hundred and fifty dollars a side, half forfeit, thirty birds each, and twenty-seven yards rise. The contest resulted in a tie, each sportsman killing twenty-one birds out of thirty. The next contest has been set down for Wednesday.

The Irish Riflemen.

LONDON, June 3.—The competition of the Irish riflemen for the selection of members to compose the Irish Team to go to Philadelphia was continued at Dundalk to-day.

The following were the scores at 800 and 900 yards:

	800 Yards.	900 Yards.
Capt. Smyth, of Glasgow	61	62
Sub Inspector Thynne, of Belfast	64	57
C. Taylor	61	59
William Elgby	63	68
Clarke	59	51
Reed	64	62
Edward Johnstone	72	61
William Joynt	61	64
Dyas	66	60
J. G. Pollock	65	58
Dr. Trail	55	59
Goff	Retired.
R. S. Greenhill	57	50

Johnstone's count of seventy-two at 800 yards was a splendid score, considering the weather.

There was a continuous downpour of rain during the shooting of these two ranges.

The shooting of the Irish riflemen at 1,000 yards range resulted in the following score:

Capt. Smyth, 44; Sub-Inspector Thynne, 46; C. Taylor, 46; William Elgby, 48; Clarke, 62; C. Reed, 51; Edward Johnstone, 53; William Joynt, 60; Dyas, 51; J. G. Pollock, 34; Dr. Trail, 32; Greenhill, 57.

Better Weather.

The weather during this shooting showed a marked improvement over that which prevailed while the firing at 800 and 900 yards was progressing.

American Jockey Club Races at Jerome Park.

A SHOCKING MURDER.

A Farmer's Young Wife Killed by a Farm Hand.

Details of the Horrible Affair—The Accused Now in Jail—An Affecting Scene.

ST. ALBANS, June 3.—Three years ago last January, Charles Butler, a young farmer, twenty-two years old, was married to Miss Alice Mead, an orphan, then just short of eighteen. Butler owns a farm, upon which his dwelling is situated, two miles north of Highgate Centre, and about eleven miles distant from this place. The house is a small one, standing near the main road, but some fifty or sixty rods from any other building. To this home he took his young wife, and has lived with her happily ever since. They had no children, the family consisting of Butler and his wife, Butler's father, an old man, and Edward Tatro, a Frenchman, employed on the farm, Tatro is a young man, twenty-one years old, small, and of slight built, but strong for his size. He is the son of a widowed mother, who lives in the neighborhood, and has been for some years in the habit of working around for the farmers in the vicinity. He has not a bad reputation, but is considered a sort of a dare-devil, given to the habit of drinking occasionally and of using tobacco to excess. He has been to work for Butler most of the time since last Summer, and his relations with Mr. and Mrs. Butler have been in the main pleasant, though it is said he and Butler have sometimes had a few words when they disagreed about the work. Yesterday Butler's father was away on a visit to one of the neighbors; Butler himself was away, assisting at a raising at a neighbor's, and Tatro was plowing with Butler's team for another neighbor, Edward Haskins. Butler came home between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and Tatro just before 6. Butler asked him why he came so early, and the boy answered that he had broken the plow point and beam. Butler, on examining the plow, found this untrue and charged the boy with it, whereupon he said he came because he had got his "stent" done and wanted to sharpen the plow point. After Supper Butler told his wife he had some business at Highgate Centre, and asked her if she wouldn't like to ride over there with him. She replied that she was not feeling well, and guessed she would not go. Something was then said about Tatro's going, but when the team was ready he said he would "stay with Alice," who had meanwhile gone into a bed room opening out of the dining-room, to lie down. Butler went away at 7 o'clock, leaving them alone in the house, and no other person is known to have seen Mrs. Butler alive after that, except a little boy who came to the house a little later.

Butler returned at about 10 o'clock, put his horse in the barn, and went into the house by the kitchen door. As he approached he noticed that the house was dark. Opening the door he advanced a few steps, when his foot hit against something lying on the floor, and by the dim light he saw that it resembled a human being. Supposing that it was Tatro, who had gone to sleep there waiting for him, he called him by name. Getting no response he stepped to the box and struck a match. It flickered and went out, but by the sudden flash of light he saw blood on the floor and a fearful heap of something lying there. The next match burned and revealed the horrible picture of his wife lying on the floor in a pool of blood, her clothing nearly all torn off. She was dead. Almost paralyzed at the spectacle, he obeyed his first impulse, and rushing to the barn, mounted his horse to ride to the neighbors for assistance. As he reached the gate he heard a sound of confused voices, and presently met a group of three or four horror-stricken men hurrying to the house. They were led by Tatro, who had nothing on but the tattered remnant of a shirt, and was crying and howling like a madman. The party proceeded to the house, and made an investigation. The murdered woman lay upon the floor, near the back or kitchen door, her head literally crushed in, and the brain protruding through the broken skull, her hands beaten black with some blunt instrument, bruised about the shoulders and scratched upon the neck. Close by her on the floor, lay three sticks of stove wood, more or less blood-stained, and an old musket, which usually stood in the stairway. Leaning against a sink close by was an axe, one side of which was deeply stained with blood, and on the floor near the stove the trousers Tatro had worn through the day. The usual sleeping room of Mr. and Mrs. Butler was up stairs, and adjoining the one occupied by Tatro. An examination of it showed that some one had apparently been lying not undressed upon the outside of the bed. The floor and walls were covered with blood, as was also the floor and walls of the hall and the stairs. A stove-pipe in Tatro's room was knocked down, and that also was blood-stained in various places. An old chair, which had stood by the head of the bed in the butler's room was found in the hall broken to pieces, and one of the legs appears to have been buried by a terrible blow in the murdered woman's head. The boy Tatro was examined and found covered with blood. His hands were crimson with it, and blotches and spatters were on his bare legs and arms. He was watched while Mr. Butler rode rapidly to Highgate and brought back a physician and officer, when he was immediately taken into custody. He was nearly crazy with excitement, sobbing and crying, but stoutly denying any guilt. This morning a Coroner's jury was called by Justice Lewis Christian, and an inquest was held at the scene of the crime. The Justice and jury examined the premises carefully, with results as above detailed. Upon taking the testimony of several witnesses, the jury found a verdict that deceased was murdered by the prisoner Edward Tatro. The prisoner was fully committed to await the action of the Grand Jury next Fall, and was brought to St. Albans this evening. Intense excitement prevails, and there is no other topic of conversation on the streets to-night. The murdered woman was very pretty and attractive, and probably would not weigh more than a hundred pounds. The scene between Tatro and his mother and sister at the close of the examination was heart-rending.

FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, June 3, 1876.

SENATE.

The Black Hills.

Mr. ALLISON called up the Senate bill providing for an agreement with the Sioux nation in regard to a portion of their reservations and for other purposes.

Mr. EDMUNDS offered a substitute authorizing the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint a commission, to consist of five persons, to visit, as soon as possible, the tribes of Sioux Indians, with a view to negotiating with them a treaty or agreement for the cession to the United States of the right of said tribes to the country known as Black Hills, and appropriating $50,000 to pay the expenses of the commission, and collect the Indians in one place for a conference. After discussion,

Mr. INGALLS suggested to Mr. Edmunds to amend his substitute so as to authorize the Commissioners to treat with the Indians for the relinquishment of the Black Hills, and for otherwise the preservation of the peace.

Mr. EDMUNDS accepted the suggestion and modified his substitute accordingly.

Mr. INGALLS submitted an amendment providing that any report made by the commissioners shall be transmitted to the President, together with any agreement made with said Indians, who shall transmit the same to Congress for approval. Agreed to.

The question then being on the substitute of Mr. Edmunds as amended by Mr. Ingalls, after further discussion it was agreed to without a division.

The question then being on adopting the substitute as amended, instead of the bill reported by the committee, further discussion took place, when Mr. ALLISON submitted an amendment authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish transportation, subsistence and protection to the commissioners during the time occupied by them in the discharge of their duties. Agreed to.

The bill was then read a third time and passed—yeas 30, nays 8.

Legislative Appropriations.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the unfinished business, being the bill making appropriations for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the Government for the year ending June 30, 1877, the pending question being on the amendment of the Committee on Appropriations to restore the salary of the President to $50,000 from and after March 4, 1877, and it was agreed to—yeas 31, nays 11—as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Anthony, Bayard, Booth, Boutwell, Christiancy, Clayton, Cooper, Cragin, Davis, Edmonds, Frelinghuysen, Hamlin, Howe, Johnston, Logan, McMillen, Mitchell, Morrill (Me.), Morrill (Vt.), Morton, Norwood, Paddock, Patterson, Ransom, Robertson, Sargent, Sherman, Spencer, Windom and Withers—31.

Nays—Messrs. Bogy, Cockrell, Eaton, Goldthwaite, Hitchcock, Kelly, Key, McCreery, Maxey, Stevenson and Thurman—11.

Other amendments of the committee restoring the salary of the private secretary to the President and the salaries of employes in the Department of State were agreed to.

When the paragraph in regard to the clerical force in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury was reached, Mr. EATON said the people of this country demanded that the expenses of the Government should be reduced. In his judgment there would be a deficiency in the revenues of the Government this year of from eighteen to twenty million dollars, and next year the receipts would fall off still more, and the deficiency then would be between forty and fifty million dollars.

The amendment proposed by the Committee on Appropriations restoring the salaries, etc., of clerks in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury was agreed to.

Other amendments of the committee restoring the salaries of clerks in the various bureaus of the Treasury Department, officers of the Controller of Currency and Commissioner of Internal Revenue, independent treasuries at New York, San Francisco, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Baltimore, Chicago, Cincinnati, New Orleans and Charleston were agreed to. Also amendments abolishing the office of Deputy Register of the Treasury, making appropriations for the designated depositories at Buffalo and Pittsburgh, and restoring the salaries of the employes in the mint bureau, as well as in the mint at Philadelphia and branch mints at San Francisco, Carson, Denver and New Orleans, and Assay officers at New York, Helena and Boise City. All other amendments proposed by the Committee on Appropriations restoring the salaries of territorial officers, members of the Board of Health of the District of Columbia and employes in the War and Navy Departments and their various bureaux were agreed to.

The Senate Committee reported in favor of striking out of the House bill the provision repealing sections 3159 and 3160 of the Revised Statutes, which authorize the appointment of Supervisors of Internal Revenue.

On motion of Mr. SHERMAN the Senate nonconcurred in this amendment. So the sections authorizing the appointment of those officers are repealed.

After finishing the clause in regard to appropriations for the War and Navy Departments the Senate went into executive session, and when the doors were reopened adjourned.

HOUSE.

The Whisky Frauds.

Mr. CATE offered a resolution directing the Committee on Whisky Frauds in St. Louis to investigate the questions of fraud in the manufacture of whisky and wines in Milwaukee, and whether any officers of the United States were concerned therein. Adopted.

Indian Appropriation.

Soon afterward the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Indian Appropriation bill. The day was consumed in the discussion of a variety of amendments, most of them offered by Mr. Seelye, and most of them rejected on a vote. Among them was one to forbid the furnishing of rations to white men living with Indian women. The amendment was opposed by Mr. HARRISON, who boasted for himself and a gentleman from New York, understood to be Mr. Cox, that they had Indian blood in their veins. Rejected.

The committee having reached the point of the bill providing for the transfer of the Indian Bureau from the Interior to the War Department, Mr. McCRARY made a point of order that it changed existing laws, and did not on its face retrench expenditures.

After discussion the committee rose, with the understanding that the point of order would be decided when the House next went into committee.

Alaska Seal Fisheries.

Mr. WOOD, from the Committee on Ways and Means, made a report in regard to the Alaska fur seal fishery lease, exonerating the officers of the Government and company from allegations of fraud. Ordered printed.

Amending the Rules.

Mr. RANDALL, from the Committee on Rules, reported an amendment to rule 74 authorizing the Committee on Banking and Currency to report at any time.

Opposition to this was made by Mr. KELLY and others, and without coming to a decision the House adjourned.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, June 4, 1876.

THE steamer Marion, recently ordered to the Rio Grande for the protection of American interests, has been ordered to sail for Europe.

THE Committee on Expenditures in the War Department have postponed the Kerr investigation till to-morrow, when an effort will be made to close the inquiry.

THE Southern Memorial Association of the District of Columbia decorated the graves of three hundred Confederate soldiers in Arlington Cemetery. A number of Massachusetts soldiers assisted. There were no orations.

A NUMBER of Senators say the Senate will postpone the Belknap impeachment case, as otherwise the appropriation bills could not be acted upon in time to afford the Government the necessary means to carry on its operations.

SOON after James Mulligan left the room of the Committee on Judiciary yesterday afternoon he appeared by summons before the Real Estate Pool Committee, which held its brief session with closed doors. Mulligan, having been interrogated after he left the room, said he had been asked a number of questions by the committee, but knew nothing whatever to communicate to them, and wondered why he had been summoned.

THE resolution of Representative Morrison fixing the 12th of June as the day for the final adjournment of Congress will not be considered by the Committee on Ways and Means, to which it has been referred, until further progress has been made with the general appropriation bills, which it is necessary to pass by the 1st of July, the commencement of the fiscal year. According to present appearances the adjournment will not take place before the middle of July.

FAST RAILROADING.

Unprecedented Time of the Special Train.

OMAHA, June 3.—The maximum rate per mile on each of the three divisions was one minute, and on one division, between Big Springs and Julesburg, the run was made at the rate of seventy to seventy-two miles an hour.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The train reached Mill City at 8:53, making twenty-nine miles from Winnemucca in thirty-three minutes. Passed Arcana at 9:13, everything working well.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The train arrived at the end of the Oakland wharf, which is within the city limits of San Francisco, at 9:25 A. M., twenty-six minutes less than eighty-four hours; arrived at the wharf on this side at 9:45, and at 9:2, the passengers alighted in the court of the Palace Hotel, dusty and travel-worn, but in good health and spirits. Engine No. 49 brought the train through from Ogden with the assistance of an additional engine in crossing the Sierras. The actual average running time from Ogden to the Oakland wharf was forty-one and one-eighth miles per hour. Considerable trouble was experienced on the Central Pacific from the wearing out of the brake shoes on the Pennsylvania cars, and in the mountains the Central Pacific Company put on two of their own coaches to brake the train. No accident of any kind occurred throughout the trip. Shortly after the arrival breakfast was served, to which prominent citizens, army and navy officers, representatives of the press, theatrical profession, railroad officials and the Mayor of the city were invited. A salute of thirteen guns was fired from the roof of the Palace Hotel on their arrival at the wharf. The rest of the day was devoted to needed rest.

A FAMILY POISONED.

A Wholesale Murder for Money.

EASTON, PA., June 3.—Moses Sehug, another member of the family recently poisoned, has died since yesterday, making the third death. The coroner's inquest, which is still in session, elicits the fact that arsenic was the poison used, and that there was enough poison in the coffee drank by the unfortunate family to have killed one hundred people. The money was stolen from the house, while a large amount of Government bonds and other securities were left untouched. The fact that Jacob Young was murdered and robbed near the same place only a few weeks ago creates a still greater feeling of uneasiness among the people living in that neighborhood. A large crowd is gathered to-day in the vicinity of the Laros homestead.

This evening the coroner's jury returned a verdict that Martin J. Laros, Mary Ann Laros and Moses Sehug died from poison administered by Allen C. Laros. The person so accused is a school teacher and a son of Martin and Mary Ann Laros, both of whom are among the victims. Since his arrest he has confessed that he administered the poison to his father and mother and Mr. Sehug, and that his sole object was to obtain possession of their money.

ROBBING THE TREASURY.

Conspiracy to Cheat the State.

HARRISBURG, PA., June 3.—Governor Hartranft to-day made information against Marshal S. Smith, a clerk in the State Treasury Department for eleven years, and John A. Wagoner, who was clerk in the Auditor General's office while Hartranft held that position, for entering into a conspiracy with Mr. Millspaugh, City Treasurer of Scranton, to defraud the State of $5,000. Millspaugh has confessed to having made his return to the State Treasury $5,000 short, and has agreed to give up his share of the plunder, $2,500, and has exposed his accomplices, one of whom (Wagoner) induced him to enter into the arrangement, Smith agreeing to enter the return as presented.

The defendants have been placed under $4,000 bail, each. As a reward for his revelations Millspaugh will not be punished. It is believed that similar corrupt practices have been carried on for years. Wagoner, while clerk, occupied the desk at which County and City Treasurers' accounts were audited. More arrests are expected to follow.

SOUTH AMERICAN SLAVERY.

British Ships Charged with Carrying Slaves—Explanation by Officers of the Company.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—This morning Rev. Emanuel Vanorden called upon Sir Edward Thornton, and stated that the Nellie Martins, of the Starball line of steamers, running between New York and Rio De Janeiro, and belonging to an English company, though styled United States Mail Steamship Company, arrived in Rio De Janeiro on the 1st of March last, carrying slaves to be delivered. The British minister promised to inquire into the matter, and report to his Government.

NEW YORK, June 3.—In regard to the complaint in Washington of Rev. Mr. Vanorden that the steamships plying between New York and Rio Janeiro carry slaves from one Brazilian port to another, the officers of the company have exhibited the way bills of the steamers, and by them show that the greatest number of colored men taken at one time from one port to another of Brazil was twenty, and these were body servants of cabin passengers. If a planter hired passage for himself and one or two servants, it would be a matter of impertinence for the officers to inquire whether or not the servants were slaves or free. As to conveying any number of slaves as such, either with or without a cabin passenger accompanying them, the story was entirely devoid of foundation.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

A Man Shoots His Wife and Child and Then Kills Himself.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—The dead bodies of a man, woman and girl about three years old were found in a secluded part of the woods at Belleville, Ills., yesterday afternoon. The woman and child were shot in the head, and the man in the heart. The parties are unknown. From the position of the bodies and the manner in which they were arranged it is supposed that the man shot his wife and child and then killed himself. Persons living near by heard three shots about sunset on Thursday night, and believe this frightful tragedy was enacted at that time.

At the Coroner's inquest the barkeeper of the Tremann House, in Belleville, identified them as those of a family that stopped at that House from the 4th to the 31st of May. The man registered as Joseph May, of Evansville, Indiana. He left a trunk at the Tremann House, in which was found photographs of all the deceased, and a hymn book with the name Christine Becker in it. The verdict of the jury was to the effect that May shot the woman and child and then killed himself. It is supposed poverty led to the act.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

Florida Strong for Blaine.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A special from Madison, Florida, says the regular Republican Convention nominated M. L. Stearns for Governor and Hon. D. Montgomery for Lieutenant Governor. Delegates to Cincinnati were chosen as follows: E. M. Cheney (Blaine), P. W. Bryant (Blaine), W. H. Gleason (Blaine), B. F. Livingstone (Blaine), C. D. Brigham (Blaine), A. B. Osgood (Conkling), G. E. Wenworth (Blaine), and J. H. Armstrong (Blaine).

Another dispatch from Madison, Florida, says a bolt was made in the Republican Convention yesterday, United States Senator Conover and Representatives Purman and Walls conducting it. The bolters secured another hall, and Senator Conover was nominated for Governor and Mr. Lee for Lieutenant Governor. It was resolved not to send a delegation to Cincinnati. Governor Stearns is the leading spirit of the regular Convention, and the quarrel between him and Conover is an old affair.

Bursting of a Water Tank.

NEW YORK, June 4.—No confirmation has been received up till two o'clock Sunday morning of a dispatch from London, England, that the tank on top of St. George's Hospital gave way without a moment's warning, the water crashing down through the wards underneath and carrying the patients in their beds before it, tearing out walls, and deluging the entire building. The report says several of the patients were killed and many seriously injured, and that the building is badly wrecked.

The Freshest Gleanings from the Old World.

Death of the Ex-Sultan of Turkey.

He Commits Suicide by Severing the Blood Vessels of His Arms.

Suicide of the Ex-Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—It is officially announced that Ex-Sultan Abdul Aziz committed suicide this (Sunday) morning by opening the veins of his arm with a pair of scissors.

Giving the New Sultan a Chance.

BERLIN, June 4.—The powers have suspended action on the Berlin memorandum for a few days, that the new Turkish Government may give unmistakable indication of their policy and their power of maintaining themselves.

Centennial Celebration.

PARIS, June 4.—The directors of the Polish National Museum at Rapperswyl, Switzerland, have issued invitations to join in a celebration of the centenary of American independence on the 4th of July next, to honor the memories of the Polish heroes of Pulaski and Mosciuske.

England's War Preparations.

LONDON, June 4.—England has sent Admiral Drummond to the east, with orders to prevent the forcing of the Dardanelles. The unfinished iron clads are being completed in great haste. Regiments are under orders to be ready to start at a moment's notice.

The Policy of England and Russia.

The insurgents have a notion of bringing both Russia and England to their aid, for they are unwilling to accept Prince Charles of Roumania or Prince Milan of Servia as their sovereign. They have entertained the project of inviting his Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to become Emperor over them, thus through himself and his wife, Princess Marie Alexandrona, uniting the English and Russian interests.

Insurgents Defeated in Cuba.

HAVANA, June 4.—The town of Ciego de Avila, in the jurisdiction of Santo Spiritu, was attacked on the night of May 26th by the insurgent leader, Maximo Gomes, with 1,600 men. Most of them were mounted. The place was defeated by a garrison four hundred strong. The insurgents were repulsed after desperate fighting, and retired without being pursued. They lost thirty in killed and ten in wounded. The Spanish casualties were two officers killed and three men wounded.

State of Siege in Spain.

SAN SEBASTIAN, June 4.—Gen. Quesada has ordered the state of siege in the province of Santander to be extended. Several suspected Carlists have been expelled from Biscay.

Servia Advised to Exercise Moderation.

PARIS, June 4.—The Governments of Austria, Russia and France have instructed their representatives at Belgrade to counsel the Servian Cabinet to exercise moderation.

The Spanish Fueras.

MADRID, June 4.—The bill suppressing the Fueras has been introduced in the Senate. It provides that all Spaniards shall be liable to military conscription and taxation alike, with these exceptions: Persons in the Basque provinces who supported King Alfonso during the late war are exempted from conscription for ten years, and those who suffered persecution for the Alfonsist cause are exempted from the payment of taxes for the same term.

The Death of the Ex-Sultan.

LONDON, June 5.—The Times' correspondent at Paris says the physicians of the British and other embassys at Constantinople testify that the late Sultan committed suicide by cutting the arteries of both arms with a pair of scissors. He died at the Teheragan Palace at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, and was buried in the tomb of Mahmoud II. on Sunday evening.

One telegram received in Paris asserts that the ex-Sultan stabbed himself with a dagger. It is generally remarked in Paris as strange that Abdiel Aziz, who had always shown himself so feeble, should have suddenly displayed so much energy, and at the same time that his death was of so little importance to any one that it seemed repregnant to attribute it to assassination.

The Situation Becoming Critical.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times (Ministerial) North German Gazette gives us to understand that owing to the antagonism between Russia and England all Europe is plunged into a most critical situation. The National Zeitung regards the pacific view recently taken by Count Andrassy as entirely erroneous, and foresees that a momentous decision will now have to be immediately adopted by the various powers.

The Times' correspondent remarks that there is but too much reason for these apprehensions, and adds: The King of Greece has ordered his army to be placed on a war footing. A special commissioner has arrived in Germany to negotiate a Greek war loan. He is expected to settle it immediately. This serious movement is accompanied by others of like import.

The Attitude of Servia and Montenegro.

Further advices from Berlin to the Times state that the declaration of the Montenegro official Gazette that the insurgents are determined to immediately fall upon the Turks with the whole Servan race must be considered as authority, M. Wesselitski, Prussian agent in Herzegovina, having published an address handing the military and diplomatic direction of the Insurgent affairs over to the Prince of Montenegro. The Servian troops are ranged on the frontier and ready to act at a moment's notice. The central staff has gone to Alexinatz, near the Turkish camp at Nist. The principal Servian force, however, is stationed at Losnitza, where pontoon bridges are being constructed preparatory to crossing the Drina into Bosnia. Various fortified camps have been established along the frontier.

The Russian General Tchernayeff, who has assumed command of the Servian forces, on his arrival in Belgrade handed the Servian Government $250,000 as a donation from the Sclavonic societies of Russia.

A New Constitution for Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—The Porte is drawing up a very liberal Constitution, which will soon be promulgated.

Inspecting Fortifications.

LONDON, June 5.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent says letters from Constantinople assert that Vice Admiral Sir James Drummond, commanding the British fleet on the Mediterranean, has undertaken an inspection of the fortifications of the Dardanells at the request of the Porte.

Bulgaria Rising.

Bulgaria is also being set afire by hosts of well armed volunteers, which are daily arriving from Russia, Servia, Raumania and Montenegro, who have established fortified camps, amply armed with cannon. Notwithstanding these difioulties, the attitude of the Port continues firm. The recent reform Firman of Abdul Aziz has been specially auth[illegible]own in some places. Special envoys have been sent to Morocco and Tunis to ask for assistance. A crisis is unavoidable unless Russia retracts. Russia is unprepared for the present contingency, and is slow to decide. There is a feeling in Berlin that we are on the eve of momentous changes, and every hour may bring important news.

The Berlin Telegraphic Agency asserts that England has concluded an alliance with Turkey and guaranteed the latter's integrity. The Russian Telegraphic Agency declares that Murad will be recognized on all hands without protest as soon as his accession is officially announced.

MINOR FOREIGN NOTES.

KING VICTOR EMANUEL has accepted the honorary Presidency of the Philadelphia Commission in Rome for the erection of a statue of Columbus.

A FRENCH prisioner has been sentenced by a court martial to suffer death for taking part in the massacre of Dominicians at Arcueil during the seige of the Commune.

THE Paris Droits de l'Houme says the proposed sending of a workmen's delegation to the Philadelphia Exhibition threatens to be a failure, as scarcely $10,000 have been collected, which will barely suffice for twenty-five delegates.

A Pennsylvanian Murdered in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—A Rolla (Missouri) special says the dead body of a man was found near that place last evening, supposed to be that of W. A. Kennedy, a stranger who registered at the hotel as from Coal Bluffs, Pa. He is believed to have had considerable money, for which it is suspected he was murdered.

An Oil Tank Struck by Lightning.

MEADVILLE, June 3.—This afternoon lightning struck an oil tank containing 21,000 barrels of crude oil belonging to O. D. Harrington, one mile south of Oil City. It immediately exploded and set fire to one owned by McGrew Brothers, containing 23,000 barrels of oil. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

A COAL TOW STRANDED.

The Tow of the Joe Williams Fast on a Bar.

MEMPHIS, June 3.—The tow boat Joe Williams stranded her tow yesterday on the bar at the foot of Devil's Elbow cut-off. She came down to-day after a tug and some barges to try and lighten the barges off. The tow consisted of twenty-one boats and barges, with 250,000 bushels of coal. Two of the barges were sunk, and will prove a total loss. The others are hard aground, with only four and a half or five feet of water, and the river falling steadily. The Williams was drawing six and a half feet, and is unable to get to them, but it is thought the tug will, with the barges, be able to get them afloat. The tow is owned by the Grand Lake Company, of Pittsburgh, and is valued at $60,000; uninsured.

Funeral of the Dead Sultan.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs has addressed the following telegram to the Turkish Minister at Washington:

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—A sad event has just painfully effected our august sovereign and his Government. Abdul Aziz Khan, the late Sultan, who for some time past unfortunately gave evident signs of mental derangement, having locked himself up in the morning in his apartments of the palace of Scheragan, committed suicide by opening the veins of his arms with scissors, which he had concealed on his person. The Imperial Government hastened to cause all legal inquests to be made, also a detailed medical report, which will be forwarded to you very soon. All the ministers, the high officers, both civil and military, will be present at the funeral of His Majesty, which will take place with the accustomed pomp and honor due to the deceased, whose body will be laid in the mausoleum of Sultan Mahmoud.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

—The Eastern war cloud is not so black as it was.

—The papers are beginning to talk of better times.

—Centennial spectators are said to be mostly women.

—Clara Morris is trying to recover her health at Danbury, Conn.

—Mrs. Lewis will clear eighty thousand dollars by Daniel Deronda.

—The tea business for the season has opened in China with unusual activity.

—Antoinette Polk, a daughter of the soldier bishop, is the Belle of Roman society.

—The yachting season which commences in New York to-day promises to be a very brilliant one.

—Berdan, the well known American armorer, has just sold to the Servian Government 60,000 rifles.

—Dartmouth college, finding it impossible to raise funds to pay expenses, has settled not to send a crew to Saratoga.

—The Emperor and Empress of Brazil on Saturday visited the tomb of Washington, and afterward started for Niagara Falls.

—James Gordon Bennett has engaged two houses at Newport, Rhode Island, at a cost of $5,000 each. It is said that he proposes to sub-let one.

—At the wedding of the daughter of Hon. W. S. Grosbeck, of Cincinnati, with Mr. Fowler, of New York, the gentlemen wore English morning coats with blue neckties.

—Only a few weeks ago the revival meetings were converting young men to the true cause, and no sooner do the young men get fixed than the churches spring strawberry festivals on them.

—A. T. Stewart would have been wise to pension off his hungry poor relations in time. They are now swarming round his last will and testament like locusts. But possession is nine-tenths of the law.

—New York Commercial: An up-town gentleman, with a wife and five blooming daughters, proposes to take the entire family to the Centennial, for a two-days' visit, this week, and has mortaged his brown-stone front for $20,000 accordingly.

—Centennial correspondents now write that the rapacity of the restaurant keepers on the grounds has received a wholesome check, and the general emptiness of the highest priced boarding houses is having its legitimate effect in discouraging fancy figures, and they are now coming down to hard pan prices.

—A lady in Kentucky was awakened the other night by something passing over her. She found nothing, but some minutes later hearing a hissing sound, sprang up, struck a light, and descovered a rattlesnake coiled upon her pillow. Her baby and two little children were in bed with her. She maintained sufficient courage and presence of mind to dispatch the unwelcome intruder.

—Men who have traveled the road to California often, and know it thoroughly, declare that $1,000 would be no inducement at all for them to take a passage in the fast train which sped on its way over the mountains. Parts of the road are very rough, and it abounds in sharp curves and dangerous grades. There can be doubt that the trip, under the circumstances mentioned, would not be the safest in the world.

—England has accomplished so much in the way of reform with the last quarter of a century that its delay in correcting the last great abuses of its parliamentary system may be borne with patience. The extension of the borough franchise, the abolition of the property qualification for members, the adoption of voting by ballot, are among the results of quiet, persistent effort on the floor of the House of Commons.

—Sir Alexander Galt is dissatisfied with the state of Canada. He says the tonnage of the Dominion has decreased since 1867; that during the last four years the imports have exceeded the exports by $140,000,000, and that under the Confederation the public debt has increased $53,000,000. He does not favor protection, but he would place specific duties on articles from this country in return for our illiberal policy. This impracticable scheme is not likely to be tried. The Canadians are not yet willing to tax themselves to annoy us.

—The total gold coinage for the month of May, as appears from reports by Dr. Linderman, the Director of the Mint, was $3,176,160; trade dollar coinage, $318,100; subsidiary silver coinage, $2,190,105; minor coinage, $12,475; total number of pieces struck, 10,215,634; total value of the coinage, $5,696,840. This is regarded as a very large coinage. The mints will close for the annual settlement about the 15th inst., which it is expected will occupy about two weeks. After the resumption of operations subsidiary coinage, it is probable, will be at the rate of three millions per month.

—The Rev. Matthew Hale Smith writes to the Boston Journal; "Some time ago I called on Commodore Vanderbilt to see if he would be interested in a railroad that was under mismanagement. He said he would undertake nothing in addition to his present business. His affairs, he said, were all arranged for his departure; his property all divided; his fortune disposed of; and those who came after him would have very little trouble in settling his estate. He holds very little real estate. Just before his marriage he put everything but his house and stables into the name of his son William."

—This is the sort of Judge's Democracy put upon the Supreme Bench in Indiana. The scene of the incident is laid in Lafayette, and it occured on Saturday evening. "While a rambling street-preacher was haranguing a mixed audience on a street corner, Judge Pettit, of the Supreme Bench, and a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket, passing by, stopped and commenced cursing the preacher and his theme, religion, and everything pertaining to it, in a most violent manner. The preacher did not notice the Judge's volley of small-talk, which exasperated the latter exceedingly, and he attempted to cane the preacher, but was prevented by the bystanders. Some person informed the preacher that his assiallant was a Judge on the Supreme Bench. The preacher immediately fell upon his knees and offered a fervent prayer for the abusive and misguided man. The Judge all the time kept up his tirade of abuse and curses. Epithets the vilest of the vile were heaped on the head of the inoffensive preacher while he was asking blessings from the Almighty on the Judge. Considering the man and his position, a more disgraceful scene was never witnessed. 'His Honor" was evidently under the influence of liquor."

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THROSTLETHWAITE, by Susan Morley. Published by J. B. Lippencott & Co., Philadelphia, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. R, Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This is a pretty English love story—a story of English middle life. The story turns on the fortunes of a young man who was made heir to a large estate, conditioned upon proving himself worthy of the prize, after a three years probation. It is never exciting, but is a quiet, simple story that will entertain, if it does not thrill.

HARPER'S SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY; richly illustrated. Published by Harper & Bros., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This handsome geography is both a physical and a political geography. Its information is put in the most concise form; its maps and illustrations are very fine, and its general arrangement is new and yet systematic. It is worthy of especial consideration by Boards of Education.

THE SUMMERFIELD IMBROGLIO. By Mortimer Collins. Published by Loring, of Boston. For sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

A rather trashy book, which tells the story of a how a wife ran away from her husband, but afterwards was brought back, a reconciliation effected and matters satisfactorily arranged. There is little of merit in the book.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN; a picture of the struggles of our infant nation one hundred years ago. By John S. C. Abbott. Published by Dodd, Mead & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co.

This belongs to the Pioneer and Patriot series. It is a good juvenile history of Franklin, and is a generally fair estimate of his character and life work.

LEFT HANDED ELSA. Published by Loring, of Boston. For sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This is a reprint from Blackwood's magazine. It is a bright, lively story.

Parental Resignation.

The other evening, says M Quad, a carriage being driven up Maple street had to come to a dead halt to prevent running over a child three or four years old who was seated in the centre of the street.

"Is that your child?" asked the driver of a man who lounged forward and beckoned to the dust-covered off-spring.

"Guess he is," was the slowly spoken answer.

"Aren't you afraid he'll be run over some day."

"He may be. His brother was run over last year about this time, and the folks made up a purse of $100 for me!"

Perhaps the memory of that purse had nothing to do with the other child being in the road.

FIRST EDITION.

BLAINE'S INVESTIGATION.

The Question of Compelling Him to Produce Private Letters Not Decided.

Fisher, Atkins and Mulligan Recalled.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The House Judiciary Committee met at ten o'clock this morning to consider the matter submitted to them by the Hunton sub-committee concerning Blaine's refusal to produce the letters obtained from Mulligan. The committee adjourned at one o'clock. A long discussion took place upon the question of compelling Blaine to produce the letters before the sub-committee, but without coming to any conclusion the whole matter was postponed till Tuesday.

The Sub-Judiciary Committee met at two o'clock to-day. Elisha Atkins was recalled, and said he does not know anything about any sales of any railroad bonds of any railroad which received subsidies from the Government, nor of any sales of Northern Pacific bonds. He was acquainted with the Aquila Adams transaction to which allusion had been made. Fisher proposed to witness at one time to take some Northern Pacific bonds, and witness agreed to do so. The firm of Atkins & Co. agreed to take $15,000 worth of them. Witness did not recollect what the firm was to receive for this amount. He was to receive them through Fisher from Blaine. He never got them, and the money was paid back by Fisher. He never had any other transaction in Northern Pacific, nor any transaction in Central Pacific, Kansas Pacific, Central branch, Western branch, Southern branch, Sioux City & Pacific or Texas & Pacific roads.

By Mr. Blaine—Did I ever have any money interest in the transaction you allude to in Northern Pacific? A.—No, sir.

Q.—You got your money back with interest? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Then it was impossible for me to have derived any benefit from it? A.—Yes, sir.

Mr. Blaine asked that the letter written by Atkins on May 29, 1876, heretofore published, in regard to this case, be put in evidence which was done.

Fisher Recalled.

Warren Fisher, Jr., was recalled. He testified that he purchased from Blaine on December 1, 1870, an interest in the Northern Pacific road, and paid $25,000 for it. He did not now recollect what that interest was, but knew at that time the attention of witness was called to a letter published in the New York Sun on May 28, 1876, purporting to have been written by Blaine to witness, asking him to purchase one-eighth or one-twenty-fourth part of an interest in the Northern Pacific road, and he was asked if that was a correct copy of the letter received by him from Blaine. Witness said it was. The original was destroyed on September 21, 1872, when witness and Blaine had a settlement. He gave a copy of this letter to Mr. Allen. The original was not among the letters brought here by Mulligan. Witness never received his certificate of stock for his interest, and the money was afterwards returned by Blaine. He did not know why he did not receive his certificate. He never asked about it, but presumed it was because it was not a profitable enterprise. He did not know why the transaction was not consummated, nor how Blaine was able to control such interest. Witness always understood this was purely a friendly act on the part of Blaine, and that he was not to have any interest in it in any way whatever. On the contrary, Blaine always said he could not take an interest in it at all. It had frequently been spoken of when Blaine visited his counting room, and when an opportunity offered Blaine notified witness about it. He never supposed that this stock belonged to Blaine. If it had been his, and been in his possession, he could have delivered it, of course. He never doubted that he should get his money back, and on September 21, 1872, it was returned, every cent of it, with interest. (By Mr. Hunton.) He did not recollect that any of the letters brought here by Mulligan related to this transaction. He read only four or five of them recently. The letters be read did not refer in any manner to any of the different Pacific Railroads which had been mentioned in the afternoon.

Mulligan Recalled.

James Mulligan was recalled, and said among the other papers obtained by Blaine from him was one containing a copy of the law relating to grants to the Northern Pacific Railroad. There were also some figures in it showing that it related to the one-eighth or one-twenty-fourth part which had been spoken of. He did not know whose handwriting it was in, but it was not in Blaine's.

Fisher was asked at this point what the paper was and where he received it, and he replied he had no recollection of any such paper.

Mulligan said be had found it in a desk among other papers, not particularly among the correspondence of Blaine with Fisher, but among all the papers.

Witness was requested to read the receipt given by Blaine to Fisher at the time Fisher paid over $25,000. This receipt was published in the Aquila Adams correspondence on May 27. After reading it witness said this was all the contract there was between Fisher and Blaine. He did not know why the stock was not delivered by Blaine, and after waiting about a year Fisher refused to take the stock because so long a time had elapsed.

Q.—And this is all you know about this transaction? A.—Yes, sir. I only know that Mr. Fisher paid money to Blaine, and Blaine paid it back on September 21, 1872.

Q.—Did you ever hear anything more than you have testified about the matters alluded to from any one? A.—No, sir.

By Mr. Blaine—Were you asked to bring any papers with you when you were summoned? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Why did you bring these letters of mine? A.—I did not know what I was to be examined about. I supposed it would be about the matter referred to in the Aquila Adams letters, and so I brought these letters to refresh my memory. I brought them because they were written by you, and there might be something in them I should be asked to explain.

Q.—Had you any reason to think I wrote a memorandum of the law you spoke about? A.—None at all, sir; only I found it among papers in the desk, and it related to the Northern Pacific.

Q.—You say you are not unfriendly to me? Do you know of any occasion for holding a grudge against me? A.—I never had any occasion to feel unfriendly, but thought I was not treated fairly on the occasion alluded to by Mr. Atkins yesterday.

Mr. Blaine was proceeding to make further inquiry on this point, when witness said: "Do you want me to go over all that? I will let you examine me if you will let me examine you afterwards."

The Chairman remarked that that was fair, but hardly pertinent to this inquiry under the present resolution.

Mulligan, Atkins and Fisher were allowed to return to their homes, but were notified that they were not discharged, and when wanted would be notified by telegraph. The committee then adjourned till Monday.

THE GOLD HUNTERS.

The Cincinnati Party Alive and Well.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The following dispatches received at Lieutenant General Sheridan's headquarters indicate that the report of the assassination by Indians of the Cincinnati party was a canard:

"FORT LARAMIE, June 2.—There is no information of the murder of the Cincinnati party. I believe it is false. General Merrett arrived this afternoon. TOWNSEND, Commanding."

"OMAHA, June 2.—The commanding officer at Fort Laramie telegraphs that he has received no information of the murder of the Cincinnati party, and believes the rumor false."

"OMAHA, NEB., June 2.—The commanding officer at Fort Laramie reports that Captain Eagan saw the Cincinnati party on May 21, twenty-eight miles from Custer. They were all right. They had one man slightly wounded accidentally. They were thirty-nine in number."

CINCINNATI, June 3.—Letters have been received from members of the two expeditions from here to the Black Hills, which show that the reports of the killing of eleven members of Col. Stone's party are false. Both expeditions arrived safely at Custer City without being molested by Indians.

Three Men Killed by Cheyennes.

CHEYENNE, WY., June 4.—Three men were killed by Indians this morning on Cedar Creek, forty miles south of Sidney and twelve miles west of Riverside, thought to have been by Cheynnes on their way north from the Republican Valley. A courier in at Fort Laramie to-day from Red Cloud Agency reports additional departures of young warriors for the north. Eight companies of the Fifth Cavalry have been ordered from the Department of Missouri to Fort Laramie. One hundred and twenty Snake Indians have been enrolled at Camp Brown, all well armed, and have started out to meet General Crook, to co-operate with him in the campaign.

Cavalry for the Black Hills.

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—Detachments of the Fifth Cavalry at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and Fort Hays, Kansas, are under orders to proceed to the Black Hills country, and will start as soon as relieved by infantry now en route to these posts from Fort Leavenworth. It is the intention of the Government to mass all the cavalry in the Black Hills region and garrison the frontier posts with infantry.

SPORTS IN THE OPEN AIR.

Pigeon Shooting in England.

LONDON, June 3.—The pigeon shooting match between Ira A. Paine, of New York, and Captain Patton, of London, winner of the grand Prix-du-Casino at Wonaco, last January, took place to-day on the grounds of the Gun Club, the conditions being two hundred and fifty dollars a side, half forfeit, thirty birds each, and twenty-seven yards rise. The contest resulted in a tie, each sportsman killing twenty-one birds out of thirty. The next contest has been set down for Wednesday.

The Irish Riflemen.

LONDON, June 3.—The competition of the Irish riflemen for the selection of members to compose the Irish Team to go to Philadelphia was continued at Dundalk to-day.

The following were the scores at 800 and 900 yards:

	800 Yards.	900 Yards.
Capt. Smyth, of Glasgow	61	62
Sub Inspector Thynne, of Belfast	64	57
C. Taylor	61	59
William Bigby	63	68
Clarke	59	51
Reed	64	62
Edward Johnstone	72	61
William Joynt	61	64
Dyas	66	60
J. G. Pollock	65	58
Dr. Trail	55	59
Goff	Retired.
R. S. Greenhill	57	59

Johnstone's count of seventy-two at 800 yards was a splendid score, considering the weather.

There was a continuous downpour of rain during the shooting of these two ranges.

The shooting of the Irish riflemen at 1,000 yards range resulted in the following score:

Capt. Smyth, 44; Sub-Inspector Thynne, 46; C. Taylor, 46; William Rigby, 46; Clarke, 62; C. Reed, 51; Edward Johnstone, 53; William Joynt, 60; Dyas, 51; J. G. Pollock, 34; Dr. Trail, 32; Greenhill, 57.

Better Weather.

The weather during this shooting showed a marked improvement over that which prevailed while the firing at 800 and 900 yards was progressing.

A SHOCKING MURDER.

A Farmer's Young Wife Killed by a Farm Hand.

Details of the Horrible Affair—The Accused Now in Jail—An Affecting Scene.

ST. ALBANS, June 3.—Three years ago last January, Charles Butler, a young farmer, twenty-two years old, was married to Miss Alice Mead, an orphan, then just short of eighteen. Butler owns a farm, upon which his dwelling is situated, two miles north of Highgate Centre, and about eleven miles distant from this place. The house is a small one, standing near the main road, but some fifty or sixty rods from any other building. To this home he took his young wife, and has lived with her happily ever since. They had no children, the family consisting of Butler and his wife, Butler's father, an old man, and Edward Tatro, a Frenchman, employed on the farm. Tatro is a young man, twenty-one years old, small, and of slight built, but strong for his size. He is the son of a widowed mother, who lives in the neighborhood, and has been for some years in the habit of working around for the farmers in the vicinity. He has not a bad reputation, but is considered a sort of a dare-devil, given to the habit of drinking occasionally and of using tobacco to excess. He has been to work for Butler most of the time since last Summer, and his relations with Mr. and Mrs. Butler have been in the main pleasant, though it is said he and Butler have sometimes had a few words when they disagreed about the work. Yesterday Butler's father was away on a visit to one of the neighbors; Butler himself was away, assisting at a raising at a neighbor's, and Tatro was plowing with Butler's team for another neighbor, Edward Haskins Butler came home between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and Tatro just before 6. Butler asked him why he came so early, and the boy answered that he had broken the plow point and beam. Butler, on examining the plow, found this untrue and charged the boy with it, whereupon he said he came because he had got his "stent" done and wanted to sharpen the plow point. After Supper Butler told his wife he had some business at Highgate Centre, and asked her if she wouldn't like to ride over there with him. She replied that she was not feeling well, and guessed she would not go. Something was then said about Tatro's going but when the team was ready he said he would "stay with Alice," who had meanwhile gone into a bed room opening out of the dining-room, to lie down. Butler went away at 7 o'clock, leaving them alone in the house, and no other person is known to have seen Mrs. Butler alive after that, except a little boy who came to the house a little later.

Butler returned at about 10 o'clock, put his horse in the barn, and went into the house by the kitchen door. As he approached he noticed that the house was dark. Opening the door he advanced a few steps, when his foot hit against something lying on the floor, and by the dim light he saw that it resembled a human being. Supposing that it was Tatro, who had gone to sleep there waiting for him, he called him by name. Getting no response he stepped to the box and struck a match It flickered and went out, but by the sudden flash of light he saw blood on the floor and a fearful heap of something lying there. The next match burned and revealed the horrible picture of his wife lying on the floor in a pool of blood, her clothing nearly all torn off She was dead. Almost paralyzed at the spectacle, he obeyed his first impulse, and rushing to the barn, mounted his horse to ride to the neighbors for assistance. As he reached the gate he heard a sound of confused voices, and presently met a group of three or four horror-stricken men hurrying to the house. They were led by Tatro, who had nothing on but the tattered remnant of a shirt, and was crying and howling like a madman. The party proceeded to the house, and made an investigation. The murdered woman lay upon the floor, near the back or kitchen door, her head literally crushed in, and the brain protruding through the broken skull, her hands beaten black with some blunt instrument, bruised about the shoulders and scratched upon the neck. Close by her on the floor, lay three sticks of stove wood, more or less blood-stained, and an old musket, which usually stood in the stairway. Leaning against a sink close by was an axe, one side of which was deeply stained with blood, and on the floor near the stove the trousers Tatro had worn through the day. The usual sleeping room of Mr. and Mrs. Butler was up stairs, and adjoining the one occupied by Tatro. An examination of it showed that some one had apparently been lying not undressed upon the outside of the bed. The floor and walls were covered with blood, as was also the floor and walls of the hall and the stairs. A stove-pipe in Tatro's room was knocked down, and that also was blood-stained in various places. An old chair, which had stood by the head of the bed in the butler's room was found in the hall broken to pieces, and one of the legs appears to have been buried by a terrible blow in the murdered woman's head. The boy Tatro was examined and found covered with blood. His hands were crimson with it, and blotches and spatters were on his bare legs and arms. He was watched while Mr. Butler rode rapidly to Highgate and brought back a physician and officer, when he was immediately taken into custody. He was nearly crazy with excitement, sobbing and crying, but stoutly denying any guilt. This morning a Coroner's jury was called by Justice Lewis Christian, and an inquest was held at the scene of the crime. The Justice and jury examined the premises carefully, with results as above detailed. Upon taking the testimony of several witnesses, the jury found a verdict that deceased was murdered by the prisoner Edward Tatro. The prisoner was fully committed to await the action of the Grand Jury next Fall, and was brought to St. Albans this evening. Intense excitement prevails, and there is no other topic of conversation on the streets to-night. The murdered woman was very pretty and attractive, and probably would not weigh more than a hundred pounds. The scene between Tatro and his mother and sister at the close of the examination was heart-rending.

FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, June 3, 1876.

SENATE.

The Black Hills.

Mr. ALLISON called up the Senate bill providing for an agreement with the Sioux nation in regard to a portion of their reservations and for other purposes.

Mr. EDMUNDS offered a substitute authorizing the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint a commission, to consist of five persons, to visit, as soon as possible, the tribes of Sioux Indians, with a view to negotiating with them a treaty or agreement for the cession to the United States of the right of said tribes to the country known as Black Hills, and appropriating $50,000 to pay the expenses of the commission, and collect the Indians in one place for a conference. After discussion.

Mr. INGALLS suggested to Mr. Edmunds to amend his substitute so as to authorize the Commissioners to treat with the Indians for the relinquishment of the Black Hills, and otherwise for the preservation of the peace.

Mr. EDMUNDS accepted the suggestion and modified his substitute accordingly.

Mr. INGALLS submitted an amendment providing that any report made by the commissioners shall be transmitted to the President, together with any agreement made with said Indians, who shall transmit the same to Congress for approval. Agreed to.

The question then being on the substitute of Mr. Edmunds as amended by Mr. Ingalls, after further discussion it was agreed to without a division.

The question then being on adopting the substitute as amended, instead of the bill reported by the committee, further discussion took place, when Mr. ALLISON submitted an amendment authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish transportation, subsistence and protection to the commissioners during the time occupied by them in the discharge of their duties. Agreed to.

The bill was then read a third time and passed—yeas 30, nays 8.

Legislative Appropriations.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the unfinished business, being the bill making appropriations for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the Government for the year ending June 30, 1877, the pending question being on the amendment of the Committee on Appropriations to restore the salary of the President to $50,000 from and after March 4, 1877, and it was agreed to—yeas 31, nays 11—as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Anthony, Bayard, Booth, Boutwell, Christiancy, Clayton, Cooper, Cragin, Davis, Edmonds, Frelinghuysen, Hamlin, Howe, Johnston, Logan, McMillen, Mitchell, Morrill (Me.), Morrill (Vt.), Morton, Norwood, Paddock, Patterson, Ransom, Robertson, Sargent, Sherman, Spencer, Windom and Withers—31.

Nays—Messrs. Bogy, Cockrell, Eaton, Goldthwaite, Hitchcock, Kelly, Key, McCreery, Maxey, Stevenson and Thurman—11.

Other amendments of the committee restoring the salary of the private secretary to the President and the salaries of employes in the Department of State were agreed to.

When the paragraph in regard to the clerical force in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury was reached, Mr. EATON said the people of this country demanded that the expenses of the Government should be reduced. In his judgment there would be a deficiency in the revenues of the Government this year of from eighteen to twenty million dollars, and next year the receipts would fall off still more, and the deficiency then would be between forty and fifty million dollars.

The amendment proposed by the Committee on Appropriations restoring the salaries, etc., of clerks in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury was agreed to.

Other amendments of the committee restoring the salaries of clerks in the various bureaus of the Treasury Department, officers of the Controller of Currency and Commissioner of Internal Revenue, independent treasuries at New York, San Francisco, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Baltimore, Chicago, Cincinnati, New Orleans and Charleston were agreed to. Also amendments abolishing the office of Deputy Register of the Treasury, making appropriations for the designated depositories at Buffalo and Pittsburgh, and restoring the salaries of the employes in the mint bureau, as well as in the mint at Philadelphia and branch mints at San Francisco, Carson, Denver and New Orleans, and Assay officers at New York, Helena and Boise City. All other amendments proposed by the Committee on Appropriations restoring the salaries of territorial officers, members of the Board of Health of the District of Columbia and employes in the War and Navy Departments and their various bureaux were agreed to.

The Senate Committee reported in favor of striking out of the House bill the provision repealing sections 3159 and 3160 of the Revised Statutes, which authorize the appointment of Supervisors of Internal Revenue.

On motion of Mr. SHERMAN the Senate nonconcurred in this amendment. So the sections authorizing the appointment of those officers are repealed.

After finishing the clause in regard to appropriations for the War and Navy Departments the Senate went into executive session, and when the doors were reopened adjourned.

HOUSE.

The Whisky Frauds.

Mr. CATE offered a resolution directing the Committee on Whisky Frauds in St. Louis to investigate the questions of fraud in the manufacture of whisky and wines in Milwaukee, and whether any officers of the United States were concerned therein. Adopted.

Indian Appropriation.

Soon afterward the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Indian Appropriation bill. The day was consumed in the discussion of a variety of amendments, most of them offered by Mr. Seelye, and most of them rejected on a vote. Among them was one to forbid the furnishing of rations to white men living with Indian women. The amendment was opposed by Mr. HARRISON, who boasted for himself and a gentleman from New York, understood to be Mr. Cox, that they had Indian blood in their veins. Rejected.

The committee having reached the point of the bill providing for the transfer of the Indian Bureau from the Interior to the War Department, Mr. McCRARY made a point of order that it changed existing laws, and did not on its face retrench expenditures.

After discussion the committee rose, with the understanding that the point of order would be decided when the House next went into committee.

Alaska Seal Fisheries.

Mr. WOOD, from the Committee on Ways and Means, made a report in regard to the Alaska fur seal fishery lease, exonerating the officers of the Government and company from allegations of fraud. Ordered printed.

Amending the Rules.

Mr. RANDALL, from the Committee on Rules, reported an amendment to rule 74 authorizing the Committee on Banking and Currency to report at any time

Opposition to this was made by Mr. KELLY and others, and without coming to a decision the House adjourned.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, June 4, 1876.

THE steamer Marion, recently ordered to the Rio Grande for the protection of American interests, has been ordered to sail for Europe.

THE Committee on Expenditures in the War Department have postponed the Kerr investigation till to-morrow, when an effort will be made to close the inquiry.

THE Southern Memorial Association of the District of Columbia decorated the graves of three hundred Confederate soldiers in Arlington Cemetery. A number of Massachusetts soldiers assisted. There were no orations.

A NUMBER of Senators say the Senate will postpone the Belknap impeachment case, as otherwise the appropriation bills could not be acted upon in time to afford the Government the necessary means to carry on its operations.

SOON after James Mulligan left the room of the Committee on Judiciary yesterday afternoon he appeared by summons before the Real Estate Pool Committee, which held its brief session with closed doors. Mulligan, having been interrogated after he left the room, said he had been asked a number of questions by the committee, but knew nothing whatever to communicate to them, and wondered why he had been summoned.

THE resolution of Representative Morrison fixing the 12th of June as the day for the final adjournment of Congress will not be considered by the Committee on Ways and Means, to which it has been referred, until further progress has been made with the general appropriation bills, which it is necessary to pass by the 1st of July, the commencement of the fiscal year. According to present appearances the adjournment will not take place before the middle of July.

FAST RAILROADING.

Unprecedented Time of the Special Train.

OMAHA, June 3.—The maximum rate per mile on each of the three divisions was one minute, and on one division, between Big Springs and Julesburg, the run was made at the rate of seventy to seventy-two miles an hour.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The train reached Mill City at 8:53, making twenty-nine miles from Winnemucca in thirty-three minutes. Passed Areana at 9:13, everything working well.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The train arrived at the end of the Oakland wharf, which is within the city limits of San Francisco, at 9:15 A. M., twenty-six minutes less than eighty-four hours; arrived at the wharf on this side at 9:45, and at 9:52, the passengers alighted in the court of the Palace Hotel, dusty and travel-worn, but in good health and spirits. Engine No. 49 brought the train through from Ogden with the assistance of an additional engine in crossing the Sierras. The actual average running time from Ogden to the Oakland wharf was forty-one and one-eighth miles per hour. Considerable trouble was experienced on the Central Pacific from the wearing out of the brake shoes on the Pennsylvania cars, and in the mountains the Central Pacific Company put on two of their own coaches to brake the train. No accident of any kind occurred throughout the trip. Shortly after the arrival breakfast was served to which prominent citizens, army and navy officers, representatives of the press, theatrical profession, railroad officials and the Mayor of the city were invited. A salute of thirteen guns was fired from the roof of the Palace Hotel on their arrival at the wharf. The rest of the day was devoted to needed rest.

A FAMILY POISONED.

A Wholesale Murder for Money.

EASTON, PA, June 3.—Moses Sehug, another member of the family recently poisoned, has died since yesterday, making the third death. The coroner's inquest, which is still in session, elicits the fact that arsenic was the poison used, and that there was enough poison in the coffee drank by the unfortunate family to have killed one hundred people. The money was stolen from the house, while a large amount of Government bonds and other securities were left untouched. The fact that Jacob Young was murdered and robbed near the same place only a few weeks ago creates a still greater feeling of uneasiness among the people living in that neighborhood. A large crowd is gathered to-day in the vicinity of the Laros homestead.

This evening the coroner's jury returned a verdict that Martin J. Laros, Mary Ann Laros and Moses Sehug died from poison administered by Allen C. Laros. The person so accused is a school teacher and a son of Martin and Mary Ann Laros, both of whom are among the victims. Since his arrest he has confessed that he administered the poison to his father and mother and Mr. Sehug, and that his sole object was to obtain possession of their money.

ROBBING THE TREASURY.

Conspiracy to Cheat the State.

HARRISBURG, PA., June 3.—Governor Hartranft to-day made information against Marshal S. Smith, a clerk in the State Treasury Department for eleven years, and John A. Wagoner, who was clerk in the Auditor General's office while Hartranft held that position, for entering into a conspiracy with Mr. Millspaugh, City Treasurer of Scranton, to defraud the State of $6,000. Millspaugh has confessed to having made his return to the State Treasury $6,000 short, and has agreed to give up his share of the plunder, $2,500, and has exposed his accomplices, one of whom (Wagoner) induced him to enter into the arrangement, Smith agreeing to enter the return as presented.

The defendants have been placed under $4,000 bail, each. As a reward for his revelations Millspaugh will not be punished It is believed that similar corrupt practices have been carried on for years. Wagoner, while clerk, occupied the desk at which County and City Treasurers' accounts were audited. More arrests are expected to follow.

SOUTH AMERICAN SLAVERY.

British Ships Charged with Carrying Slaves—Explanation by Officers of the Company.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—This morning Rev. Emanuel Vanorden called upon Sir Edward Thornton, and stated that the Nellie Martins, of the Starball line of steamers, running between New York and Rio De Janeiro, and belonging to an English company, though styled United States Mail Steamship Company, arrived in Rio De Janeiro on the 1st of March last, carrying slaves to be delivered. The British minister promised to inquire into the matter, and report to his Government.

NEW YORK, June 3.—In regard to the complaint in Washington of Rev. Mr. Vanorden that the steamships plying between New York and Rio Janeiro carry slaves from one Brazilian port to another, the officers of the company have exhibited the way bills of the steamers, and by them show that the greatest number of colored men taken at one time from one port to another of Brazil was twenty, and these were body servants of cabin passengers. If a planter hired passage for himself and one or two servants, it would be a matter of impertinence for the officers to inquire whether or not the servants were slaves or free. As to conveying any number of slaves as such, either with or without a cabin passenger accompanying them, the story was entirely devoid of foundation.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

A Man Shoots His Wife and Child and Then Kills Himself.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—The dead bodies of a man, woman and girl about three years old were found in a secluded part of the woods at Belleville, Ills., yesterday afternoon. The woman and child were shot in the head, and the man in the heart. The parties are unknown. From the position of the bodies and the manner in which they were arranged it is supposed that the man shot his wife and child and then killed himself. Persons living near by heard three shots about sunset on Thursday night, and believe this frightful tragedy was enacted at that time.

At the Coroner's inquest the barkeeper of the Tremann House, in Belleville, identified them as those of a family that stopped at that House from the 4th to the 31st of May. The man registered as Joseph May, of Evansville, Indiana. He left a trunk at the Tremann House, in which was found photographs of all the deceased, and a hymn book with the name Christine Becker in it. The verdict of the jury was to the effect that May shot the woman and child and then killed himself. It is supposed poverty led to the act.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

Florida Strong for Blaine.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A special from Madison, Florida, says the regular Republican Convention nominated M. L. Stearns for Governor and Hon. D. Montgomery for Lieutenant Governor. Delegates to Cincinnati were chosen as follows: E. M. Cheney (Blaine), P. W. Bryant (Blaine), W. H. Gleason (Blaine), B. F. Livingstone (Blaine), C. D. Brigham (Blaine), A. B. Osgood (Conkling), G. E. Wenworth (Blaine), and J. H. Armstrong (Blaine).

Another dispatch from Madison, Florida, says a bolt was made in the Republican Convention yesterday, United States Senator Conover and Representatives Purman and Walls conducting it. The bolters secured another hall, and Senator Conover was nominated for Governor and Mr. Lee for Lieutenant Governor. It was resolved not to send a delegation to Cincinnati. Governor Stearns is the leading spirit of the regular Convention, and the quarrel between him and Conover is an old affair.

Bursting of a Water Tank.

NEW YORK, June 4.—No confirmation has been received up till two o'clock Sunday morning of a dispatch from London, England, that the tank on top of St. George's Hospital gave way without a moment's warning, the water crashing down through the wards underneath and carrying the patients in their beds before it, tearing out walls, and deluging the entire building. The report says several of the patients were killed and many seriously injured, and that the building is badly wrecked.

Death of the Ex-Sultan of Turkey.

He Commits Suicide by Severing the Blood Vessels of His Arms.

Suicide of the Ex-Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—It is officially announced that Ex-Sultan Abdul Aziz committed suicide this (Sunday) morning by opening the veins of his arm with a pair of scissors.

Giving the New Sultan a Chance.

BERLIN, June 4.—The powers have suspended action on the Berlin memorandum for a few days, that the new Turkish Government may give unmistakable indication of their policy and their power of maintaining themselves.

Centennial Celebration.

PARIS, June 4.—The directors of the Polish National Museum at Rapperswyl, Switzerland, have issued invitations to join in a celebration of the centenary of American independence on the 4th of July next, to honor the memories of the Polish heroes of Pulaski and Mosciuske.

England's War Preparations.

LONDON, June 4.—England has sent Admiral Drummond to the east, with orders to prevent the forcing of the Dardanelles. The unfinished iron clads are being completed in great haste. Regiments are under orders to be ready to start at a moment's notice.

The Policy of England and Russia.

The insurgents have a notion of bringing both Russia and England to their aid, for they are unwilling to accept Prince Charles of Roumania or Prince Milan of Servia as their sovereign. They have entertained the project of inviting his Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to become Emperor over them, thus through himself and his wife, Princess Marie Alexandrona, uniting the English and Russian interests.

Insurgents Defeated in Cuba.

HAVANA, June 4.—The town of Ciego de Avila, in the jurisdiction of Santo Spiritu, was attacked on the night of May 26th by the insurgent leader, Maximo Gomes, with 1,600 men. Most of them were mounted. The place was defeated by a garrison four hundred strong. The insurgents were repulsed after desperate fighting, and retired without being pursued. They lost thirty in killed and ten in wounded. The Spanish casualties were two officers killed and three men wounded.

State of Siege in Spain.

SAN SEBASTIAN, June 4.—Gen. Quesada has ordered the state of siege in the province of Santander to be extended. Several suspected Carlists have been expelled from Biscay.

Servia Advised to Exercise Moderation.

PARIS, June 4.—The Governments of Austria, Russia and France have instructed their representatives at Belgrade to counsel the Servian Cabinet to exercise moderation.

The Spanish Fueras.

MADRID, June 4.—The bill suppressing the Fueras has been introduced in the Senate. It provides that all Spaniards shall be liable to military conscription and taxation alike, with these exceptions: Persons in the Basque provinces who supported King Alfonso during the late war are exempted from conscription for ten years, and those who suffered persecution for the Alfonsist cause are exempted from the payment of taxes for the same term.

The Death of the Ex-Sultan.

LONDON, June 5.—The Times' correspondent at Paris says the physicians of the British and other embassys at Constantinople testify that the late Sultan committed suicide by cutting the arteries of both arms with a pair of scissors. He died at the Teheragan Palace at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, and was buried in the tomb of Mahmoud II. on Sunday evening.

One telegram received in Paris asserts that the ex-Sultan stabbed himself with a dagger. It is generally remarked in Paris as strange that Abdiel Aziz, who had always shown himself so feeble, should have suddenly displayed so much energy, and at the same time that his death was of so little importance to any one that it seemed repregnant to attribute it to assassination.

The Situation Becoming Critical.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times (Ministerial) North German Gazette gives us to understand that owing to the antagonism between Russia and England all Europe is plunged into a most critical situation. The National Zeitung regards the pacific view recently taken by Count Andrassy as entirely erroneous, and foresees that a momentous decision will now have to be immediately adopted by the various powers.

The Times' correspondent remarks that there is but too much reason for these apprehensions, and adds: The King of Greece has ordered his army to be placed on a war footing. A special commissioner has arrived in Germany to negotiate a Greek war loan. He is expected to settle it immediately. This serious movement is accompanied by others of like import.

The Attitude of Servia and Montenegro.

Further advices from Berlin to the Times state that the declaration of the Montenegro official Gazette that the insurgents are determined to immediately fall upon the Turks with the whole Servan race must be considered as authority, M. Wesselitski, Prussian agent in Herzegovina, having published an address handing the military and diplomatic direction of the Insurgent affairs over to the Prince of Montenegro. The Servian troops are ranged on the frontier and ready to act at a moment's notice, The central staff has gone to Alexinatz, near the Turkish camp at Nist. The principal Servian force, however, is stationed at Losnitza, where pontoon bridges are being constructed preparatory to crossing the Drina into Bosnia. Various fortified camps have been established along the frontier.

The Russian General Tchernayeff, who has assumed command of the Servian forces, on his arrival in Belgrade handed the Servian Government $250,000 as a donation from the Sclavonic societies of Russia.

A New Constitution for Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—The Porte is drawing up a very liberal Constitution, which will soon be promulgated.

Inspecting Fortifications.

LONDON, June 5.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent says letters from Constantinople assert that Vice Admiral Sir James Drummond, commanding the British fleet on the Mediterranean, has undertaken an inspection of the fortifications of the Dardanells at the request of the Porte.

Bulgaria Rising.

Bulgaria is also being set afire by hosts of well armed volunteers, which are daily arriving from Russia, Servia, Raumania and Montenegro, who have established fortified camps, amply armed with cannon. Notwithstanding these difficulties, the attitude of the Port continues firm. The recent reform Firman of Abdul Aziz has been specially authdrown in some places. Special envoys have been sent to Morocco and Tunis to ask for assistance. A crisis is unavoidable unless Russia retracts. Russia is unprepared for the present contingency, and is slow to decide. There is a feeling in Berlin that we are on the eve of momentous changes, and every hour may bring important news.

The Berlin Telegraphic Agency asserts that England has concluded an alliance with Turkey and guaranteed the latter's integrity. The Russian Telegraphic Agency declares that Murad will be recognized on all hands without protest as soon as his accession is officially announced.

MINOR FOREIGN NOTES.

KING VICTOR EMANUEL has accepted the honorary Presidency of the Philadelphia Commission in Rome for the erection of a statue of Columbus.

A FRENCH prisioner has been sentenced by a court martial to suffer death for taking part in the massacre of Dominicians at Arcueil during the seige of the Commune.

THE Paris Droits del' Houme says the proposed sending of a workmen's delegation to the Philadelphia Exhibition threatens to be a failure, as scarcely $10,000 have been collected, which will barely suffice for twenty-five delegates.

A Pennsylvanian Murdered in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—A Rolla (Missouri) special says the dead body of a man was found near that place last evening, supposed to be that of W. A. Kennedy, a stranger who registered at the hotel as from Coal Bluffs, Pa. He is believed to have had considerable money, for which it is suspected he was murdered.

An Oil Tank Struck by Lightning.

MEADVILLE, June 3.—This afternoon lightning struck an oil tank containing 21,000 barrels of crude oil belonging to O. D. Harrington, one mile south of Oil City. It immediately exploded and set fire to one owned by McGrew Brothers, containing 23,000 barrels of oil. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

A COAL TOW STRANDED.

The Tow of the Joe Williams Fast on a Bar.

MEMPHIS, June 3.—The tow boat Joe Williams stranded her tow yesterday on the bar at the foot of Devil's Elbow cut-off. She came down to-day after a tug and some barges to try and lighten the barges off. The tow consisted of twenty-one boats and barges, with 250,000 bushels of coal. Two of the barges were sunk, and will prove a total loss. The others are hard aground, with only four and a half or five feet of water, and the river falling steadily. The Williams was drawing six and a half feet, and is unable to get to them, but it is thought the tug will, with the barges, be able to get them afloat. The tow is owned by the Grand Lake Company, of Pittsburgh, and is valued at $60,000; uninsured.

Funeral of the Dead Sultan.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs has addressed the following telegram to the Turkish Minister at Washington:

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—A sad event has just painfully effected our august sovereign and his Government. Abdul Aziz Khan, the late Sultan, who for some time past unfortunately gave evident signs of mental derangement, having locked himself up in the morning in his apartments of the palace of Scheragan, committed suicide by opening the veins of his arms with scissors, which he had concealed on his person. The Imperial Government hastened to cause all legal inquests to be made, also a detailed medical report, which will be forwarded to you very soon. All the ministers, the high officers, both civil and military, will be present at the funeral of His Majesty, which will take place with the accustomed pomp and honor due to the deceased, whose body will be laid in the mausoleum of Sultan Mahmoud.

The zeal with which the Blaine Investigating Committee pursues it work, is not for a moment paralleled by the Kerr Investigators. One drives relentlessly after its victim, while the other holds back like a balky horse.

Mr. Moody is outspoken on church debts, and utterly refuses to have his church dedicated till all the bills are paid. These amounted to $20,000, but a collection recently taken reduced the amount by over $12,000. He proposes, however, to look after the money, and as soon as this is raised, to begin work in his new church.

If the colored people of the country imagine that the Democrats have a lurking love for them, they may be reminded of their error in being informed that the army bill of General Banning, in Congress, abolishes the colored regiments entirely. The Democracy are not disposed to expend public moneys on colored troops.

The exact value of the liberal religious laws in Spain, over which the Pope became excited, is illustrated by an order of the Minister of Justice, closing Protestant schools in one of the Provinces. Whatever the law may say, or however liberal it may seem on its face, the Pope should realize that the manner in which it will be enforced will be entirely acceptable.

From Disraeli's remarks in Parliament, it is evident that while the English fear war in Turkish Europe, the Government will do all in its power to avert it. The contest over Nicsic, between Turks and Herzegovinians continues, but this aside, there are no special features in the war. If the Great Powers unite in enforcing peace, there is no real danger that the war will be extended.

The parade of the Knight Templars in Philadelphia is referred to as an event of more than usual importance, of its kind. Large numbers of Knights took part in the parades, and the deepest interest was manifested by the people of Philadelphia. The Order is one of the most prosperous and powerful in the country, and deserved from its prominence and importance, all the attention it received.

Uncle Daniel Drew has come to the surface once more, and testified in relation to his application for bankruptcy. He claims to have kept no book accounts, but to have carried all his business in his head. He was a drover in his early years, and at that time formed the habit which has followed him thus far through life. In his often complicated transactions it is amazing that he should keep an accurate run of his affairs.

It is declared that Tilden and his friends have resorted to regular advertising arrangements to spread the fame of the great Democratic chieftain abroad. Several sets of extracts, from different journals, are sent to the county press, to be paid for at the rate of $3.50 a set, the same to be published as reading matter. So the programme is of an advertising nature. This plan is believed to have been successfully tried in New York, during his candidacy there,—even the Tribune, it is affirmed, being bought for $50,000 to aid him. However that may be, it is evident that the fame of the great man is to be spread abroad, just as that of a patent medicine vendor usually is.

The press of the country as a rule, view the Blaine investigation in the right light. They comprehend the malignity that is shown towards him, and regard it as simply an attempt, on the part of opposing politicians, to break down his candidacy for the Presidency. A few demand that his private papers shall be shown, as proof of innocence, while others claim that it will be judicious to show them. We never believed in the policy in sacrificing manhood to popular clamor. It is admitted by Mulligan, and Blaine under oath, that there is but one letter that by any possibility bears on the case under investigation, yet these letters are demanded. We honor the manhood that refuses to be governed thus.

The Social Science Association, now in session in Philadelphia, is a purely scientific body, and not a propagandist of moral ideas; yet it cordially accepted a paper of Dr. Mann, on "State Medicine in its Relations to Intemperance and the Inebriate," in which he declares that in New York 33⅓ per centum of all deaths are due directly or indirectly to the use of alcoholic stimulants, of which $600,000,000 worth are annually sold there. The increase is at the rate of 10 per centum per annum. He doubted whether the introduction of light wines would operate toward a decrease of intemperance, which, he said, begins almost universally with the use of wine and beer. Coming from such a source, these statements are very impressive. The Association has determined to publish a Centennial edition of Adam Smith's works on social and political economy.

The journals in the interest of the Schurz independent movement, present, at times, a very funny contrast, in their statement of views. The New York Evening Post, for example, argues that the man to be selected for Presidential candidate should be spotlessly pure in character, of broad views, and strength of nerve. Bristow is openly designated as meeting this description. In another column of the same issue, Peter Cooper's candidacy is mentioned with scant respect, it being alleged that while, if perfect purity of character were the only qualification he should receive every vote in New York, yet he will receive very few votes, because he was nominated by "inconsiderate persons, who are willing to postpone all questions of principles to the single question of a man." Bristow is to be taken on character and Cooper rejected on principle.

The decrease in the national debt, during the eleven months of the fiscal year passed, has not only been large,—$25,867,984,—but is the result of saving in current expenses, the income of the Government from customs and other sources having seriously diminished as compared with 1872 and amounting to $10,000,000 as compared with last year. Had the tax on tea and coffee been retained, it would have enabled the Secretary to retire about $50,000,000 of the public debt during the past fiscal year. The silver outlay, during the past month, has strengthened the currency balance so that there is now $9,285,708, against $5,161,186 a month ago. According to the latest figures received from Washington, the total amount of silver paid out up to May 29 had been $7,389,288, of which only $4,414,557 was in exchange for fractional currency. The net gold balance is estimated at about $33,000,000. But the overdue five-twenties are nearly all in, and the accumulation for June will be held for the July interest payments. Thus the Treasury is healthful though not plethoric.

The inquiry is beginning to be urged, what has Congress really done, in the way of legitimate business, this session? Not a bill, of value to the public, has been passed. The appropriation bill, which legalizes the payment of monies for administrative purposes, is in such a tangled shape, that there is little hope of passing it by the close of the fiscal year. Even the New York Tribune is constrained to say that "Mr. Morrison has virtually abandoned the Tariff bill. Mr. Payne abandoned the Currency bill some time ago, and Mr. Holman, though he has not yet formally abandoned the repeal of the Resumption act, is probably well aware that it will not pass. Under these circumstances, is it surprising that men regard the performances of the house with some contempt?" Has anything been done by this House except the circulation of vile slanders against Republicans? Public business, decency, and good sense have been put aside, in a wild endeavor to hunt down the characters of Republicans. The worst characters have been gathered from all parts of the country as witnesses, and the country has been disgraced by the unprincipled and transparent effort to ruin honorable men. All this will not soon be forgotten.

Arctic explorations still have enough fascination about them to tempt hardy mariners to scenes of danger and desolation. To-day a top-sail schooner sails from New London, Connecticut, under government auspices for a cargo of minerals, flora and fauna for the Smithsonian Institute. It is said that surrounding Cumberland Inlet are large veins of graphite and mica, and it is for this the expedition proceeds. The Era's sailing master is Captain James Buddington of Groton, Conn., who brought the English ship Resolute, into New London in the winter of 1855, and was the ice pilot of the Tigress when she sought the Polaris. Esquimax Joe, who was with Captain Hall on several expeditions, and Tyson's party, on an ice-floe for 190 days, and other experienced Arctic voyagers, will be of the party. The Era is well provided with mining tools and laborers for quarrying, and as deposits are situated some distance up the mountain side, they will take 3000 feet of tramway in order to more easily load the vessel, and a quantity of lumber to erect tool-houses and buildings for the purpose of observation. Mineral is found in almost inaccessible places, and the deposits, though almost pure, are under rock as hard as flint. Provision, therefore, is made for blasting on an extensive scale. The Era is an old whaler, of 160 tons, and has made voyages in the Polar regions under Captain Tyson, of Polaris fame.

Robert Collyer, on Decoration Day, delivered an address, which was not to the taste of loyal Chicagoans who listened to his eloquence. He opposed the retention of the memories of the war, saying among other things, "The sun cannot tell which is rebel dust and which is loyal. It is all one to the sun." This and kindred sentiments have been severely criticised as having in them lurking apologies for treason. Says one paper, commenting on the above: "We especially fail to see why the fact of the sun being in this ignorance, should be a reason for our failure to denounce outrages in the Southern States, though Mr. Collyer seems to think it is! The sun, no doubt, would fail to behold any difference between the dust of Washington and Arnold, or Lincoln and Wilkes Booth; but that is hardly a reason why the American people should shut their eyes to the patriotism and nobility of the one or the treason and fratricide of the other. We ought to get rid of this loose, meaningless, namby-pamby sort of talk. It may serve sentimental young women and weak-minded young men; but to sober, practical people, who view the world as it is, and not as it ought to be, such public teachings are unworthy of speaker and audience. Let us say to Mr. Collyer, regarding the heavenly planets, as old Joe Willetts said to young Joe, regarding the moon: "You just let the moon alone, young man, and the moon will let you alone."

SATURDAY'S BATTLE.

It is not often the case that we have so much interest in Primary meetings as was manifested on Saturday. The contests included so many offices that an unusual rally was had, and the returns we present this morning are more than usually complete. Beginning with the Congressional contest, the nomination of Russell Errett is conceded, although the summary of votes differs. Errett's friends claim a majority of at least thirty, so far as heard from, although Negley's friends do not concede him so many, but still admit that he has a majority of the delegates heard from thus far. Of the twenty-five or thirty to be heard from, Errett's chances, in our judgment, are the best.

For State Senate, Forty-third District, Joseph M. Gazzam has a clear majority, and will receive the nomination. A feeling of sympathy for Mr. Gazzam materially aided him. Mr. Anderson, while freely admitted to have rendered valuable and satisfactory service as State Senator, first was recognized as quietly at work for the Congressional nomination, and while he did not personally announce himself, he was committed in various forms so that his Congressional candidacy was accepted as a recognized fact, and Mr. Gazzam took the field. When Mr. Anderson, finding the Congressional field crowded, fell back on the State Senate, Mr. Gazzam's friends announced that he had so often yielded to others, that it was unfair to require him to do so again. Hence the battle was joined, and Mr. Gazzam comes out triumphant. We need only say at this juncture that he is an excellent man, of pure character, fine culture and spirit, and eminently worthy the position for which he will be nominated. Newmyer and McNeill have no opposition. The Forty-fifth District is in doubt, Gilfillan's friends claiming he is entitled to the nomination.

Of the county office, that of Prothonotary comes first in interest, and in this the present Prothonotary, Mr. Kennedy, who has so acceptably filled the office, comes out with a large and safe majority among the delegates. We incline to the opinion that, unless some one of his competitors comes before the Convention, simply for the sake of recognition, he will be nominated by acclamation. The positions of Treasurer and Coroner are involved in doubt, and afford a fine field for tactical operations.

The legislative display is rather obscure, in several of the Districts. In the First, Messrs. Long and Graham, old members, and Walker have no opposition. In the Second District, Robert Frazier and William Flinn are thought to be ahead. The Third has no candidates, and the Fourth is completely mixed, because of the multiplicity of candidates, and the lack of system in setting up delegates. The finest field for trading, of all the Conventions is that for the Fourth Legislative District. If we get a good ticket out of it, it will be luck rather than foresight. Adam Weaver alone seems to have been working with clearness and skill. He will probably be one of the candidates from the South side part of the District.

Col. T. M. Bayne will receive the Congressional nomination in the Twenty-third District, but rumors of an independent candidate are current, John Megraw, Esq., being pointed out as the man. We do not know that Mr. Megraw has given himself to the movement, and we hope these reports will come to nothing. The honorable method of working is to contest an undesirable nomination within party lines. This has not been done by those who claim to think Colonel Bayne's nomination undesirable, and loyalty to the party requires that the District be not thrown away by putting up an independent candidate, who cannot be elected, and who, therefore, simply plays into the hands of the Democratic party. Colonel Bayne will make an energetic canvass, under circumstances far more favorable than those of two years ago, and, in our judgment, will be elected.

Now that the Primaries, which seem to have concentrated the animosities of the canvass, are over, we hope all bitterness will be allayed, and thorough loyalty to the party be developed. We have purposely refrained from joining in the preliminary struggle, that we might calmly act when it should be over. This is Presidential year, when side issues, personal feelings and animosities should give way for the general good. The Democratic party is straining every nerve to get itself in position to fight a strong battle, and we need, more than ever the full unity of the party in the coming struggle. We hope therefore, our friends will realize that the duty of the hour is to harmonize all differences and prepare, as members of the Republican party, for the struggle that is immediately before us. The Republican party expects every man to do his duty.

OUR SCHOOLS.

Our Pittsburgh system of schools, as represented by charts, and descriptive material at the Centennial, have received deserved recognition by the press of the country. It is admitted that our system is well digested, and efficiently administered, and that the results, as exhibited, are valuable and useful. What is there shown, however, does not fairly illustrate an important fact,—the devotion and enthusiasm of our school officers and teachers to the work of public education. We doubt if, in the respects named, any city is more favored than we. Our City Superintendent is alive to his work, and from the Principal of the High School through all the grades of teachers, the most earnest devotion to the work of their profession is manifested by all. We sometimes imagine that the efforts to keep up the esprit du corps involve an amount of exacting labor that is not understood or appreciated by the general public. Saturdays, during the school season, are not holidays with the teachers, as many suppose, but Institute days, spent in labors that are severe, but designed to improve them in their profession. At these Institutes, every new idea, bearing on the science of teaching is critically examined, with a view to its adoption, if thought deserving of it. Useless experiments are repressed, uniformity in system secured, all that is new analyzed carefully, and the best results reached, without making our schools places for experiments. The result is, as we hear from many sources, that in thoroughness and rapidity, the children in our public schools do better than those in private schools.

These remarks are offered, first, injustice to a hard-worked class, and second, as a reminder against the rumored reduction of salaries and duration of the school year. Allegheny, as we think, acted unwisely in this direction, and we certainly hope Pittsburgh will not follow her example. So far from this, we yet hope to see an intermediate grade of schools, similar to the Boston Grammar schools in operation in our city, as thoroughly and efficiently maintained, and of as wide celebrity as those in that city. The experience of the past five years illustrates the advantage of a liberal policy as regards our schools. The per centage of attendance has largely increased, and the influence of the schools has been steadily extended. We have demonstrated the utter lack of necessity for a compulsory attendance law, by making our schools so attractive that the children have been drawn to them in larger numbers than in any country where compulsory attendance is enforced. All this needs only to be maintained, and when the proper time arrives new and complete advantages added to those we already possess, until our public school system shall meet every need, whether for practical, or even a fair grade of classical education. We already have the embryo of technical or industial system of education, incipient feature of a musical training, and in our High School advanced teaching in the science, and a fair degree in the classics. Let us keep up to our present standard, in all particulars, ever alive to any opportunity to advance to a higher standard.

NASBY.

The Sage of the Cross-Roads Opening the Campaign—A Few Words of Admonition to His Party-Friends—The Rallying-Cry of the Democracy: "Reform and Purity in Official Position."

Confedrit X Roads, Wich is in the State uv Kentucky, May 17.—Another campaign is well nigh onto us, and I feel the blood a bilin in my vanes. Like the war-hoss turned out to grass—wich literally I hev bin ever since the bustin uv the Onlimited Trust and Confidence Company—I heer the blare uv the trumpet, and I prick up my ears and tale, and cry ha! ha! to the carnage. I smell the smoke of the conflict, and I smell, likewise, the plunder underneath that smoke. I see in the distance, success, and behint that success, Post-Offis. Post-Offis! Post-Offis! Deceitful words! Wat Democrat is ther that woodent git enthoosiastic over that prospeck! I shell go into this campane with my sleeves rolled up.

This is our last chance for a complete success. Success is wat we must hev, and that we may attain that success I shel throw out a few words uv admonishn, wich will be apples uv gold sot in pictures uv silver. We hev bin pastrin on barren feelds too long, and the fat bottoms uv offishl patronage kin only come into our hands by acoot and skilful management.

But there is difficulties in the way, no matter where we turn. Dimocrisy is a curious combinashn—a curious and singler mixter. In the East to be a Dimocrat is to be a hard money man, uv the hardest possible stripe—in the West to be a Dimocrat is to be a soft money man, uv the softest possible stripe. Tilden, uv Noo York, who wood like to carry the Dimocratic banner to victory, proposes to put onto its fold "hard money." Allen, uv Ohio, who wus resurrected from his twenty years' sleep, on purpus to embarrass the party, proposes to put on the banner, ef it is given to him, "soft money, and no end on't." Ef we put up Tilden and hard money, Allen and soft money kills him—ef we put up Allen and soft money, Tilden and his frends hev the sweetest kind uv a knife for his innocent throte, and when we come to tariff and banks there is an ekally onreconcilable differens uv opinyun.

To reconcile these differences is impossible. There ain't no yoose in tryin it, and I ain't a goin to. Dodgin is now, ez ever, the Democrat's best holt. The man wich kin lift jist 200 pounds shows mity little discreshn when he strains hisself at 250, and I am a man uv discreshn. We must hev nuthin to do with the questions on wich anybody differs. Ignorin is wisdom.

Ther ain't only one ishoo on wich the Dimocrisy kin plant itself, with any hope uv success—only one question on wich ther kin be perfect yoonanimity—and that ishoo is Reform! On that we are a yoonit—on that we kin agree ez sweetly as a spring mornin.

It is not on my judgment alone that I depend onto in this matter. I hev consultid all the leaders uv the party onto it—that is, all the actooal leeders, them ez actilly control things. I writ to that gileless patriot, Willyum Tweed, Esq., who is now a pinin on a furrin shoar in consekence uv a corrupt joory, which inquired ez to wat he hed done with ten millions uv the public munney, and wuz not content to take his word fur it that he hed spent it legally. His anser wuz so striking in accordance with my noshuns uv things that I give the heart uv it:

"By all means go into the next canvass on the ishoo uv reform. The corrupshens uv the present Administrashen, and I may say uv the Republikin party in general, is sich ez to appal the heart uv any lover uv his country. In my lonely eggsile I frekently shed teers wen I think uv the steelin that's goin on.

"Let our watchword be 'Reform and Puritin official posishen.' Ef my lawyers kin git them indictments agin me squashed in time, I will come home and help in campane. I kin git controle over two hundred s'loons in the lower wards uv the city, and ef I kin git back I kin organize my old forse, and restore Tammany to its old posishen, ez the controller uv the Dimocrisy. The trick uv repeatin hez not bin forgotten, and I kin handle them fellows ez well ez ever I cood. 'Reform and purity' is my watchword."

Peter B. Sweeney, who is yit in Paris, a livin ruther quiet than otherwise, wuz still more emphatic. He sez—but I will give his own words:

"Reform is wat we want. I am tired uv livin abroad, and I wasnt to git back to Noo York. I want a hand in the comin campane, for I hev jest ez much power ex ever, ef I kin only git the cussid Republikins out uv the way. The repeeters ain't ded yit, and ez ship-loads uv patriotic Irishmen, who are willin to take offis ez soon ez the land, are a comin every day, I kin help to govern Noo York ez well ez ever I did. But what yoo want to do is to make this fite on reform and purity. Do this and git me and Tweed back, and we will make things hum. There is Noo York and its tax levies for the victors, and ef the currency, tariff, and all them miner questions are squelched, and the battle is fought on the simple question uv reform and personal purity in offshel posishn we kin win it. Reform is our watchword, and that is wat I insist upon. I am absent, but not forgotten."

Connolly, who is residin in Belgium, where there is no extradition treaty, and consekently where the United States forchinitly can't reech him, wich makes him entirely independent uv the country, which he hez adoptid, writ me a letter in which he give me his views as to the situashen, wich is ez follers:

"I hev only wun intrest in the ensooin eleckshun—only wun. A lonely eggsile on a furrin shoar, I cast my eyes longingly to my native land, and yearn fur it. Sence me and the rest uv old Tammany left Ameriky I hev observed with more disgust than I kin put language into, the corrupshens that hev eeten out the hart uv the country uv my adopshen. I earnestly hope that the Dimocrisy will take hold uv it in earnest and reform it. Wat we want is purity. Owin to circumstances—wich the same is indictments—I can't come back persnelly to assist in the shindy, but I pledge to yoo the yoose uv my old and stanch repeeters in the lower wards of Noo York, wich, ef they kin depend onto hevin their expensis paid and their whack in the offices, and in contrax after the elecshuns, kin be depended on to do the work jist ez good ez ever they did. Let the platform be heavy and solid for purity and reform."

Oakey Hall wants reform and purity, and in sich a coz he is willin to give a fourth uv the forchoon he made when he wuz the astoot rite bower of Tweed.

I hev heerd from em all. The Democrisy of the Sixth Ward of Noo York, wher I wunst run a small grosery, are to a man for reform. Pendleton wants reform, and every man wich wuz turned out of offis when Johnson went out is a clamorin for it.

The Southern Dimocrisy wants Reform. They say in their letter to me, "Give us a Reform platform, and we'll put away our shot-guns, and keep our hands off the niggers till after the elections, shoor. We won't insist on our rites to kill niggers, and keep 'em from hevin anything to do with matters, till the eleckshun uv a Dimercratic President gives us a rite to do ez we please." Their constant remark is, "Go in heavy for Reform, and make that the one ishoo."

The dooty uv the party is clear. Give us a platform based entirely onto Reform. We kin carry it. It is a great many yeers sence we wuz in power, and by this time the people hev forgotten us and they will take us eezy. If we do this, we kin succeed beyond a question. The Millenium ain't cum yit nor hez there bin any especial change in things. We hev the Doggeries, the Catholic Church, and all the lower elements. They are alluz ours, and they are ez strong ez ever. Until sin goes out uv the world there will be a Democratic party. Humanity in the United States is divided into two classes—them ez wear clean shirts and sox, and Dimocrats. And so long ex this division is observed we are sound.

It is a good time for us. Everything is in our favor. It hez bin a cold spring—the farmers are all behind with ther work. Ther hez bin frosts in places, wich hez destroyed the froot, and ther is a joyful prospeck uv a short crop uv everything. The people is dissatisfied about it, and uv course they will charge everything to the Administration. A failyoor of the potato crop is worth thousands of votes to the Dimocrisy any time. It is only when things is just ez bad ez ever they can be that anybody ever thinks uv going to the Dimocrisy for a change.

What we want is a good mouth-fillin platform—a platform wich looks well, and wich the people will be satisfied with. Troo, wat is promised afore elechshun and wat happens afterward is 2 things, but let to-morrow take care uv itself. Wat we want now is success.

NEW BOOKS.

The Life Letters and Table Talk of Benjamin Robert Haydon. Edited by R. H. Stoddard. Published by Scribner, Armstrong & Co., and for sale by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

"The life of Haydon," says the editor, "is the history of Historical Painting in England." Haydon toiled through sixty years of suffering and poverty, not fully appreciated in his time, but leaving a name that grows brighter as the years increase. The present volume, one of the Sans Souci series, gives in, anecdote, epigram, verse and plain matter of fact description the story of Haydon's life, and glimpes of his contemporaries and of the age in which he lived. The work has been well done, and there are infinite riches embraced in a very small compass.

Animal Parasites and Messmates by P. J. Van Beneden, eighty-three illustrations; published by D. Appleton & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co., corner of Wood street and Fifth avenue.

This is an exceedingly fascinating book. It is written with a graphic force and beauty of style that makes it as charming as a lively romance. The information it gives of a very interesting branch of natural history, is as entertaining as it is valuable. The author writes with the enthusiasm of an amateur, but along with this freshness there is the calm, judgment of a man who writes whereof he knows,—who is anxious to give facts, and is yet capable of telling his story in the most fascinating way.

Kitty's Class Day; Aunt Kipp; Psyche's Aunt. By Louisa M. Alcott, with illustrations by Augustus Hoppin. Published by Loring, of Boston, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

These three stories are written in illustration of the three homely proverbs: "A stitch in time saves nine," "Children and fools speak the truth," and "Handsome is that handsome does." The stories are bright, breezy, wholesome and natural. The girls and boys will enjoy them intensely. They are full of life and animation, and that peculiar witchery of composition which characterizes every book Miss Alcott writes.

Miss Hitchcock's Wedding Dress. By the author of Mrs. Jerningham's Journal, &c. Published by Scribner, Armstrong & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co., corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street.

This is a smoothly written, fashionable love story. There is nothing particularly thrilling in the plot or the details of the romance, but the easy graceful way in which the story is told, and the character sketching—although the heroine is overdrawn—will make it popular among those who delight in light, gossipy volumes. In substance it tells how a young girl, whose fortune was in her face, won one of fortune's aristocratic scions.

Amiliar Talks to Boys. By the Rev. John Hall, D. D. Published by Dodd, Mead & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co.

Dr. Hall is one of the most manly men of the age, and his advice to boys is just as full of sound practical sense, as are the "talks" with which he is constantly instructing and edifying, and elevating thousands of those who hear and those who read what he says. This little volume is a book for boys,—direct, forcible, full of pertinent illustrations, and "clear grit." It is a book of rare value to put into the hands of a boy.

Pleasures of Angling with Rod and Reed for Trout and Salmon. By George Dawson. Published by Sheldon & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This volume is made up of a series of pleasant sketches of the personal experiences of a veteran angler among the Adirondack's. It is just the book to pack up in the satchel of the angler who goes these summer days to spend a season in the woods in the enjoyment of his favorite pastime.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

The firemen of the Laurel Engine Company, at York, have six pet owls.

Levi Knott, of Altoona, is not disposed to allow Railroad men to work on Sunday. He has arrested fifty-nine of them for doing so.

The prisoners now in jail at Ebensburg, Cambria county, charged with the murder of Patrick O'Brian, the P. R. R. switch tender, will be tried this week.

The soft-hearted young men of Cumberland, went wild last week over Miss Anderson, a Baltimore actress. Their tender sentiments found expression in plentiful offerings of flowers.

After the soldiers graves had been decorated at Titusville on Tuesday, vandals stole the boquets from the hallowed ground and plucked the buds from the newly planted rose bushes.

A fire in the Diamond mine of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Weston Railroad Company, in Luzerne county, last week, suffocated twenty-six valuable mules. They could not be rescued until the flames had been partially subdued, but by that time they were dead.

The coroner's inquest in Luzerne county, last Friday, touching the death of Mrs. Coyle, who it was alleged died from injuries inflicted upon her by her husband, resulted in a verdict to the effect that she came to her death from blows received by her at the hands of her husband, John Coyle. He was committed for trial.

FROM OHIO.

It transpires after all that W. Smalley, the late Treasurer of Wyandot county, Ohio, who killed himself on Sunday, 21st ult., was a defaulter to the amount of $4,000. But it is said that this could not have been the cause of his suicide, for his estate is ample for nearly ten times the amount.

GOLD closed in New York Saturday at 112½.

THE zeal with which the BLAINE Investigating Committee pursues it work, is not for a moment paralleled by the KERR Investigators. One drives relentlessly after its victim, while the other holds back like a balky horse.

MR. MOODY is outspoken on church debts, and utterly refuses to have his church dedicated till all the bills are paid. These amounted to $20,000, but a collection recently taken reduced the amount by over $12,000. He proposes, however, to look after the money, and as soon as this is raised, to begin work in his new church.

IF the colored people of the country imagine that the Democrats have a lurking love for them, they may be reminded of their error in being informed that the army bill of General BANNING, in Congress, abolishes the colored regiments entirely. The Democracy are not disposed to expend public moneys on colored troops.

THE exact value of the liberal religious laws in Spain, over which the Pope became excited, is illustrated by an order of the Minister of Justice, closing Protestant schools in one of the Provinces. Whatever the law may say, or however liberal it may seem on its face, the Pope should realize that the manner in which it will be enforced will be entirely acceptable.

FROM DISRAELI'S remarks in Parliament, it is evident that while the English fear war in Turkish Europe, the Government will do all in its power to avert it. The contest over Nicsic, between Turks and Herzegovinians continues, but this aside, there are no special features in the war. If the Great Powers unite in enforcing peace, there is no real danger that the war will be extended.

THE parade of the Knight Templars in Philadelphia is referred to as an event of more than usual importance, of its kind. Large numbers of Knights took part in the parades, and the deepest interest was manifested by the people of Philadelphia. The Order is one of the most prosperous and powerful in the country, and deserved from its prominence and importance, all the attention it received.

UNCLE DANIEL DREW has come to the surface once more, and testified in relation to his application for bankruptcy. He claims to have kept no book accounts, but to have carried all his business in his head. He was a drover in his early years, and at that time formed the habit which has followed him thus far through life. In his often complicated transactions it is amazing that he should keep an accurate run of his affairs.

IT IS declared that TILDEN and his friends have resorted to regular advertising arrangements to spread the fame of the great Democratic chieftain abroad. Several sets of extracts, from different journals, are sent to the county press, to be paid for at the rate of $3.50 a set, the same to be published as reading matter. So the programme is of an advertising nature. This plan is believed to have been successfully tried in New York, during his candidacy there,—even the Tribune, it is affirmed, being bought for $50,000 to aid him. However that may be, it is evident that the fame of the great man is to be spread abroad, just as that of a patent medicine vendor usually is.

THE press of the country as a rule, view the BLAINE investigation in the right light. They comprehend the malignity that is shown towards him, and regard it as simply an attempt, on the part of opposing politicians, to break down his candidacy for the Presidency. A few demand that his private papers shall be shown, as proof of innocence, while others claim that it will be judicious to show them. We never believed in the policy in sacrificing manhood to popular clamor. It is admitted by MULLIGAN, and BLAINE under oath, that there is but one letter that by any possibility bears on the case under investigation, yet these letters are demanded. We honor the manhood that refuses to be governed thus.

THE Social Science Association, now in session in Philadelphia, is a purely scientific body, and not a propagandist of moral ideas; yet it cordially accepted a paper of Dr. MANN, on "State Medicine in its Relations to Intemperance and the Inebriate," in which he declares that in New York 33⅓ per centum of all deaths are due directly or indirectly to the use of alcoholic stimulants, of which $600,000,000 worth are annually sold there. The increase is at the rate of 10 per centum per annum. He doubted whether the introduction of light wines would operate toward a decrease of intemperance, which, he said, begins almost universally with the use of wine and beer. Coming from such a source, these statements are very impressive. The Association has determined to publish a Centennial edition of ADAM SMITH'S works on social and political economy.

THE journals in the interest of the SCHURZ independent movement, present, at times, a very funny contrast, in their statement of views. The New York Evening Post, for example, argues that the man to be selected for Presidential candidate should be spotlessly pure in character, of broad views, and strength of nerve. BRISTOW is openly designated as meeting this description. In another column of the same issue, PETER COOPER'S candidacy is mentioned with scant respect, it being alleged that while, if perfect purity of character were the only qualification he should receive every vote in New York, yet he will receive very few votes, because he was nominated by "inconsiderate persons, who are willing to postpone all questions of principles to the single question of a man." BRISTOW is to be taken on character and COOPER rejected on principle.

THE decrease in the national debt, during the eleven months of the fiscal year passed, has not only been large,—$25,867,984,—but is the result of saving in current expenses, the income of the Government from customs and other sources having seriously diminished as compared with 1873 and amounting to $10,000,000 as compared with last year. Had the tax on tea and coffee been retained, it would have enabled the Secretary to retire about $50,000,000 of the public debt during the past fiscal year. The silver outlay, during the past month, has strengthened the currency balance so that there is now $9,285,708, against $5,161,186 a month ago. According to the latest figures received from Washington, the total amount of silver paid out up to May 29 had been $7,389,288, of which only $4,414,557 was in exchange for fractional currency. The net gold balance is estimated at about $33,000,000. But the overdue five-twenties are nearly all in, and the accumulation for June will be held for the July interest payments. Thus the Treasury is healthful though not plethoric.

THE inquiry is beginning to be urged, what has Congress really done, in the way of legitimate business, this session? Not a bill, of value to the public, has been passed. The appropriation bill, which legalizes the payment of monies for administrative purposes, is in such a tangled shape, that there is little hope of passing it by the close of the fiscal year. Even the New York Tribune is constrained to say that "Mr. MORRISON has virtually abandoned the Tariff bill. Mr. PAYNE abandoned the Currency bill some time ago, and Mr. HOLMAN, though he has not yet formally abandoned the repeal of the Resumption act, is probably well aware that it will not pass. Under these circumstances, is it surprising that men regard the performances of the house with some contempt?" Has anything been done by this House except the circulation of vile slanders against Republicans? Public business, decency, and good sense have been put aside, in a wild endeavor to hunt down the characters of Republicans. The worst characters have been gathered from all parts of the country as witnesses, and the country has been disgraced by the unprincipled and transparent effort to ruin honorable men. All this will not soon be forgotten.

ARCTIC explorations still have enough fascination about them to tempt hardy mariners to scenes of danger and desolation. To-day a top-sail schooner sails from New London, Connecticut, under government auspices for a cargo of minerals, flora and fauna for the Smithsonian Institute. It is said that surrounding Cumberland Inlet are large veins of graphite and mica, and it is for this the expedition proceeds. The Era's sailing master is Captain JAMES BUDDINGTON of Groton, Conn., who brought the English ship Resolute, into New London in the winter of 1855, and was the ice pilot of the Tigress when she sought the Polaris. ESQUIMAX JOE, who was with CAPTAIN HALL on several expeditions, and TYSON'S party, on an ice-floe for 190 days, and other experienced Arctic voyagers, will be of the party. The Era is well provided with mining tools and laborers for quarrying, and as deposits are situated some distance up the mountain side, they will take 3000 feet of tramway in order to more easily load the vessel, and a quantity of lumber to erect tool-houses and buildings for the purpose of observation. Mineral is found in almost inaccessible places, and the deposits, though almost pure, are under rock as hard as flint. Provision, therefore, is made for blasting on an extensive scale. The Era is an old whaler, of 160 tons, and has made voyages in the Polar regions under CAPTAIN TYSON, of Polaris fame.

ROBERT COLLYER, on Decoration Day, delivered an address, which was not to the taste of loyal Chicagoans who listened to his eloquence. He opposed the retention of the memories of the war, saying among other things, "The sun cannot tell which is rebel dust and which is loyal. It is all one to the sun." This and kindred sentiments have been severely criticised as having in them lurking apologies for treason. Says one paper, commenting on the above: "We especially fail to see why the fact of the sun being in this ignorance, should be a reason for our failure to denounce outrages in the Southern States, though Mr. COLLYER seems to think it is! The sun, no doubt, would fail to behold any difference between the dust of WASHINGTON and ARNOLD, or LINCOLN and WILKES BOOTH; but that is hardly a reason why the American people should shut their eyes to the patriotism and nobility of the one or the treason and fratricide of the other. We ought to get rid of this loose, meaningless, namby-pamby sort of talk. It may serve sentimental young women and weak-minded young men; but to sober, practical people, who view the world as it is, and not as it ought to be, such public teachings are unworthy of speaker and audience. Let us say to Mr. COLLYER, regarding the heavenly planets, as old JOE WILLETTS said to young JOE, regarding the moon: "You just let the moon alone, young man, and the moon will let you alone."

SATURDAY'S BATTLE.

It is not often the case that we have so much interest in Primary meetings as was manifested on Saturday. The contests included so many offices that an unusual rally was had, and the returns we present this morning are more than usually complete. Beginning with the Congressional contest, the nomination of RUSSELL ERRETT is conceded, although the summary of votes differs. ERRETT'S friends claim a majority of at least thirty, so far as heard from, although NEGLEY'S friends do not concede him so many, but still admit that he has a majority of the delegates heard from thus far. Of the twenty-five or thirty to be heard from, ERRETT'S chances, in our judgment, are the best.

For State Senate, Forty-third District, JOSEPH M. GAZZAM has a clear majority, and will receive the nomination. A feeling of sympathy for Mr. GAZZAM materially aided him. Mr. ANDERSON, while freely admitted to have rendered valuable and satisfactory service as State Senator, first was recognized as quietly at work for the Congressional nomination, and while he did not personally announce himself, he was committed in various forms so that his Congressional candidacy was accepted as a recognized fact, and Mr. GAZZAM took the field. When Mr. ANDERSON, finding the Congressional field crowded, fell back on the State Senate, Mr. GAZZAM'S friends announced that he had so often yielded to others, that it was unfair to require him to do so again. Hence the battle was joined, and Mr. GAZZAM comes out triumphant. We need only say at this juncture that he is an excellent man, of pure character, fine culture and spirit, and eminently worthy the position for which he will be nominated. NEWMYER and MCNEILL have no opposition. The Forty-fifth District is in doubt, GILFILLAN'S friends claiming he is entitled to the nomination.

Of the county office, that of Prothonotary comes first in interest, and in this the present Prothonotary, Mr. KENNEDY, who has so acceptably filled the office, comes out with a large and safe majority among the delegates. We incline to the opinion that, unless some one of his competitors comes before the Convention, simply for the sake of recognition, he will be nominated by acclamation. The positions of Treasurer and Coroner are involved in doubt, and afford a fine field for tactical operations.

The legislative display is rather obscure, in several of the Districts. In the First, Messrs. LONG and GRAHAM, old members, and WALKER have no opposition. In the Second District, ROBERT FRAZIER and WILLIAM FLINN are thought to be ahead. The Third has no candidates, and the Fourth is completely mixed, because of the multiplicity of candidates, and the lack of system in setting up delegates. The finest field for trading, of all the Conventions is that for the Fourth Legislative District. If we get a good ticket out of it, it will be luck rather than foresight. ADAM WEAVER alone seems to have been working with clearness and skill. He will probably be one of the candidates from the South side part of the District.

Col. T. M. BAYNE will receive the Congressional nomination in the Twenty-third District, but rumors of an independent candidate are current, JOHN MEGRAW, Esq., being pointed out as the man. We do not know that Mr. MEGRAW has given himself to the movement, and we hope these reports will come to nothing. The honorable method of working is to contest an undesirable nomination within party lines. This has not been done by those who claim to think Colonel BAYNE'S nomination undesirable, and loyalty to the party requires that the District be not thrown away by putting up an independent candidate, who cannot be elected, and who, therefore, simply plays into the hands of the Democratic party. Colonel BAYNE will make an energetic canvass, under circumstances far more favorable than those of two years ago, and, in our judgment, will be elected.

Now that the Primaries, which seem to have concentrated the animosities of the canvass, are over, we hope all bitterness will be allayed, and thorough loyalty to the party be developed. We have purposely refrained from joining in the preliminary struggle, that we might calmly act when it should be over. This is Presidential year, when side issues, personal feelings and animosities should give way for the general good. The Democratic party is straining every nerve to get itself in position to fight a strong battle, and we need, more than ever the full unity of the party in the coming struggle. We hope therefore, our friends will realize that the duty of the hour is to harmonize all differences and prepare, as members of the Republican party, for the struggle that is immediately before us. The Republican party expects every man to do his duty.

OUR SCHOOLS.

Our Pittsburgh system of schools, as represented by charts, and descriptive material at the Centennial, have received deserved recognition by the press of the country. It is admitted that our system is well digested, and efficiently administered, and that the results, as exhibited, are valuable and useful. What is there shown, however, does not fairly illustrate an important fact,—the devotion and enthusiasm of our school officers and teachers to the work of public education. We doubt if, in the respects named, any city is more favored than we. Our City Superintendent is alive to his work, and from the Principal of the High School through all the grades of teachers, the most earnest devotion to the work of their profession is manifested by all. We sometimes imagine that the efforts to keep up the esprit du corps involve an amount of exacting labor that is not understood or appreciated by the general public. Saturdays, during the school season, are not holidays with the teachers, as many suppose, but Institute days, spent in labors that are severe, but designed to improve them in their profession. At these Institutes, every new idea, bearing on the science of teaching is critically examined, with a view to its adoption, if thought deserving of it. Useless experiments are repressed, uniformity in system secured, all that is new analyzed carefully, and the best results reached, without making our schools places for experiments. The result is, as we hear from many sources, that in thoroughness and rapidity, the children in our public schools do better than those in private schools.

These remarks are offered, first, injustice to a hard-worked class, and second, as a reminder against the rumored reduction of salaries and duration of the school year. Allegheny, as we think, acted unwisely in this direction, and we certainly hope Pittsburgh will not follow her example. So far from this, we yet hope to see an intermediate grade of schools, similar to the Boston Grammar schools in operation in our city, as thoroughly and efficiently maintained, and of as wide celebrity as those in that city. The experience of the past five years illustrates the advantage of a liberal policy as regards our schools. The per centage of attendance has largely increased, and the influence of the schools has been steadily extended. We have demonstrated the utter lack of necessity for a compulsory attendance law, by making our schools so attractive that the children have been drawn to them in larger numbers than in any country where compulsory attendance is enforced. All this needs only to be maintained, and when the proper time arrives new and complete advantages added to those we already possess, until our public school system shall meet every need, whether for practical, or even a fair grade of classical education. We already have the embryo of technical or industial system of education, incipient feature of a musical training, and in our High School advanced teaching in the science, and a fair degree in the classics. Let us keep up to our present standard, in all particulars, ever alive to any opportunity to advance to a higher standard.

NASBY.

The Sage of the Cross-Roads Opening the Campaign—A Few Words of Admonition to His Party-Friends—The Rallying-Cry of the Democracy: "Reform and Purity in Official Position."

CONFEDRIT X ROADS, WICH IS IN THE STATE UV KENTUCKY, May 17.—Another campaign is well nigh onto us, and I feel the blood a bilin in my vanes. Like the war-hoss turned out to grass—wich literally I hev bin ever since the bustin uv the Onlimited Trust and Confidence Company—I heer the blare uv the trumpet, and I prick up my ears and tale, and cry ha! ha! to the carnage. I smell the smoke of the conflict, and I smell, likewise, the plunder underneath that smoke. I see in the distance, success, and behint that success, Post-Offis. Post-Offis! Post-Offis! Deceitful words! Wat Democrat is ther that woodent git enthoosiastic over that prospeck! I shell go into this campane with my sleeves rolled up.

This is our last chance for a complete success. Success is wat we must hev, and that we may attain that success I shel throw out a few words uv admonishn, wich will be apples uv gold sot in pictures uv silver. We hev bin pastrin on barren feelds too long, and the fat bottoms uv offishl patronage kin only come into our hands by acoot and skilful management.

But there is difficulties in the way, no matter where we turn. Dimocrisy is a curious combinashn—a curious and singler mixter. In the East to be a Dimocrat is to be a hard money man, uv the hardest possible stripe—in the West to be a Dimocrat is to be a soft money man, uv the softest possible stripe. Tilden, uv Noo York, who wood like to carry the Dimocratic banner to victory, proposes to put onto its fold "hard money." Allen, uv Ohio, who wus resurrected from his twenty years' sleep, on purpus to embarrass the party, proposes to put on the banner, ef it is given to him, "soft money, and no end on't." Ef we put up Tilden and hard money, Allen and soft money kills him—ef we put up Allen and soft money, Tilden and his frends hev the sweetest kind uv a knife for his innocent throte, and when we come to tariff and banks there is an ekally onreconcilable differens uv opinyun.

To reconcile these differences is impossible. There ain't no yoose in tryin it, and I ain't a goin to. Dodgin is now, ez ever, the Democrat's best holt. The man wich kin lift jist 200 pounds shows mity little discreshn when he strains hisself at 250, and I am a man uv discreshn. We must hev nuthin to do with the questions on wich anybody differs. Ignorin is wisdom.

Ther ain't only one ishoo on wich the Dimocrisy kin plant itself, with any hope uv success—only one question on wich ther kin be perfect yoonanimity—and that ishoo is REFORM! On that we are a yoonit—on that we kin agree ez sweetly as a spring mornin.

It is not on my judgment alone that I depend onto in this matter. I hev consultid all the leeders uv the party onto it—that is, all the actooal leeders, them ez actilly control things. I writ to that gilless patriot, Willyum Tweed, Esq., who is now a pinin on a furrin shoar in consekence uv a corrupt joory, which inquired ez to wat he hed done with ten millions uv the public munney, and wuz not content to take his word fur it that he hed spent it legally. His anser wuz so striking in accordance with my noshuns uv things that I give the heart uv it:

"By all means go into the next canvass on the ishoo uv reform. The corrupshens uv the present Administrashen, and I may say uv the Republikin party in general, is sich ez to appal the heart uv any lover uv his country. In my lonely eggsile I frekently shed teers wen I think uv the steelin that's goin on.

"Let our watchword be 'Reform and Puritin official posishen.' Ef my lawyers kin git them indictments agin me squashed in time, I will come home and help in campane. I kin git controle over two hundred s'loons in the lower wards uv the city, and ef I kin git back I kin organize my old forse, and restore Tammany to its old posishen, ez the controller uv the Dimocrisy. The trick uv repeatin hez not bin forgotten, and I kin handle them fellows ez well ez ever I cood. 'Reform and purity' is my watchword."

Peter B. Sweeney, who is yit in Paris, a livin ruther quiet than otherwise, wuz still more emphatic. He sez—but I will give his own words:

"Reform is wat we want. I am tired uv livin abroad, and I want to git back to Noo York. I want a hand in the comin campane, for I hev jest ez much power ex ever, ef I kin only git the cussid Republikins out uv the way. The repeeters ain't ded yit, and ez ship-loads uv patriotic Irishmen, who are willin to take offis ez soon ez the land, are a comin every day, I kin help to govern Noo York ez well ez ever I did. But what yoo want to do is to make this fite on reform and purity. Do this and git me and Tweed back, and we will make things hum. There is Noo York and its tax levies for the victors, and ef the currency, tariff, and all them miner questions are squelched, and the battle is fought on the simple question uv reform and personal purity in offshel posishn we kin win it. Reform is our watchword, and that is wat I insist upon. I am absent, but not forgotten."

Connolly, who is residin in Belgium, where there is no extradition treaty, and consekently where the United States forchinitly can't reech him, wich makes him entirely independent uv the country, which he hez adoptid, writ me a letter in which he give me his views as to the situashen, wich is ez follers:

"I hev only wun intrest in the ensooin eleckshun—only wun. A lonely eggsile on a furrin shoar, I cast my eyes longingly to my native land, and yearn fur it. Sence me and the rest uv old Tammany left Ameriky I hev observed with more disgust than I kin put language into, the corrupshens that hev eeten out the hart uv the country uv my adopshen. I earnestly hope 'that the Dimocrisy will take hold uv it in earnest and reform it. Wat we want is purity. Owin to circumstances—wich the same is indictments—I can't come back persnelly to assist in the shindy, but I pledge to yoo the yoose uv my old and stanch repeetors in the lower wards of Noo York, wich, ef they kin depend onto hevin their expensis paid and their whack in the offices, and in contrax after the elecshuns, kin be dependid on to do the work jist ez good ez ever they did. Let the platform be heavy and solid for purity and reform."

Oakey Hall wants reform and purity, and in sich a coz he is willin to give a fourth uv the forchoon he made when he wuz the astoot rite bower of Tweed.

I hev heerd from em all. The Democrisy of the Sixth Ward of Noo York, wher I wunst run a small grosery, are to a man for reform. Pendleton wants reform, and every man wich wuz turned out of offis when Johnson went out is a clamorin for it.

The Southern Dimocrisy wants Reform. They say in their letter to me, "Give us a Reform platform, and we'll put away our shot-guns, and keep our hands off the niggers till after the elections, shoor. We won't insist on our rites to kill niggers, and keep 'em from hevin anything to do with matters, till the eleckshun uv a Dimercratic President gives us a rite to do ez we please." Their constant remark is, "Go in heavy for Reform, and make that the one ishoo."

The dooty uv the party is clear. Give us a platform based entirely onto Reform. We kin carry it. It is a great many yeers sence we wuz in power, and by this time the people hev forgotten us and they will take us eezy. If we do this, we kin succeed beyond a question. The Millenium ain't cum yit nor hez there bin any especial change in things. We hev the Doggeries, the Catholic Church, and all the lower elements. They are alluz ours, and they are ez strong ez ever. Until sin goes out uv the world there will be a Democratic party. Humanity in the United States is is divided into two classes—them ez wear clean shirts and sox, and Dimocrats. And so long ex this division is observed we are sound.

It is a good time for us. Everything is in our favor. It hez bin a cold spring—the farmers are all behind with ther work. Ther hez bin frosts in places, wich hez destroyed the froot, and ther is a joyful prospeck uv a short crop uv everything. The people is dissatisfied about it, and uv course they will charge everything to the Administration. A failyoor of the potato crop is worth thousands of votes to the Dimocrisy any time. It is only when things is just ez bad ez ever they can be that anybody ever thinks uv going to the Dimocrisy for a change.

What we want is a good mouth-fillin platform—a platform wich looks well, and wich the people will be satisfied with. Troo, wat is promised afore elechshun and wat happens afterward is 2 things, but let to-morrow take care uv itself. Wat we want now is success.

NEW BOOKS.

THE LIFE LETTERS AND TABLE TALK OF BENJAMIN ROBERT HAYDON. Edited by R. H. Stoddard. Published by Scribner, Armstrong & Co., and for sale by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

"The life of Haydon," says the editor, "is the history of Historical Painting in England." Haydon toiled through sixty years of suffering and poverty, not fully appreciated in his time, but leaving a name that grows brighter as the years increase. The present volume, one of the Sans Souci series, gives in, anecdote, epigram, verse and plain matter of fact description the story of Haydon's life, and glimpes of his contemporaries and of the age in which he lived. The work has been well done, and there are infinite riches embraced in a very small compass.

ANIMAL PARASITES AND MESSMATES by P. J. Van Beneden, eighty-three illustrations; published by D. Appleton & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co., corner of Wood street and Fifth avenue.

This is an exceedingly fascinating book. It is written with a graphic force and beauty of style that makes it as charming as a lively romance. The information it gives of a very interesting branch of natural history, is as entertaining as it is valuable. The author writes with the enthusiasm of an amateur, but along with this freshness there is the calm, judgment of a man who writes whereof he knows,—who is anxious to give facts, and is yet capable of telling his story in the most fascinating way.

KITTY'S CLASS DAY; AUNT KIPP; PSYCHE'S AUNT. By Louisa M. Alcott, with illustrations by Augustus Hoppin. Published by Loring, of Boston, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

These three stories are written in illustration of the three homely proverbs: "A stitch in time saves nine," "Children and fools speak the truth," and "Handsome is that handsome does." The stories are bright, breezy, wholesome and natural. The girls and boys will enjoy them intensely. They are full of life and animation, and that peculiar witchery of composition which characterizes every book Miss Alcott writes.

MISS HITCHCOCK'S WEDDING DRESS. By the author of Mrs. Jerningham's Journal, &c. Published by Scribner, Armstrong & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co., corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street.

This is a smoothly written, fashionable love story. There is nothing particularly thrilling in the plot or the details of the romance, but the easy graceful way in which the story is told, and the character sketching—although the heroine is overdrawn—will make it popular among those who delight in light, gossipy volumes. In substance it tells how a young girl, whose fortune was in her face, won one of fortune's aristocratic scions.

AMILIAR TALKS TO BOYS. By the Rev. John Hall, D. D. Published by Dodd, Mead & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co.

Dr. Hall is one of the most manly men of the age, and his advice to boys is just as full of sound practical sense, as are the "talks" with which he is constantly instructing and edifying, and elevating thousands of those who hear and those who read what he says. This little volume is a book for boys,—direct, forcible, full of pertinent illustrations, and "clear grit." It is a book of rare value to put into the hands of a boy.

PLEASURES OF ANGLING WITH ROD AND REED FOR TROUT AND SALMON. By George Dawson. Published by Sheldon & Co., New York, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co., 101 Wood street.

This volume is made up of a series of pleasant sketches of the personal experiences of a veteran angler among the Adirondack's. It is just the book to pack up in the satchel of the angler who goes these summer days to spend a season in the woods in the enjoyment of his favorite pastime.

AFFAIRS OF STATE.

THE firemen of the Laurel Engine Company, at York, have six pet owls.

LEVI KNOTT, of Altoona, is not disposed to allow Railroad men to work on Sunday. He has arrested fifty-nine of them for doing so.

THE prisoners now in jail at Ebensburg, Cambria county, charged with the murder of Patrick O'Brian, the P. R. R. switch tender, will be tried this week.

THE soft-hearted young men of Cumberland, went wild last week over Miss Anderson, a Baltimore actress. Their tender sentiments found expression in plentiful offerings of flowers.

AFTER the soldiers graves had been decorated at Titusville on Tuesday, vandals stole the boquets from the hallowed ground and plucked the buds from the newly planted rose bushes.

A FIRE in the Diamond mine of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Weston Railroad Company, in Luzerne county, last week, suffocated twenty-six valuable mules. They could not be rescued until the flames had been partially subdued, but by that time they were dead.

THE coroner's inquest in Luzerne county, last Friday, touching the death of Mrs. Coyle, who it was alleged died from injuries inflicted upon her by her husband, resulted in a verdict to the effect that she came to her death from blows received by her at the hands of her husband, John Coyle. He was committed for trial.

FROM OHIO.

IT transpires after all that W. Smalley, the late Treasurer of Wyandot county, Ohio, who killed himself on Sunday, 21st ult., was a defaulter to the amount of $4,000. But it is said that this could not have been the cause of his suicide, for his estate is ample for nearly ten times the amount.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 5, 1876.

Saturday proved the most active day the banks had during last week. Many of them had as large lines of discounts as they could provide. A feeling of caution, which has obtained among the banks, leads to very great caution in making advances, since the manufactories closed. So long as our industries are shut down, this spirit will probably obtain at the banks. Even some of our savings banks have shut down on making loans, on real estate, a fact which exerts a tightening influence on the market. The general impression seems to be that the strike may not be long continued, yet we gather nothing that we can base this impression upon. At the present, the outlook is decidedly unfavorable, and we can only hope for a better turn to affairs. The real estate market, for the reasons above given, is depressed to the extent that the bottom may be said to be out.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 3, 1876.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

The most important event of the week was the sharp appreciation in the value of the raw article, and while the advance was very sudden it was not altogether unexpected. As noted in our last review, the production is more reduced now than it has been for several years, while the consumption is as large as ever it has been, consequently the stock is steadily being lessened, and the visible supply has been very largely curtailed during the past year. Producers feel that they are master of the situation, and the best evidence of this is their best ability to sustain and advance prices in view of the general depression in business and steady shrinkage in values of nearly all other leading articles of merchandise. A couple of years ago, when the production was ranging from 35,000 to 40,000 bbl ⅌ day, the raw article was governed by the product; at the present time, the situation is entirely different, it has been completely reversed. Furthermore, until some new strikes have been made, there is no reason to look for a change; as long as the consumption continues in excess of the production, as it has been for some time past, there is no reason to look for a decline, a still further advance is not improbable. The market for the product is firmer, in sympathy with the raw article, and, notwithstanding there does not appear to be much inquiry for the moment, an advance within the next day or two is not improbable. It is very evident that the average price will be higher in 1876 than it was in 1875, but it is not likely to effect the consumption in the least; indeed, the indications just now are that there will be a larger consumption this year than last. At double its present cost it would still be the cheapest article for illuminating in the world, and this being the case there can be no objection to a higher range of prices, either for the raw article or the product; on the contrary, the more money that can be obtained, without curtailing the consumption, the better, and it is gratifying to know that the consumption, instead of falling off, is steadily increasing every year, until it is now one of the chief articles of export.

RECEIPTS AND SHIPMENTS.

Receipts crude by rail for the week 5,474 bbls; by rail and Conduit pipe line from January 1st to date, 519,316 bbls, against 393,353 bbls same time last year. Shipments of refined eastward for the week, 8,232 bbls; January 1st to date, 368,824 bbls; same time last year, 61,528 bbls.

The market was easier, and as compared with yesterday, prices were 2a3c ⅌ bbl lower; United certificates, $2.03¾; Union, $2,02¾a2.02⅞; immediate shipment, $2,27½.

REFINED.

Continues quiet, although the undertone of the market is firmer, in sympathy with the raw article; Philadelphia delivery, 14½a14¾c; Baltimore, 13¾a14c, equal to about 11c on cars here.

OIL BARRELS.

There is less inquiry, and prices are weaker; $1.10 for countries, and $1.20 for city make.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY June 3, 1876.

Business in general merchandise continues very dull, and the leading articles are devoid of anything new or important, excepting that values continue to tend downward; there is no question but this has had something to do with the falling off in the demand for goods, as neither retailers or consumers feel like carrying more stock than they can help in consequence. Sugars are firmer. Breadstuffs, Grain, Provisions and nearly all the leading articles of produce are dull and weak in price.

APPLES—Sales of green apples at $4a5 ⅌ bbl for fair to choice.

BUTTER—Continues dull, and while the receipts are only fair, the supply is in excess of the demand; prime to choice, 18a20; common to medium, 12a15c.

BEANS—Continue very dull, and prices are weak and nominal at $1a1.10 ⅌ bu.

CHEESE—The market is dull and prices lower. Prime new Ohio Factory, 8½c to the trade, and in a jobbing way, 9½a10c.

DRIED FRUIT—Peeled Peaches dull; sales at 14a15c for fair. Unpeeled selling slowly at 11½a12c for halves. Apples in better supply, and offered at 8½a9c for fair.

EGGS—The market continues dull, and prices fairly quotable at 12½a13c for fresh receipts.

FLOUR—Quiet and unchanged. Spring wheat flours, $6.25a6.75; red winters, $6.50a7; ambers, $7.25a7.50; patent process and fancy white wheat, $8.50a9.50. Rye Flour, $4.75a5.

GROCERIES—Sugars are reported very firm, and the outlook just now is favorable for a higher range of prices. Coffee, as already noted, is feeling a little stronger in the east, but there is no improvement to note in the demand, and there is but little confidence in the future of the market, as stocks are large, and the consumption is always comparatively light during the summer months.

GRAIN—Our grain merchants nearly all report business very dull, and they do not expect any immediate improvement; prices are weak, although there has been no quotable change since our last issue. We continue to quote good to prime Ohio and Indiana red Wheat at $1.30a1.33, and but little call for it. The Oat market continues very dull and prices are weak and drooping; Penna. and Ohio mixed, 35a36c; do white, 37a38c. Sales of Ohio and Indiana Shelled at 53c on track; prime Northwestern is worth 2a3c additional. Ear Corn dull; the hot weather and low price of Oats having curtailed the demand. Rye is still quoted at 78a80c.

HAY—The market continues very dull. Baled is quoted, on wharf and track, at $16a17 ⅌ ton for No. 1 timothy; No. 2, $14a15.

MILL FEED—Continues dull, and there is scarcely enough doing to establish prices.

POTATOES—Selling, in a jobbing way, at 35a40c per bu. Market dull, and prices are weak.

PROVISIONS—The market continues weak and irregular, although the feeling begins to prevail that the bottom will soon be touched, if it is not already. The shrinkage during the past two weeks has been very decided, and is calculated to make those who bought largely before the decline feel very sore.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 3, 1876.

ARRIVALS.

Following shows the aggregate receipts for the week, as well as those of last week also:

	This week.	Last week.
Cattle	401 cars.	309 cars.
Hogs	98 "	117 "
Sheep	90 "	74 "
Total	589 "	503 "

CATTLE.

Of the 401 cars reported for the week ending at noon to-day, 333 cars were through and 68 cars local against 252 cars of the former and 57 cars of the latter last week. Sales, 831 head; last week, 1,243.

The offerings were again light this week, and with a moderate inquiry and rather more favorable advices from the east, especially New York, the market was better; light weight cattle of medium to good quality, the supply of which was unequal to the demand, ruled a shade higher, say 10a12½c per cwt, but there was scarcely any call for heavy cattle, although the supply of this character was very small. As has been the case for some time past, there was a very small attendance of buyers from the large seaboard markets, and they are about the only buyers of the grade in question; country dealers want light weights, and they have been our chief, we might say, only wholesale buyers, for two or three months. It is worthy of notice, however, that notwithstanding there has been considerable of a falling off in the arrivals of local stock, the run of through consignments is keeping up larger and longer than expected, and while this continues we cannot expect much inquiry here for any of the eastern markets.

QUOTATIONS.

Good 1,200a1,300 steers	5.00a5.25

Cows Bulls and Stags	3.50a4.00

The most of the sales this week were within the range of 4a5c.

SHEEP.

The run this week was the largest for some time, and with increased offerings and a diminished demand, owing to unfavorable reports from the east, the market has been a very unsatisfactory one to sellers. Prices as compared with the early part of week are off 15a20c, and as compared with this day week, 30a35c. While there has been a sharp depreciation, it is worthy of notice that this class of live stock is still bringing better prices than cattle and but little less than hogs. In regard to the course of the market during the coming week, it is idle to speculate; it will depend altogether on the supply; it may not be out of place to state, however, that a hard market is usually followed by diminished receipts.

QUOTATIONS.

HOGS

The market was exceedingly dull to-day, a few cars of Yorkers changed hands, but there was not a single hog purchased for Philadelphia; it is true the supply was small, but so was the demand, and it is certain prices were no better. The market has been considerably demoralized for ten days past or more; a heavy decline has taken place, and there is no certainty that the lowest notch has been reached, although it is scarcely possible that prices will go much lower, for the present at least. Since this day week, prices have declined just about one cent ⅌ ℔; as already stated, trade, even at the decline, was dull, with a corresponding decline in the products. Yorkers quotable at 5.85a6.05, as to quality, and Philadelphia hogs at 6.20a6.25.

THE WOOL TRADE.

Pittsburgh.

It is yet too early in the season to venture a prediction as to prices of the new clip. However, the outlook is the gloomiest we have known for many years, and just for the same reasons that exist in the Iron trade and other manufacturing industries—an over-production of goods has broken down a good many woolen manufacturers, and with the present low prices of goods and the supply of wool greater than the demand, we cannot expect anything but great dullness and extreme low prices to prevail for the coming season. Some think that choice clips of good medium wool will rate at 30a33c, tub-washed at 3?a35c and fine wools at 30a33c. However, with the present outlook, we do not think the trade will be willing to make purchases of good clean wool of any grade at much, if anything, over 30c. If manufacturers are encouraged to make and sell their goods, prices may do better, but this does not seem to be expected.

Philadelphia.

Coates Bros. in their circular for May report as follows: The unusual dullness which has characterized all branches of trade for several months has continued through the month just closed. All the Eastern markets have, for some time, been so exceedingly depressed that it has been utterly impossible to effect sales except by cutting under at figures that made consignors believe that their wools were 'slaughtered.' We have now somewhat more demand but at low prices. This depressed condition of the wool market is very favorable to operators, and if considerable quantities can be bought up in the country before the activity commences it would seem to be a very safe season for speculators, as wool is now on such a basis that there can be little risk of farther decline. The present clip of the country will be large owing to a considerable increase of the far Western wools. This is especially true of the California clip which is nearly all consigned to Boston flooding that market with a wool which is begining to compete very seriously with the well-bred wools of Ohio and the neighboring states.

The losses in manufacturing during the past season have been severe resulting in the failure of a number of large mills and some dealers in the New England states and New York and the crippling of others. Philadelphia, thus far, has been very fortunate in this respect, there having been almost no failures for several years past among the large consumers of wool in this section. The stock of wool at present in the hands of manufacturers must now be, as a general rule, unusually small as they have, for some time, been buying only enough to supply their immediate necessities.

Sales of Domestic wool for the month foot up about 1,580,000 pounds, and the receipts are stated at 830,000 pounds.

Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia Fleece—XXX and Picklock, 45a4?c; XX, 40a43c; X 38a42c; Half blood, 42a45c; quarter blood, 38a43c; common, 33a37c.

Boston.

The whole market has been quite active all the week, with the sales chiefly in Californias. The auction of Wednesday brought a good many into the market who otherwise might not have come. The sale was a small assignee one, announced as 20,000 X Ohio, 4,000 unwashed, 2,000 Maine fleece. The ideas of buyers were that the lots were small, hence there would be no reason to anticipate the market would be forced, and yet when they came to inspect it the idea was very generally prevalent that over one-half was Vermont, New Hampshire and Michigan, and of the whole lot, say ten per cent., was unmerchantable. Under this impression the knocking of the fleece down at 32½c may be considered a good bargain for the seller. The buyer is understood to have been Taft, of Uxbridge. The unwashed was very good stock, with the unwashed tags in, and brought 22½, considered a fair market price, the buyers understood to be Messrs. Chamberlin, Boston dealers. During and after the sale the manufacturers made a sharp canvass of the market with the results as indicated by our sales below.

The tone of the market for the choice of Californias is a trifle firmer. On other styles the disposition is to meet good buyers fully half way. The average purchases of choice free runs close to 25c. That which realizes above this figure is a fancy price on a fancy clip. There is a small inquiry for combing wools, the very best of which, Kentucky growths, are not over active at 40c. This price is about what they may be considered worth, and is just about all they will bring. In fleece wools a moderate inquiry is met, but buyers have their ideas at 35@36c for good selections of X and XX Ohio, while holders, owing to the momentary scarcity of such grades, are asking from ½ to 1c higher value.

The reports from the interior are very similar to what has been previously stated. Dealers from Detroit are offering to buy now the best or most popular clips at 25c for Michigan wools, while some Eastern canvassers are looking for shearers in Ohio who will take 30c. These are prices below the farmers' ideas, and are values which the trade here are not particularly anxious as yet to back up. The receipts and offers of California wools are continuing to compete very strongly with these prices, and buyers are rather more willing to favor the Pacific than the fleece wools.

Pulled wools are having a small inquiry at 35@36c for Western supers, an occasional lot securing as high as 38c. On Eastern supers 40@42c are the best prices. The flannel men as yet are doing comparatively very little, which gives pulled wools an easy tone.

Receipts for the week amount to 5,316 bales domestic and no bales foreign.

Sales for the week foot up 1,833,500 lbs domestic and 176,000 lbs foreign.

There have been the following sales of fleece wools: 7,500 lbs on p. t.; 5,000 lbs XX Pennsylvania at 42½c; 7,500 lbs X Ohio at 37½c; 85,000 lbs do at 36@38c; 3,000 lbs Michigan X at 33c; 17,000 lbs do at 33@34c; 10,000 lbs do at 35c; 2,000 lbs X New York at 35c; 4,000 lbs fine Georgia at 33c; 9,000 lbs fat sheep at 21½c; 15,000 lbs fine do at 28c.

In scoured, sales of 15,000 lbs at 44@68c; 20,000 lbs at 42@53c; 14,500 lbs do. California at 60c; 3,500 lbs do. at 45c.—Bulletin.

[By Telegraph.]

BOSTON, June 3.—There was a more active demand for wool during the past week, but the sales were confined almost exclusively to new spring California. The stock of fleece wool small and not so desirable, but the supply is fully equal to the demand. X Ohio 38@38c; choice XX Ohio and Penn. 40@42½c; Michigan and Wisconsin X 33@35c; good lines medium 35@37c; combing and delaine neglected. Good lines of domestic combing 45@48c; delaine 35@40c; unwashed and unmerchantable 20½@28c; scoured 42@70c; pulled wools dull and have limited demand; large stock on market; choice Maine supers 42@48c; Eastern supers 43@45c; principal sales of supers and X at 33@37c.

New York.

Business, as a rule, drags along in about the usual slow and unsatisfactory manner, and complaints over the condition of the market is about all we obtain in our search after information. The manufacturing interests appear to be as bare of hope as ever, and are working along on the few unimportant orders at hand to just about a sufficient extent to make the general dullness more apparent. It is not a matter of cost on material retarding the demand, as rates are very low on all grades and sellers well disposed to keep terms easy, but simply that supplies are not wanted by consumers to an extent faster than now handled, and they positively refuse to anticipate their necessities. The line of credits is still very firmly and closely drawn, and this, too, continues to have more or less influence in diminishing the volume of business. During the past week the sales of spring California have reached a comparatively full aggregate, but due in the main to the finishing up of negotiations for some time under way, and also said to include the closing out of one or two fine clips at rather low figures. Reports come from the interior of a few sales of new wools at full rates, but only to country buyers. Foreign grades are dull and unchanged.

Sales of 2,000 lbs X Ohio at 42½c; 30,000 lbs XX do, 40,000 lbs delaine, 15,000 lbs fine do, 75 bags super pulled, 55 bags do, 3,000 lbs No. 1 do, 30 bags lambs do, on prive terms; 20,000 lbs Eastern Texas 15@22c; 5,000 lbs do 22@18c; 20,000 lbs Western do 17c; 10,000 lbs Eastern Texas, 10,000 lbs do, 55 bags do, 20 bags coarse on private terms; 250,000 lbs spring California 20@24c; 12,000 lbs do 16@21c; 10,000 lbs fall do 13c; 5,000 lbs fall, 10,000 lbs do, 3,000 lbs spring, 25,000 lbs do, 5,000 lbs scoured fall, 40,000 lbs California pulled, 5,000 lbs Eastern Oregon on private terms; 10,000 Oregon 25@33½c; 3,000 lbs choice Australian 43½c, and 150 bales autumn Donskoi on private terms.—Bulletin.

RIVER NEWS.

State of the Rivers, Movements of Steamboats, &c.

THE stage of water last evening was 3 feet by the marks; however, as noted in our last issue, there are from 6 to 8 inches more water than the marks indicate. Cloudy and cooler.

COM. KOUNTZ still remains in St. Louis.

THE Mary Miller was to have left Cincinnati for St. Louis on Saturday evening.

THE Hercules passed Cincinnati coming up on Thursday, with 11 empty barges and a keel-boat.

IT is whispered that all is not serene with the combination, and there may be music in the air soon.

NO arrivals or departures. The Veteran was due last night with the barge Luzerne, also the regular packets.

THE E. H. Durfee is due at Yankton from Fort Benton, with 55 passengers and a big trip of robes and furs.

PAT. FLANNERY, a rouster on the towboat Alice Brown, died in the Marine Hospital, at Evansville, a few days since.

THE Boaz sunk a coal boat at Fishing Creek Riffle. It is in a good condition, and in no way obstructs the channel.

THE Exchange, Capt. Jas. M. Kirker, is the regular packet for Portsmouth to-morrow, leaving promptly as advertised.

ALVIN H. KELLOGG, late clerk of the Clarksville, died at New Orleans Tuesday. He was only about twenty years old.

THE Iron Mountain passed Cincinnati going down on Thursday morning, with 5 barges of manufactured goods, and 5 barges coke.

THE Arlington was advertised to leave Cincinnati for this port yesterday. The Rhoads will leave St. Louis for Pittsburgh to-morrow or next day.

WHITE CARROLL, stabbed in St. Louis, on the 28th ult., by Robert Williamson, will probably recover, though not out of danger. Williamson is in jail awaiting the result of Carroll's wound.

THE C. K. Peck, Capt. J. A. Williams, will, as will be seen by card, take her departure for St. Louis this P. M., and being of a very light draft, no detention from low water need be apprehended. She is a bran new boat.

PILOT DAN LUCAS, deceased, leaves a wife and six children in St. Louis. He was well known between St. Louis and New Orleans, and was formerly an Arkansas pilot, with his residence in Memphis. The Alf. Stephens was his last boat.

AT St. Louis, on Wednesday last, Jno. Morris was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for fatally stabbing Wm. L. Johnson, on the steamer Genevieve, on the 15th of March, in a fight on that steamer. They were deckhands on the Genevieve.

THE Salt Valley, Capt. Dewolfe, with Messrs Kirker and Buchanan in charge of the office, is the regular packet for Ironton to-day, leaving at 4 P. M.; in addition to giving close attentions to way business, she will receipt through to Cincinnati and Louisville.

AT Louisville on Thursday, the tug Ida was sold to Capt. Wood, of Memphis, for the St Bernard Coal Co., for $2,002. The tug Magnolia was sold to R. C. Varble, of that city, for $1,765. The towboat Robin was sold to Sauer & Co, of same city, for $1,595. These boats belonged to a company, and were sold to close a partnership.

THURSDAY noon, an adroit thief broke open the cash-drawer on the H. S. Turner, lying at Cincinnati, while the clerk, Mr. Donally, was absent, abstracting therefrom $400 in currency—enough to pay off her people. No arrest was made; Capt. Hart has been unfortunate of late. His gold watch was stolen on his last trip of the Tom Sherlock.

E. W. MACDONALD, Louisville gauger, reports the last run of coal from Pittsburgh: 26 towboats, with 55 boats, 124 barges of coal—43 barges nut, 4 barges coke. Shipments south—10 towboats, with 104 boats, 60 barges of coal—20 nut and 3 coke. Coal remaining in first hands—3 boats, 242 barges, 48 of nut coal. Coal in the hands of city dealers—177 barges.

A Memphis special to the Cincinnati Commercial, under date of Friday, says: The large towboat J. B. Williams stranded her heavy fleet of coal at the foot of Devil's Elbow Cut-off early this morning, piling the entire tow of thirty-three pieces out on the middle bar. The steamer is not stuck, but she draws too much to get near enough to pull off the grounded boats. Two of them were badly stove and filled. The value of the coal is over $60,000, and it is not insured. The most of it will be saved, but at a considerable expense. Steamers descending should be cautious about coming through the Devil's Elbow Cut-off, the bar forming in the channel being a dangerous obstruction. The Kellogg came down this morning, and went back with empty ice-boats. She may go to the relief of the Williams. The Oakland and coal fleet passed down safely this forenoon. The Williams and tow of coal is destined for New Orleans.

☞PROFESSIONAL NOTICE.

Drs. Jordan and Davieson

Principals of the Institution of Anatomy, 807 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Lecturers on Anatomy, Physiology and Science, inform their friends and patients that they have again opened a branch office for the practice of their profession at No. 2 EIGHTH STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA., where one of the firm may be confidentially consulted, more especially in all those cases of diseases and debility, for the treatment of which they are so justly celebrated. It is too well known that hundreds, nay thousands suffer from the effects of early indiscretion and seek in vain for relief, for none but the educated physician who has made these subjects a specialty is likely to succeed in restoring the patient to health and strength. To all such Drs. Jordan and Davieson offer certain and speedy relief, and undertake no cases but those in which they are able to guarantee a safe, certain and permanent cure. Their important Medical Work may be had from their office, No. 2 Eighth street, on receipt of 25 cents, and also as usual from their head establishment, 1625 Filbert street, Philadelphia. Hours of consultation from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M., and from 5 P. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M. Every case is strictly confidential. d&S

☞KEYSTONE DISPENSARY, No. 302 Penn street, Pittsburgh, Pa., a special institution, having a Union-wide reputation for the reliable and successful treatment of Private and Urinary diseases, Spermatorrhoea, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, etc. Everybody should read TRUE MARRIAGE GUIDE, 144 pages; illustrated; cloth and gilt binding; about wonders of reproductive system, marriage, proper age and condition, marriage impediments, causes and consequences. Price 50 cents. Address as above, or call DR. WHITTIER. d&S

☞PRIVATE DISEASES.—OFFICE 194 PENN STREET, next door to the St. Clair Hotel. For the cure of all diseases of a private nature in from two to four days, by an entirely new and safe treatment. Also, seminal weakness, impotency and all other diseases of the genital organs, and their prevention. A cure warranted or money refunded. Has Diploma in the office, and is a regular physician of 20 years standing in this city, and has cured over 10,000 cases.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 5, 1876.

Saturday proved the most active day the banks had during last week. Many of them had as large lines of discounts as they could provide. A feeling of caution, which has obtained among the banks, leads to very great caution in making advances, since the manufactories closed. So long as our industries are shut down, this spirit will probably obtain at the banks. Even some of our savings banks have shut down on making loans, on real estate, a fact which exerts a tightening influence on the market. The general impression seems to be that the strike may not be long continued, yet we gather nothing that we can base this impression upon. At the present, the outlook is decidedly unfavorable, and we can only hope for a better turn to affairs. The real estate market, for the reasons above given, is depressed to the extent that the bottom may be said to be out.

The market subsequently became steady, except for St. Pauls, which fell off 3 to 3 points. In the closing hour there was a reaction of ¼ to 1 per cent. from the best prices of the day. Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 3, 1876.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

The most important event of the week was the sharp appreciation in the value of the raw article, and while the advance was very sudden it was not altogether unexpected. As noted in our last review, the production is more reduced now than it has been for several years, while the consumption is as large as ever it has been, consequently the stock is steadily being lessened, and the visible supply has been very largely curtailed during the past year. Producers feel that they are master of the situation, and the best evidence of this is their best ability to sustain and advance prices in view of the general depression in business and steady shrinkage in values of nearly all other leading articles of merchandise. A couple of years ago, when the production was ranging from 35,000 to 40,000 bbl ⅌ day, the raw article was governed by the product; at the present time, the situation is entirely different, it has been completely reversed. Furthermore, until some new strikes have been made, there is no reason to look for a change; as long as the consumption continues in excess of the production, as it has been for some time past, there is no reason to look for a decline, a still further advance is not improbable. The market for the product is firmer, in sympathy with the raw article, and, notwithstanding there does not appear to be much inquiry for the moment, an advance within the next day or two is not improbable. It is very evident that the average price will be higher in 1876 than it was in 1875, but it is not likely to effect the consumption in the least; indeed, the indications just now are that there will be a larger consumption this year than last. At double its present cost it would still be the cheapest article for illuminating in the world, and this being the case there can be no objection to a higher range of prices, either for the raw article or the product; on the contrary, the more money that can be obtained, without curtailing the consumption, the better, and it is gratifying to know that the consumption, instead of falling off, is steadily increasing every year, until it is now one of the chief articles of export.

RECEIPTS AND SHIPMENTS.

Receipts crude by rail for the week 5,474 bbls; by rail and Conduit pipe line from January 1st to date, 519,316 bbls, against 398,353 bbls same time last year. Shipments of refined eastward for the week, 8,232 bbls; January 1st to date, 363,824 bbls; same time last year, 61,528 bbls.

CRUDE.

The market was easier, and as compared with yesterday, prices were 2a3c ⅌ bbl lower; United certificates, $2,03¾; Union, $2,02¼a2,02½; immediate shipment, $2,27½.

REFINED.

Continues quiet, although the undertone of the market is firmer, in sympathy with the raw article; Philadelphia delivery, 14¾a14½c; Baltimore, 13⅞a14c, equal to about 11c on cars here.

OIL BARRELS.

There is less inquiry, and prices are weaker; $1,10 for countries, and $1,20 for city make.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY June 3, 1876.

Business in general merchandise continues very dull, and the leading articles are devoid of anything new or important, excepting that values continue to tend downward; there is no question but this has had something to do with the falling off in the demand for goods, as neither retailers or consumers feel like carrying more stock than they can help in consequence. Sugars are firmer. Breadstuffs, Grain, Provisions and nearly all the leading articles of produce are dull and weak in price.

APPLES—Sales of green apples at $4a5 ⅌ bbl for fair to choice.

BUTTER—Continues dull, and while the receipts are only fair, the supply is in excess of the demand; prime to choice, 18a20; common to medium, 12a15c.

BEANS—Continue very dull, and prices are weak and nominal at $1a1,10 ⅌ bu.

CHEESE—The market is dull and prices lower. Prime new Ohio Factory, 8½c to the trade, and in a jobbing way, 9½a10c.

DRIED FRUIT—Peeled Peaches dull; sales at 14a15c for fair. Unpeeled selling slowly at 11½a12c for halves. Apples in better supply, and offered at 8½a9c for fair.

EGGS—The market continues dull, and prices fairly quotable at 12½a13c for fresh receipts.

FLOUR—Quiet and unchanged. Spring wheat flours, $6,25a6,75; red winters, $6,50a7; ambers, $7,25a7,50; patent process and fancy white wheat, $8,50a9,50. Rye Flour, $4,75a5.

GROCERIES—Sugars are reported very firm, and the outlook just now is favorable for a higher range of prices. Coffee, as already noted, is feeling a little stronger in the east, but there is no improvement to note in the demand, and there is but little confidence in the future of the market, as stocks are large, and the consumption is always comparatively light during the summer months.

GRAIN—Our grain merchants nearly all report business very dull, and they do not expect any immediate improvement; prices are weak, although there has been no quotable change since our last issue. We continue to quote good to prime Ohio and Indiana red Wheat at $1,30a1,33, and but little call for it. The Oat market continues very dull and prices are weak and drooping; Penna. and Ohio mixed, 35a36c; do white, 37a38c. Sales of Ohio and Indiana Shelled at 53c on track; prime Northwestern is worth 2a3c additional. Ear Corn dull; the hot weather and low price of Oats having curtailed the demand. Rye is still quoted at 78a80c.

HAY—The market continues very dull. Baled is quoted, on wharf and track, at $16a17 ⅌ ton for No. 1 timothy; No. 2, $14a15.

MILL FEED—Continues dull, and there is scarcely enough doing to establish prices.

POTATOES—Selling, in a jobbing way, at 35a40c per bu. Market dull, and prices are weak.

PROVISIONS—The market continues weak and irregular, although the feeling begins to prevail that the bottom will soon be touched, if it is not already. The shrinkage during the past two weeks has been very decided, and is calculated to make those who bought largely before the decline feel very sore.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 3, 1876.

ARRIVALS.

Following shows the aggregate receipts for the week, as well as those of last week also:

	This week.	Last week.
Cattle	401 cars.	389 cars.
Hogs	98 "	117 "
Sheep	90 "	74 "
Total	589 "	503 "

CATTLE.

Of the 401 cars reported for the week ending at noon to-day, 333 cars were through and 68 cars local against 252 cars of the former and 57 cars of the latter last week. Sales, 831 head; last week, 1,243.

The offerings were again light this week, and with a moderate inquiry and rather more favorable advices from the east, especially New York, the market was better; light weight cattle of medium to good quality, the supply of which was unequal to the demand, ruled a shade higher, say 10a12½c per cwt, but there was scarcely any call for heavy cattle, although the supply of this character was very small. As has been the case for some time past, there was a very small attendance of buyers from the large seaboard markets, and they are about the only buyers of the grade in question; country dealers want light weights, and they have been our chief, we might say, only wholesale buyers, for two or three months. It is worthy of notice, however, that notwithstanding there has been considerable of a falling off in the arrivals of local stock, the run of through consignments is keeping up larger and longer than expected, and while this continues we cannot expect much inquiry here for any of the eastern markets.

QUOTATIONS.

Extra 1,400 a 1,500 steers	5,25a5,35
Good 1,200a1 300 steers	5,00a5,25
Fair 1,000a1,100 steers	4,50a5 00
Stockers 800a1,000 lbs	3,50a4,25
Cows Bulls and Stags	3 50a4,00

The most of the sales this week were within the range of 4a5c.

SHEEP.

The run this week was the largest for some time, and with increased offerings and a diminished demand, owing to unfavorable reports from the east, the market has been a very unsatisfactory one to sellers. Prices as compared with the early part of week are off 15a20c, and as compared with this day week, 30a35c. While there has been a sharp depreciation, it is worthy of notice that this class of live stock is still bringing better prices than cattle and but little less than hogs. In regard to the course of the market during the coming week, it is idle to speculate; it will depend altogether on the supply; it may not be out of place to state, however, that a hard market is usually followed by diminished receipts.

QUOTATIONS.

Prime 95a100 lbs	5,50a5,75
Good 85a90 lbs	5,00a5,25
Fair 75a80 lbs	4,50a4,75
Common 70a75 lbs	3,50a4,00
Indianas according to quality	4,00a5,50

HOGS

The market was exceedingly dull to-day, a few cars of Yorkers changed hands, but there was not a single hog purchased for Philadelphia; it is true the supply was small, but so was the demand, and it is certain prices were no better. The market has been considerably demoralized for ten days past or more; a heavy decline has taken place, and there is no certainty that the lowest notch has been reached, although it is scarcely possible that prices will go much lower, for the present at least. Since this day week, prices have declined just about one cent ⅌ lb; as already stated, trade, even at the decline, was dull, with a corresponding decline in the products. Yorkers quotable at 5.85a6,05, as to quality, and Philadelphia hogs at 6,20a6,25.

THE WOOL TRADE.

Pittsburgh.

It is yet too early in the season to venture a prediction as to prices of the new clip. However, the outlook is the gloomiest we have known for many years, and just for the same reasons that exist in the Iron trade and other manufacturing industries—an over-production of goods has broken down a good many woolen manufacturers, and with the present low prices of goods and the supply of wool greater than the demand, we cannot expect anything but great dullness and extreme low prices to prevail for the coming season. Some think that choice clips of good medium wool will rate at 20a33c, tub-washed at 3?a35c and fine wools at 30a33c. However, with the present outlook, we do not think the trade will be willing to make purchases of good clean wool of any grade at much, if anything, over 30c. If manufacturers are encouraged to make and sell their goods, prices may do better, but this does not seem to be expected.

Philadelphia.

Coates Bros. in their circular for May report as follows: The unusual dullness which has characterized all branches of trade for several months has continued through the month just closed. All the Eastern markets have, for some time, been so exceedingly depressed that it has been utterly impossible to effect sales except by cutting under at figures that made consignors believe that their wools were 'slaughtered.' We have now somewhat more demand but at low prices. This depressed condition of the wool market is very favorable to operators, and if considerable quantities can be bought up in the country before the activity commences it would seem to be a very safe season for speculators, as wool is now on such a basis that there can be little risk of farther decline. The present clip of the country will be large owing to a considerable increase of the far Western wools. This is especially true of the California clip which is nearly all consigned to Boston flooding that market with a wool which is begining to compete very seriously with the well-bred wools of Ohio and the neighboring states.

The losses in manufacturing during the past season have been severe resulting in the failure of a number of large mills and some dealers in the New England states and New York and the crippling of others. Philadelphia, thus far, has been very fortunate in this respect, there having been almost no failures for several years past among the large consumers of wool in this section. The stock of wool at present in the hands of manufacturers must now be, as a general rule, unusually small as they have, for some time, been buying only enough to supply their immediate necessities.

Sales of Domestic wool for the month foot up about 1,500,000 pounds, and the receipts are stated at 830,000 pounds.

Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia Fleece—XXX and Picklock, 45a4?c; XX, 40a43c; X, 38a42c; Half blood, 42a45c; quarter blood, 38a43c; common, 33a37c.

Boston.

The whole market has been quite active all the week, with the sales chiefly in Californias. The auction of Wednesday brought a good many into the market who otherwise might not have come. The sale was a small assignee one, announced as 20,000 X Ohio, 4,000 unwashed, 2,000 Maine fleece. The ideas of buyers were that the lots were small, hence there would be no reason to anticipate the market would be forced, and yet when they came to inspect it the idea was very generally prevalent that over one-half was Vermont, New Hampshire and Michigan, and of the whole lot, say ten per cent., was unmerchantable. Under this impression the knocking of the fleece down at 32½c may be considered a good bargain for the seller. The buyer is understood to have been Taft, of Uxbridge. The unwashed was very good stock, with the unwashed tags in, and brought 22½, considered a fair market price. The buyers understood to be Messrs. Chamberlin, Boston dealers. During and after the sale the manufacturers made a sharp canvass of the market with the results as indicated by our sales below.

The tone of the market for the choice of Californias is a trifle firmer. On other styles the disposition is to meet good buyers fully half way. The average purchases of choice free runs close to 25c. That which realizes above this figure is a fancy price on a fancy clip. There is a small inquiry for combing wools, the very best of which, Kentucky growths, are not over active at 40c. This price is about what they may be considered worth, and is just about all they will bring. In fleece wools a moderate inquiry is met, but buyers have their ideas at 35@36c for good selections of X and XX Ohio, while holders, owing to the momentary scarcity of such grades, are asking from ½ to 1c higher value.

The reports from the interior are very similar to what has been previously stated. Dealers from Detroit are offering to buy now the best or most popular clips at 25c for Michigan wools, while some Eastern canvassers are looking for shearers in Ohio who will take 30c. These are prices below the farmers' ideas, and are values which the trade here are not particularly anxious as yet to back up. The receipts and offers of California wools are continuing to compete very strongly with these prices, and buyers are rather more willing to favor the Pacific than the fleece wools.

Pulled wools are having a small inquiry at 35@38c for Western supers, an occasional lot securing as high as 38c. On Eastern supers 40@42c are the best prices. The flannel men as yet are doing comparatively very little, which gives pulled wools an easy tone.

Receipts for the week amount to 5,316 bales domestic and no bales foreign.

Sales for the week foot up 1,833,500 lbs domestic and 176,000 lbs foreign.

There have been the following sales of fleece wools: 7,500 lbs on p. t.; 5,000 lbs XX Pennsylvania at 42½c; 7,500 lbs X Ohio at 37½c; 85,000 lbs do at 36@38c; 13,000 lbs Michigan X at 33c; 17,000 lbs do at 32@34c; 10,000 lbs do at 35c; 2,000 lbs X New York at 35c; 4,000 lbs fine Georgia at 33c; 9,000 lbs fat sheep at 21½c; 15,000 lbs fine do at 28c.

Washed and unwashed, &c., has sold at follows: 1,200 lbs unwashed Vermont at 23c; 6,500 lbs do at 24@26c; 3,000 lbs unmerchantable Ohio at 25c; 17,000 lbs sundries on p. t.

In combing and delaine, sales of 3,000 lbs combing fleece at 45c; 2,000 lbs low combing at 38c, 10,000 lbs Kentucky combing at 40c; 2,500 lbs fine delaine at 35c; 4,000 lbs delaine at 40c; 2,000 do. No. 2 at 30c; 8,000 lbs pulled at 47½c.

Business, as a rule, drags along in about the usual slow and unsatisfactory manner, and complaints over the condition of the market is about all we obtain in our search after information. The manufacturing interests appear to be as bare of hope as ever, and are working along on the few unimportant orders at hand to just about a sufficient extent to make the general dullness more apparent. It is not a matter of cost on material regarding the demand, as rates are very low on all grades and sellers well disposed to keep terms easy, but simply that supplies are not wanted by consumers to an extent faster than now handled, and they positively refuse to anticipate their necessities. The line of credits is still very firmly and closely drawn, and this, too, continues to have more or less influence in diminishing the volume of business. During the past week the sales of spring California have reached a comparatively full aggregate, but due in the main to the finishing up of negotiations for some time under way, and also said to include the closing out of one or two fine clips at rather low figures. Reports come from the interior of a few sales of new wools at full rates, but only to country buyers. Foreign grades are dull and unchanged.

RIVER NEWS.

State of the Rivers, Movements of Steamboats, &c.

THE stage of water last evening was 3 feet by the marks; however, as noted in our last issue, there are from 6 to 8 inches more water than the marks indicate. Cloudy and cooler.

COM. KOUNTZ still remains in St. Louis.

THE Mary Miller was to have left Cincinnati for St. Louis on Saturday evening.

THE Hercules passed Cincinnati coming up on Thursday, with 11 empty barges and a keel-boat.

IT is whispered that all is not serene with the combination, and there may be music in the air soon.

NO arrivals or departures. The Veteran was due last night with the barge Luzerne, also the regular packets.

THE E. H. Durfee is due at Yankton from Fort Benton, with 55 passengers and a big trip of robes and furs.

PAT. FLANNERY, a rouster on the towboat Alice Brown, died in the Marine Hospital, at Evansville, a few days since.

THE Boaz sunk a coal boat at Fishing Creek Riffle. It is in a good condition, and in no way obstructs the channel.

THE Exchange, Capt. Jas. M. Kirker, is the regular packet for Portsmouth to-morrow, leaving promptly as advertised.

ALVIN H. KELLOGG, late clerk of the Clarksville, died at New Orleans Tuesday. He was only about twenty years old.

THE Iron Mountain passed Cincinnati going down on Thursday morning, with 5 barges of manufactured goods, and 5 barges coke.

THE Arlington was advertised to leave Cincinnati for this port yesterday. The Rhoads will leave St. Louis for Pittsburgh to-morrow or next day.

WHITE CARROL, stabbed in St. Louis, on the 28th ult., by Robert Williamson, will probably recover, though not out of danger. Williamson is in jail awaiting the result of Carroll's wound.

THE C. K. Peck, Capt. J. A. Williams, will, as will be seen by card, take her departure for St. Louis this P. M., and being of a very light draft, no detention from low water need be apprehended. She is a bran new boat.

PILOT DAN LUCAS, deceased, leaves a wife and six children in St. Louis. He was well known between St. Louis and New Orleans, and was formerly an Arkansas pilot, with his residence in Memphis. The Alf. Stephens was his last boat.

AT St. Louis, on Wednesday last, Jno. Morris was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for fatally stabbing Wm. L. Johnson, on the steamer Genevieve, on the 15th of March, in a fight on that steamer. They were deckhands on the Genevieve.

THE Salt Valley, Capt. Dewolfe, with Messrs Kirker and Buchanan in charge of the office, is the regular packet for Ironton to-day, leaving at 4 P. M.; in addition to giving close attentions to way business, she will receipt through to Cincinnati and Louisville.

AT Louisville on Thursday, the tug Ida was sold to Capt. Wood, of Memphis, for the St Bernard Coal Co., for $2,602. The tug Magnolia was sold to R. C. Varble, of that city, for $1,765. The towboat Robin was sold to Sauer & Co, of same city, for $1,595. These boats belonged to a company, and were sold to close a partnership.

THURSDAY noon, an adroit thief broke open the cash-drawer on the H. S. Turner, lying at Cincinnati, while the clerk, Mr. Donally, was absent, abstracting therefrom $400 in currency—enough to pay off her people. No arrest was made; Capt. Hart has been unfortunate of late. His gold watch was stolen on his last trip of the Tom Sherlock.

E. W. MACDONALD, Louisville gauger, reports the last run of coal from Pittsburgh: 26 towboats, with 85 boats, 124 barges of coal—43 barges nut, 4 barges coke. Shipments south—10 towboats, with 104 boats, 60 barges of coal—20 nut and 3 coke. Coal remaining in first hands—3 boats, 242 barges, 48 of nut coal. Coal in the hands of city dealers—177 barges.

A Memphis special to the Cincinnati Commercial, under date of Friday, says: The large towboat J. B. Williams stranded her heavy fleet of coal at the foot of Devil's Elbow Cut-off early this morning, piling the entire tow of thirty-three pieces out on the middle bar. The steamer is not stuck, but she draws too much to get near enough to pull off the grounded boats. Two of them were badly stove and filled. The value of the coal is over $60,000, and it is not insured. The most of it will be saved, but at a considerable expense. Steamers descending should be cautious about coming through the Devil's Elbow Cut-off, the bar forming in the channel being a dangerous obstruction. The Kellogg came down this morning, and went back with empty ice-boats. She may go to the relief of the Williams. The Oakland and coal fleet passed down safely this forenoon. The Williams and tow of coal is destined for New Orleans.

☞ PROFESSIONAL NOTICE.
Drs. Jordan and Davieson
Principals of the Institution of Anatomy, 807 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Lecturers on Anatomy, Physiology and Science, inform their friends and patients that they have again opened a branch office for the practice of their profession at No. 2 EIGHTH STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA., where one of the firm may be confidentially consulted, more especially in all those cases of diseases and debility, for the treatment of which they are so justly celebrated. It is too well known that hundreds, nay thousands suffer from the effects of early indiscretion and seek in vain for relief, for none but the educated physician who has made these subjects a specialty is likely to succeed in restoring the patient to health and strength. To all such Drs. Jordan and Davieson offer certain and speedy relief, and undertake no cases but those in which they are able to guarantee a safe, certain and permanent cure. Their important Medical Work may be had from their office, No. 2 Eighth street, on receipt of 25 cents, and also as usual from their head establishment, 1625 Filbert street, Philadelphia. Hours of consultation from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M., and from 5 P. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M. Every case is strictly confidential. d&S

☞ KEYSTONE DISPENSARY, No. 302 Penn street, Pittsburgh, Pa., a special institution, having a Union-wide reputation for the reliable and successful treatment of Private and Urinary diseases, Spermatorrhoea, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, etc. Everybody should read TRUE MARRIAGE GUIDE, 144 pages; illustrated; cloth and gilt binding; about wonders of reproductive system, marriage, proper age and condition, marriage impediments, causes and consequences. Price 50 cents. Address as above, or call DR. WHITTIER. d&S

Robbery.

A tramp last evening entered the residence of a Mr. Hagan, corner of Twelfth and Neville streets, Twenty-ninth ward, and stole a gold locket and chain and $76 in money. The robbery took place while the family were all out walking. A description of the thief is in the hands of the police.

Shuffled Off.

Michael J. O'Dwyer died suddenly at the Home of the "Little Sisters of the Poor" in Allegheny, yesterday morning about two o'clock, from a dose of poison taken by mistake on Tuesday last. Coroner McCallin held an inquest on the body yesterday, when the jury returned a verdict of death from poison taken accidentally. Mr. O'Dwyer was born in May, 1809, and was consequently 67 years of age. He was single and had no relations in this country so far as could be ascertained.

Hit Him With a Beer Glass.

On Saturday evening about seven o'clock Charles Stoll entered a saloon on Chestnut street, near Third street, Allegheny, and obtained a glass of beer. While drinking it a couple of young men annoyed him so that he finally turned and threw the beer glass at one of them, named Thos. Packer, striking him on the back of the head and knocking him insensible. Packer was removed to his home on Madison avenue and medical aid summoned, but it was some hours before he revived. The injury is of a rather serious nature, and he was unable to leave his bed yesterday. Stoll was arrested and is still in the lock-up. He will probably have a hearing to-day.

The Bakers and the Fourth.

A meeting of the bakers of the two cities and vicinity was called for Saturday night to make arrangements for the Fourth. The attendance was very small, and but little was done. The meeting was organized about half-past eight o'clock, with Mr. T. C. Martin Chairman, and Mr. Jacob Zoch Secretary. After some preliminary discussion, as to ways and means, a motion was adopted that each boss baker turn out with his wagons, and take his men in that way. It is expected that 2,500 men will be in the procession if the bakers all join in the movement. The matter of uniform was discussed, but not decided upon, and after a lengthy talk, but no action, the meeting adjourned, without having fixed a time for holding another.

Matrimonial.

At Uniontown on last Thursday evening Miss Kate Teed was united in marriage to Mr. Lindsay Messmore, son of ex-Sheriff Messmore. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, in the presence of a large number of warm and devoted personal friends, by Rev. R. S. Smith, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church. The supper of which the guests were invited to partake was most elaborately gotten up, and being chiefly the handiwork of the accomplished mother of the bride, it was therefore a substantial as well as, to a gastronome, an enjoyable illustration of her culinary skill. The morning following the alliance Mr. Messmore and his wife left on a brief wedding tour, followed by many wishes for their future happiness.

Purchases of the Standard Oil Company.

The Standard Oil Company has now become owners of nearly every refinery in the oil region, if not all. Their latest purchases include the refinery at Rouseville, owned by Deming, McLaughlin & Co., and the refinery at Miller Farm. There is also rumors of their having obtained the Economy. In Pittsburgh the Standard has a controlling interest; also in Titusville, and will probably soon, if they have not already, obtain entire possession of them. By these purchases the Standard has become possessed of the controlling interest in the refining business of the oil region, Pittsburgh, and Cleveland. This places in their hands, through their arrangement with the railroads, an advantage which can be used for the good or the evil of the producing interests. What result these purchases may have on the market will soon be felt, and the movement of the price of crude will be watched with interest.—Derrick.

Plucked from Destruction.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. McGirr, the gentlemanly operator at the Union Depot telegraph office, was passing up Washington street, in company with another employe at the depot, when their attention was attracted by the cries of some children at the edge of the bank just below the railroad tunnel. Looking in the direction the children were pointing Mr. McG. and friend noticed a four or five year old urchin slipping down the steep embankment, and almost ready to fall over the wall upon the track. An engine was coming through the tunnel, had Mr. McGirr and the other young man rushed to the assistance of the child, caught it at imminent risk to their own lives, just as the engine rushed past. A large crowd had gathered before they got back to the top of the embankment with the child, and its mother never ceased her screams that "her child was dead" until it was placed in her arms unharmed.

SUNDAY HORSE THIEVES.

Hon. Thomas J. Bigham Loses a Horse and Buggy.

When a man is attending conscientiously to the performance of religious duties, it is especially aggravating, and calculated to spoil the effects of a good sermon, to have thieves operate upon his worldly effects. A case in point occurred yesterday. Hon. Thomas J. Bigham drove over to St. Peter's church, corner of Diamond and Grant streets, in the forenoon, to attend services. While engaged in the church in that laudable manner, some person or persons unknown, took charge of his bay mare and top buggy, and still have the articles in possession. The horse was hitched in the alley, and parties living in that locality say that a couple of young men drove out of the alley with such a rig as described. The police are on the lookout for the thieves.

HIGHWAYMEN.

Their Saturday Night Operations in Allegheny.

On Saturday night there was an attempt at highway robbery on Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, some distance beyond Wickline's lane. It appears that about midnight a young man, son of Jacob Holy, the rope maker, while on his way home was very much surprised to suddenly find himself between two men, one on each side of him, and one of whom demanded his money. In reply to the demand Mr. Holy planted his fist in the face of his inquisitor, knocking him down, and then started to run. The other foot-pad quickly drew a revolver and fired six shots at him, one of which whistled past within a few inches of his head. He succeeded, however, in making his escape. There are evidently other parties who are desirous of following Murray and Meyers to the scaffold.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Saturday's Match—Coming Contests—A Lost Opportunity.

In their contest at Union Park on Saturday with the Alleghenys the Iron Citys were strengthened by the addition of McGeary, of the Sewickleys, and Dickson, formerly of the Braddocks. The game was not a very interesting one, and ended in a victory for the Alleghenys by a score of 15 to 4. The Iron Citys did not make a run until the seventh inning.

There will be no game to-day, but to-morrow the Alleghenys play the Athletics, of Mansfield, Ohio, and the Philadelphias on Friday.

"It was at Union Park during the progress of the Neshannock-Allegheny match. A mild-looking man dressed in black was taking in all the beauties of the contest. A good play of the Allegheny boys made his face lighten up like a Chinese lantern on the deck of a canal boat. He turned to a friend near by, and rubbing his hands together with delight, remarked: 'Isn't that nice; our boys may prove victorious yet.' Scarcely were the words out of his mouth when a dirty hand containing a roll of sweaty greenbacks was thrust under his nose. The man in black allowed his eye to rest on the excited owner of the money, and discovered that it was a man from New Castle. Gently repulsing the money, he mildly remarked: 'My friend, I never bet.' 'Well!' yelled tempestuous New Castle man, "what the thunder are you blowing your infernal old shell around here for?' This was too much, and the clergyman—for such was the occupation of the man in black—wended his way from the Park, no doubt ruminating on the evil adjuncts of base ball matches."—New Castle Guardian. When the game was over the rolls of sweaty greenbacks had all passed from dirty hands to the pockets of the friends of the Alleghenys, and "the man in black" had missed the

At Hartford—Hartfords 7, Cincinnatis 2. Philadelphia—St. Louis 16, Athletics 11. Boston—Chicagos 8, Bostons 4; Harvard 4, Yale 3. At New York the Louisvilles won a splendid victory over the Mutuals, defeating the latter by a score of 8 to 1, and that one was obtained by Hallihan being given first base on an error.

Criminal Court.

(Before Judge Kirkpatrick.)

This being the close of the March sessions, all persons bound in recognizance to appear at the term whose cases have not been disposed of were called upon to renew their recognizances for their appearance at June sessions. A. Henne, the recusant witness, before the Carson-legislation water bond-investigation committee who stands indicted for refusing to testify, was called upon to renew his bail but declined. Judge Kirkpatrick stated that he had received several petitions or applications from various persons to relieve Mr. Henne on his own recognizance but he failed to see why he should be so released. His case did not differ from that of any other violater of the law, so far as the court could ascertain from the facts before it, and if Mr. H. was guilty of the offense charged against him in the indictment he should be punished. Mr. Henne would have to either renew his bail, or go to jail, and Mr. Henne declining to do the former he was ordered into the custody of the warden.

An order was made committing an unknown insane man who was picked up on the streets a few days since by the police, to Dixmont. There has been no clue to his identity discovered further than the finding of a much worn and soiled receipt for pew rent in St. Peter's church, of Steubenville, to Corcoran or Corvan.

Trial List for To-day.

Commonwealth vs.

Philip Murray,	John Day et al.
James Crilley,	Mike Welsh (3)

Court Brevities.

JOHN DRUELY entered suit in Common Pleas Court No. 2 on Saturday against R. A. Fitzsimmons, a constable, and W. H. Nantker to recover damages for an alleged illegal proceeding, claiming that they disposed of his goods at constable sale without authority of law. The damages claimed are $500.

A REGULAR meeting of the Prison Board was held Saturday, Judge Sterrett in the chair, and Controller Warner Secretary. Bills to the amount of $224.29 were read and ordered to be paid out of the regular county fund, and bills to the amount of $2,539 ordered to be paid out of the liquor license fund. Bills amounting to $189.48, paid by the Controller during the interval of the meetings of the Board, were approved. Total bills approved, $2,952.77.

THE case of the Commonwealth vs. Philip Murray will be taken up in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day. The accused it will be remembered is indicted for the murder of James White at Zug's mill over a year since. The case was tried at a former session of the Court and a verdict of murder in the first degree returned. A motion was made for a new trial which was refused and the case carried to the Supreme Court, where the Court below was reversed and a new trial awarded.

A. M. WATSON, Esq., for himself. Thos. M. Mashal, Stephen Mercer and others, property holders in the Tenth ward, Allegheny City, applied in Common Pleas No. 2, Saturday, for a mandamus on Charles Davis, Engineer, and the City of Allegheny. The application sets forth that the petitioners are filing a bill in equity to restrain the City of Allegheny from collecting taxes assessed on property in said ward, and that in order to perfect said bill a plan of the ward as made by the Engineer and approved by Councils is necessary. That petitioners have applied for a copy of said plan, permission to make a copy thereof which has been refused by the Chief Engineer. A rule to show cause why a mandamus should not issue was granted, returnable Thursday.

The action is the result of the Karn's line running a branch to Hilliard's Mills, and proceeding to pump oil through it, contrary to the rules of the combination and the contract between the different lines.

····The Sunday Globe, Mr. James Breen's new journalistic enterprise, made its appearance upon the streets yesterday, and was eagerly gobbled up, not a copy being obtainable after noon. It is eminently a local paper, and in that respect was far ahead of its Sunday cotemporaries. Everything about it bears the unmistakable imprint of its versatile editor. Its news is fresh, and in its preparation care has evidently been exercised to make it readable and interesting, and relieve it of the appearance of machine work—one of the chief features of the Pittsburgh Sunday papers. There is ample room for the Globe in this city, and we trust that Mr. Breen will meet the most complete success. He deserves it because of personal worth, and full appreciation of the dignity and demands of the profession.

We received a call Saturday from Rev. J. H. Miller, Secretary of The Point Chatauqua Association, an organization of the Baptist Brethren for establishing and maintaining a very picturesque, diversified and beautiful summer resort for rest and innocent recreation. He reports that all things are ready, and from his description we foresee that the Point is destined to become popular in proportion as it becomes known. Mr. Miller, who is a most agreeable and courteous gentleman, is quite enthusiastic in his description and praise of this new feature of Chatauqua Lake attractions.

POLITICAL.

The Primaries on Saturday—A Warm Contest—The Probable Result—The Coming Men.

The most hotly contested primary elections that have been held by the Republicans of this county for several years were those of Saturday. The interest in the centered on the contest for Congress between Russell Errett and Hon. James S. Negley, who carried the contest into almost every voting precint in the district. Out of the 133 delegates in the district Errett is conceded 67, the number required to nominate, but Mr. Errett's friends claim that he will go into the Convention with 90 votes. The returns so far as heard from give him 88.

TWENTY-THIRD DISTRICT.

In the Twenty-third Congressional district Col. Thos. M. Bayne has no opposition, and will, of course, be nominated by acclamation.

STATE SENATE.

The contest for the State Senate in the Forty-third district was a very one-sided affair, Mr. Gazzam receiving over 40 of the 57 votes in the contest.

Messrs. McNeil and Newmyer, in the Forty-second and Forty-fourth districts, have no opposition, and will, of course, be nominated by acclamation.

In the Forty-fifth district there was a warm contest between Steel and Gilfillan, and the returns received indicate that Steel will be the winning man.

PROTHONOTARY.

The most determined contest, omitting that for Congress in the 22d district, was the triangular fight for the office of Prothonotary, between B. F. Kennedy, B. B. Coursin, and Col. Glenn. The result, however, is altogether one-sided, to the astonishment of the candidates and their friends. Of the 253 delegates in the Prothonotary's Convention, Kennedy now counts on 160, with the possibility of 40 more, which gives him a clear field.

TREASURER.

The returns of delegates to the Coroner's Convention, which will also nominate a candidate for Treasurer and one for Jury Commissioner, are so meagre at this writing that it is impossible to say what the result will be in either case. Mr. McCallin's friends claim that he will go into the Convention with over one hundred and fifty delegates pledged to him for Treasurer, which will be more than sufficient to nominate him. It is also claimed that Thomas is the strongest man for Coroner. These, however, are only the views of friends of the parties named, and we publish them as such in the absence of fuller information on the subject.

ASSEMBLY.

In the first district Messrs. Long, Graham and Walker will be nominated without opposition, and in the remaining districts it is impossible to arrive at any conclusion from the information at hand.

The ancients had their seven wonders of the world, and now Pittsburgh is able to make the eight, which is the Tivoli Garden, located at No. 92 Fifth avenue. This Garden, on account of its beauty and attractions, has been visited by thousands during the week it has been opened, all of whom are loud in their praises of its inimitable grandeur, beauty and elegance. It is, perhaps, not too much to say that the Keystone State has not its equal for size, finish, style and excellent appoinments.

CENTENNIAL PROGRESS.

Saturday Night's Meeting of the Joint Committee—No Foreign Political Flags or Music—The Question of Location.

Another meeting of the Joint Centennial Committee of Pittsburgh and Allegheny Councils was held on Saturday evening in Allegheny, Mr. W. C. Cock presiding.

The first matter before the committee was the "Orange question," which was referred to it by the Convention. Mr. Acheson moved to adopt the motion offered by Dr. Donnelly in the Convention, prohibiting the carrying of foreign political banners and the playing of tunes of like nature.

Mr. P. Bedell moved to refer the matter to the Chief Marshal and Division Marshals with power to act.

Mr. Eugene M. O'Neill offered the amendment that "all flags or colors having reference to foreign politics, and all music of a like-known political significance, be prohibited."

Mr. McKelvy offered a substitute that "the whole matter be referred to a committee of five to be appointed by the chairman, and the Chief Marshal, a delegate from the Orange societies, and a delegate from the Catholic societies, to constitute the committee, with power to act."

Mr. O'Neill's amendment, with "flags and banners" substituted for "colors," was adopted.

The Committee on Location reported that the Park Commission had declined to grant the use of the Parks for the celebration, except that portion known as Monument Hill. The Commission feared that the grass would be ruined.

Mr. Bedell moved that "the heartfelt thanks of the committee be extended to the Park Commission for their patriotism in refusing the use of the Parks."

Mr. Golden made an explanation, supporting the action of the Commission. The motion was carried, nevertheless.

Mr. Fox moved to continue the Committee on Location, with instruction to examine into the propriety of selecting some grove near the city in which the celebration might be held. This motion was further amended by Mr. Hartman instructing the committee to also see to getting a suitable place for fire-works. Motion adopted as amended.

Upon motion of Mr. Stevenson it was decided to take measures to have all the male youths possible between the years of 12 and 21 organized and put in order for marching on the occasion.

Messrs. Neeb, Golden and Nesbit were appointed a sub-committee to suggest names for two additional Marshals.

Adjourned to meet Saturday evening in this city.

Robbery.

A tramp last evening entered the residence of a Mr. Hagan, corner of Twelfth and Neville streets, Twenty-ninth ward, and stole a gold locket and chain and $76 in money. The robbery took place while the family were all out walking. A description of the thief is in the hands of the police.

Shuffled Off.

Michael J. O'Dwyer died suddenly at the Home of the "Little Sisters of the Poor" in Allegheny, yesterday morning about two o'clock, from a dose of poison taken by mistake on Tuesday last. Coroner McCallin held an inquest on the body yesterday, when the jury returned a verdict of death from poison taken accidentally. Mr. O'Dwyer was born in May, 1809, and was consequently 67 years of age. He was single and had no relations in this country so far as could be ascertained.

Hit Him With a Beer Glass.

On Saturday evening about seven o'clock Charles Stoll entered a saloon on Chestnut street, near Third street, Allegheny, and obtained a glass of beer. While drinking it a couple of young men annoyed him so that he finally turned and threw the beer glass at one of them, named Thos. Packer, striking him on the back of the head and knocking him insensible. Packer was removed to his home on Madison avenue and medical aid summoned, but it was some hours before he revived. The injury is of a rather serious nature, and he was unable to leave his bed yesterday. Stoll was arrested and is still in the lock-up. He will probably have a hearing to-day.

The Bakers and the Fourth.

A meeting of the bakers of the two cities and vicinity was called for Saturday night to make arrangements for the Fourth. The attendance was very small, and but little was done. The meeting was organized about half-past eight o'clock, with Mr. T. C. Martin Chairman, and Mr. Jacob Zoch Secretary. After some preliminary discussion, as to ways and means, a motion was adopted that each boss baker turn out with his wagons, and take his men in that way. It is expected that 2,500 men will be in the procession if the bakers all join in the movement. The matter of uniform was discussed, but not decided upon, and after a lengthy talk, but no action, the meeting adjourned, without having fixed a time for holding another.

Matrimonial.

At Uniontown on last Thursday evening Miss Kate Teed was united in marriage to Mr. Lindsay Messmore, son of ex-Sheriff Messmore. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, in the presence of a large number of warm and devoted personal friends, by Rev. R. S. Smith, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church. The supper of which the guests were invited to partake was most elaborately gotten up, and being chiefly the handiwork of the accomplished mother of the bride, it was therefore a substantial as well as, to a gastronome, an enjoyable illustration of her cutinary skill. The morning following the alliance Mr. Messmore and his wife left on a brief wedding tour, followed by many wishes for their future happiness.

Purchases of the Standard Oil Company.

The Standard Oil Company has now become owners of nearly every refinery in the oil region, if not all. Their latest purchases include the refinery at Rouseville, owned by Deming, McLaughlin & Co., and the refinery at Miller Farm. There is also rumors of their having obtained the Economy. In Pittsburgh the Standard has a controlling interest; also in Titusville, and will probably soon, if they have not already, obtain entire possession of them. By these purchases the Standard has become possessed of the controlling interest in the refining business of the oil region, Pittsburgh, and Cleveland. This places in their hands, through their arrangement with the railroads, an advantage which can be used for the good or the evil of the producing interests. What result these purchases may have on the market will soon be felt, and the movement of the price of crude will be watched with interest.—Derrick.

Plucked from Destruction.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. McGirr, the gentlemanly operator at the Union Depot telegraph office, was passing up Washington street, in company with another employe at the depot, when their attention was attracted by the cries of some children at the edge of the bank just below the railroad tunnel. Looking in the direction the children were pointing Mr. McG. and friend noticed a four or five year old urchin slipping down the steep embankment, and almost ready to fall over the wall upon the track. An engine was coming through the tunnel, had Mr. McGirr and the other young man rushed to the assistance of the child, caught it at imminent risk to their own lives, just as the engine rushed past. A large crowd had gathered before they got back to the top of the embankment with the child, and its mother never ceased her screams that "her child was dead" until it was placed in her arms unharmed.

SUNDAY HORSE THIEVES.

Hon. Thomas J. Bigham Loses a Horse and Buggy.

When a man is attending conscientiously to the performance of religious duties, it is especially aggravating, and calculated to spoil the effects of a good sermon, to have thieves operate upon his worldly effects. A case in point occurred yesterday. Hon. Thomas J. Bigham drove over to St. Peter's church, corner of Diamond and Grant streets, in the forenoon, to attend services. While engaged in the church in that laudable manner, some person or persons unknown, took charge of his bay mare and top buggy, and still have the articles in possession. The horse was hitched in the alley, and parties living in that locality say that a couple of young men drove out of the alley with such a rig as described. The police are on the lookout for the thieves.

HIGHWAYMEN.

Their Satu[illegible] Night Operations in [illegible]gheny.

On Saturday night there was an attempt at highway robbery on Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, some distance beyond Wickline's lane. It appears that about midnight a young man, son of Jacob Holy, the rope maker, while on his way home was very much surprised to suddenly find himself between two men, one on each side of him, and one of whom demanded his money. In reply to the demand Mr. Holy planted his fist in the face of his inquisitor, knocking him down, and then started to run. The other foot-pad quickly drew a revolver and fired six shots at him, one of which whistled past within a few inches of his head. He succeeded, however, in making his escape. There are evidently other parties who are desirous of following Murray and Meyers to the scaffold.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Saturday's Match—Coming Contests—A Lost Opportunity.

In their contest at Union Park on Saturday with the Alleghenys the Iron Citys were strengthened by the addition of McGeary, of the Sewickleys, and Dickson, formerly of the Braddocks. The game was not a very [illegible]ting one, and ended in a victory fo[illegible]nys by a score of 15 to 4. The [illegible] did not make a run until the se[illegible]ing. There will [illegible]me to-day, but to-morrow the Allegh[illegible] play the Athletics, of Mansfield, Ohio, and the Philadelphias on Friday.

"It was at Union Park during the progress of the Neshannock-Allegheny match. A mild-looking man dressed in black was taking in all the beauties of the contest. A good play of the Allegheny boys made his face lighten up like a Chinese lantern on the deck of a canal boat. He turned to a friend near by, and rubbing his hands together with delight, remarked: 'Isn't that nice; our boys may prove victorious yet.' Scarcely were the words out of his mouth when a dirty hand containing a roll of sweaty greenbacks was thrust under his nose. The man in black allowed his eye to rest on the excited owner of the money, and discovered that it was a man from New Castle. Gently repulsing the money, he mildly remarked: 'My friend, I never bet.' 'Well!' yelled tempestuous New Castle man, 'what the thunder are you blowing your infernal old shell around here for?' This was too much, and the clergyman—for such was the occupation of the man in black—wended his way from the Park, no doubt ruminating on the evil adjuncts of base ball matches."—New Castle Guardian. When the game was over the rolls of sweaty greenbacks had all passed from dirty hands to the pockets of the friends of the Alleghenys, and "the man in black" had missed the

"Tide in the affairs of men,
Which, taken at the flood,
Leads on to fortune."

At Hartford—Hartfords 7, Cincinnatis 2. Philadelphia—St. Louis 16, Athletics 11. Boston—Chicagos 8, Bostons 4; Harvard 4, Yale 3. At New York the Louisvilles won a splendid victory over the Mutuals, defeating the latter by a score of 8 to 1, and that one was obtained by Hallihan being given first base on an error.

Criminal Court.

(Before Judge Kirkpatrick.)

This being the close of the March sessions, all persons bound in recognizance to appear at the term whose cases have not been disposed of were called upon to renew their recognizances for their appearance at June sessions. A Henne, the recusant witness, before the Carson-legislation water bond-investigation committee who stands indicted for refusing to testify, was called upon to renew his bail but declined. Judge Kirkpatrick stated that he had received several petitions or applications from various persons to relieve Mr. Henne on his own recognizance but he failed to see why he should be so released. His case did not differ from that of any other violater of the law, so far as the court could ascertain from the facts before it, and if Mr. H. was guilty of the offense charged against him in the indictment he should be punished. Mr. Henne would have to either renew his bail, or go to jail, and Mr. Henne declining to do the former he was ordered into the custody of the warden.

An order was made committing an unknown insane man who was picked up on the streets a few days since by the police, to Dixmont. There has been no clue to his identity discovered further than the finding of a much worn and soiled receipt for pew rent in St. Peter's church, of Steubenville, to Corcoran or Corvan.

Trial List for To-day.

Commonwealth vs.
Philip Murray, John Day et al.

Court Brevities.

JOHN DRUELY entered suit in Common Pleas Court No. 2 on Saturday against R. A. Fitzsimmons, a constable, and W. H. Nantker to recover damages for an alleged illegal proceeding, claiming that they disposed of his goods at constable sale without authority of law. The damages claimed are $500.

A REGULAR meeting of the Prison Board was held Saturday, Judge Sterrett in the chair, and Controller Warner Secretary. Bills to the amount of $224.29 were read and ordered to be paid out of the regular county fund, and bills to the amount of $2,539 ordered to be paid out of the liquor license fund. Bills amounting to $189.48, paid by the Controller during the interval of the meetings of the Board, were approved. Total bills approved, $2,952.77.

THE case of the Commonwealth vs. Philip Murray will be taken up in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day. The accused it will be remembered is indicted for the murder of James White at Zug's mill over a year since. The case was tried at a former session of the Court and a verdict of murder in the first degree returned. A motion was made for a new trial which was refused and the case carried to the Supreme Court, where the Court below was reversed and a new trial awarded.

A. M. WATSON, Esq., for himslf. Thos. M. Mashal, Stephen Mercer and others, property holders in the Tenth ward, Allegheny City, applied in Common Pleas No. 2, Saturday, for a mandamus on Charles Davis, Engineer, and the City of Allegheny. The application sets forth that the petitioners are filing a bill in equity to restrain the City of Allegheny from collecting taxes assessed on property in said ward, and that in order to perfect said bill a plan of the ward as made by the Engineer and approved by Councils is necessary. That petitioners have applied for a copy of said plan, permission to make a copy thereof which has been refused by the Chief Engineer. A rule to show cause why a mandamus should not issue was granted, returnable Thursday.

At that time a resolution was passed to that end. It is not thought that it will influence the market in any way. The action is the result of the Karn's line running a branch to Hilliard's Mills, and proceeding to pump oil through it, contrary to the rules of the combination and the contract between the different lines.

····The Sunday Globe, Mr. James Breen's new journalistic enterprise, made its appearance upon the streets yesterday, and was eagerly gobbled up, not a copy being obtainable after noon. It is eminently a local paper, and in that respect was far ahead of its Sunday cotemporaries. Everything about it bears the unmistakable imprint of its versatile editor. Its news is fresh, and in its preparation care has evidently been exercised to make it readable and interesting, and relieve it of the appearance of machine work—one of the chief features of the Pittsburgh Sunday papers. There is ample room for the Globe in this city, and we trust that Mr. Breen will meet the most complete success. He deserves it because of personal worth, and full appreciation of the dignity and demands of the profession.

He reports that all things are ready, and from his description we foresee that the Point is destined to become popular in proportion as it becomes known. Mr. Miller, who is a most agreeable and courteous gentleman, is quite enthusiastic in his description and praise of this new feature of Chatauqua Lake attractions.

POLITICAL.

The Primaries on Saturday—A Warm Contest—The Probable Result—The Coming Men.

The most hotly contested primary elections that have been held by the Republicans of this county for several years were those of Saturday. The interest in the centered on the contest for Congress between Russell Errett and Hon. James S. Negley, who carried the contest into almost every voting precint in the district. Out of the 133 delegates in the district Errett is conceded 67, the number required to nominate, but Mr. Errett's friends claim that he will go into the Convention with 90 votes. The returns so far as heard from give him 88.

22ND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

TWENTY-THIRD DISTRICT.

In the Twenty-third Congressional district Col. Thos. M. Bayne has no opposition, and will, of course, be nominated by acclamation.

STATE SENATE.

The contest for the State Senate in the Forty-third district was a very one-sided affair, Mr. Gazzam receiving over 40 of the 57 votes in the contest.

Messrs. McNeil and Newmyer, in the Forty-second and Forty-fourth districts, have no opposition, and will, of course, be nominated by acclamation.

In the Forty-fifth district there was a warm contest between Steel and Gilfillan, and the returns received indicate that Steel will be the winning man.

PROTHONOTARY.

The most determined contest, omitting that for Congress in the 22d district, was the triangular fight for the office of Prothonotary, between B. F. Kennedy, B. B. Coursin, and Col. Glenn. The result, however, is altogether one-sided, to the astonishment of the candidates and their friends. Of the 253 delegates in the Prothonotary's Convention, Kennedy now counts on 160, with the possibility of 40 more, which gives him a clear field.

TREASURER.

The returns of delegates to the Coroner's Convention, which will also nominate a candidate for Treasurer and one for Jury Commissioner, are so meagre at this writing that it is impossible to say what the result will be in either case. Mr. McCallin's friends claim that he will go into the Convention with over one hundred and fifty delegates pledged to him for Treasurer, which will be more than sufficient to nominate him. It is also claimed that Thomas is the strongest man for Coroner. These, however, are only the views of friends of the parties named, and we publish them as such in the absence of fuller information on the subject.

ASSEMBLY.

In the first district Messrs. Long, Graham and Walker will be nominated without opposition, and in the remaining districts it is impossible to arrive at any conclusion from the information at hand.

The Eighth Wonder.

The ancients had their seven wonders of the world, and now Pittsburgh is able to make the eight, which is the Tivoli Garden, located at No. 92 Fifth avenue. This Garden, on account of its beauty and attractions, has been visited by thousands during the week it has been opened, all of whom are loud in their praises of its inimitable grandeur, beauty and elegance. It is, perhaps, not too much to say that the Keystone State has not its equal for size, finish, style and excellent appoinments.

CENTENNIAL PROGRESS.

Saturday Night's Meeting of the Joint Committee—No Foreign Political Flags or Music—The Question of Location.

Another meeting of the Joint Centennial Committee of Pittsburgh and Allegheny Councils was held on Saturday evening in Allegheny, Mr. W. C. Cook presiding.

The first matter before the committee was the "Orange question," which was referred to it by the Convention. Mr. Acheson moved to adopt the motion offered by Dr. Donnelly in the Convention, prohibiting the carrying of foreign political banners and the playing of tunes of like nature.

Mr. P. Bedell moved to refer the matter to the Chief Marshal and Division Marshals with power to act.

Mr. Eugene M. O'Neill offered the amendment that "all flags or colors having reference to foreign politics, and all music of a like-known political significance, be prohibited."

Mr. McKelvy offered a substitute that "the whole matter be referred to a committee of five to be appointed by the chairman, and the Chief Marshal, a delegate from the Orange societies, and a delegate from the Catholic societies, to constitute the committee, with power to act."

Mr. O'Neill's amendment, with "flags and banners" substituted for "colors," was adopted.

The Committee on Location reported that the Park Commission had declined to grant the use of the Parks for the celebration, except that portion known as Monument Hill. The Commission feared that the grass would be ruined.

Mr. Bedell moved that "the heartfelt thanks of the committee be extended to the Park Commission for their patriotism in refusing the use of the Parks."

Mr. Golden made an explanation, supporting the action of the Commission. The motion was carried, nevertheless.

Mr. Fox moved to continue the Committee on Location, with instruction to examine into the propriety of selecting some grove near the city in which the celebration might be held. This motion was further amended by Mr. Hartman instructing the committee to also see to getting a suitable place for fire-works. Motion adopted as amended.

Upon motion of Mr. Stevenson it was decided to take measures to have all the male youths possible between the years of 12 and 21 organized and put in order for marching on the occasion.

Messrs. Neeb, Golden and Nesbit were appointed a sub-committee to suggest names for two additional Marshals.

Adjourned to meet Saturday evening in this city.
